Rails Offer Best Resistance: Some Close at Slight Advance

By JOHN L. COOLEY NEW YORK, Nov. 10-(AP)-Recent speculators for the advance took profits today, giving a ures. lower direction to security and grain prices.

Losses of around 3 cents a bularger declines in rye and somewhat smaller recessions in corn, caused little concern, although Bonds, too, gave ground after ver advanced a cent and a half to tures. Rubber lost more than a heavy. half-cent a pound.

Rail stocks offered the best resistance in shares, many principal issues closing with small gains as the result of a last minute mark-up. The decline by utilities and industrials was slow and net losses in most instances were confined to a point or so. The turnover dropped to 1.717.552 shares from vesterday's 3,000,000 odd.

Prices generally finished above the bottom. U. S. Steel reduced an extreme loss of more than 2 to 14. Net declines in Bethlehem. National Biscuit, American Can, General Electric, General Motors. Sears Roebuck, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Westinghouse and Union Carbide ran from 1 to 1%. American Telephone and corn products were off about 2.

In the rails, Santa Fe, Norfolk & Western, Union Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio and Pennsylvania ranged from a fraction to a point higher.

The new British government's announced intention of stabilizing Sterling had a firming effect on that exchange during most of the day although a gain of around a May cent and a half was more than Dec. lost. The final cable rate was $3.80½, off a cent. German northern spring, western red 70, Oats: No. 2 white $24.50. Corn: No. 2 E. Y. $27.50. Millrun standard $20.50. The Japanese yen recovered yesterday's small loss.

Higher prices for dairy products in the southern California markets is declared responsible for the demand and prices paid to Oregon and Washington dairymen for good dairy stock.

FALLS CITY ROAD SAID IMPASSABLE

VALSETZ. Nov. 10 - Mrs. George March and Miss Agnes Sheeon will leave Wednesday for Dallas where they will attend the teachers' institute. Heavy rains and hard wind have caused the mountain road to Falls City to be almost impassible in the last week. At this time of the year there is very little traffic over the mountain.

Haurice Foshang and son, Alf, were home Sunday and Monday. They have been employed near Portland.

D. A. Grant and Floyd Bagley. were visitors in Valsetz over the week end. Mr. Grant was manager of Cobbs and Mitchell store Mr. Bagley also worked in the store for several years.

Dressed Veal is Down Half Cent, Hogs Hold Steady

The local wheat market, which has climbed or remained still for two weeks, took a backward slide yesterday, going down two notches to tops of 63 cents on red and 64 cents on white.

Hogs remained unchanged, both live and dressed. Dressed veal went down a half cent, to new top of eight cents a pound. All dairy produce quotations remain unchanged.

PORTLAND, Nov. 10-(AP)-Demand for tomatoes was keen during the Tuesday session of the East Side Farmers' wholesale market. Trading was shown generally at a spread of 30 to 75c box, according to condition.

Cauliflower was generally 30-35c crate for B's with a few 40c for near 1s. Cabbage was easy at 60-65c for rates and a half dollar for sacks. Dalles lettuce was easier but for no good reason aside from the unwillingness of sellers to accept above $1 crate for offerings that were not strictly No. 1. The best stock sold up to $1.25 but could have moved a quarter above this if sellers asked it. No. 2 and locals around 75c crate. Potatoes were dull but unchanged in price.

Hothouse tomatoes were $2.35 for standard, $2.50 for fancy and $2.75 crate for extra fancy. Apple trade was unchanged as were pears. Celery hearts showed a fair movement around $1 doz. bunches. There will be no market Wednesday; Armistice day,

PORTLAND, Nov. 10-(AP)-The late advance forced in the price of eggs at Portland and announced by the Pacific co-ops, reflected not only the better-ment in the local situation on count of the more general selling of fresh stock, but strength in the country generally.

Recent advances in the eastern price have been quickly reflected at Portland, Demand for eggs is again increasing because of the greater percent of strictly fresh goods selling. Up to this time most of the so-called fresh eggs, were out of coolers. Now there appears a fairly abundant stock of fresh lay to take care of

The market's wants are being well taken care of in the pullet and medium class but extras appears less plentiful as compared with the increasing call. Again there appears a fairly steady tone in the open market ness in the buying with 90 to 91 scores fully steady. In the market for country lambs are in good call.
