

POLK INSTITUTE ON TOMORROW

Leading Educators of State
Will Address Two-
Day Gathering

DALLAS, Nov. 11.—The annual Polk county teachers institute will begin its first session at the Dallas senior high school at 8 a. m. Thursday, and will continue through Friday.

The instructors and speakers chosen for the institute are: Dr. O. R. Chambers, Oregon State college; Prof. H. S. Tuttle, University of Oregon; R. J. Maaske, state department of education; James M. Burgess, state department of education; E. F. Carleton, Oregon State Teachers' association; E. T. Ludovici, Portland; Florence Beardsey, Helen L. Martin, Dora E. Scheffsky, Mona D. Sheldon and Oma Belle Emmons, Oregon Normal school; Grace Forrette, Portland; Henrietta Morris, Oregon Tuberculosis association; Alice MacBride, music, Dallas schools.

The various departments will be supervised by the following: High school, S. E. Whitworth; advanced, Lyle D. Thomas; intermediate, Mrs. Alma O. Dempsey; primary, Addie Martin; rural, Joseph Will; health, Mrs. Anna Forrette; art exhibit, Mrs. Anne Dash-tell.

At 11:45 o'clock Thursday morning, the annual meeting of the Polk County Teachers' association will be held. This meeting is held for the purpose of electing the county division officers. Delegates to the Oregon State Teachers' association will be chosen and nomination of officers for the state association will be attended to.

The luncheon for teachers who have attended Oregon Normal school will be held at the Methodist church Thursday noon. All former students at Oregon Normal are urged to attend this luncheon.

Girls Sextet Aids
In Yearly Program
At Portland Y.W.

CHEMAWA, Nov. 11.—The girls sextet at the vocational training school went to Portland Sunday where they put on the annual program presented by Chemawa at the Young Women's Christian association in Portland.

The girls composing this sextet are Alice Slater, Marie LaFrance, Dora LaFrance, Melba Arnoux, Bertha Peratovich and Priscilla

Hayashi. Their director is Miss Alice Judd, who with Miss Gertrude Eakin accompanied the girls to Portland. The girls received much praise for the numbers presented.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Mason entertained a number of friends complimenting Mrs. Keith Edwards with a surprise birthday party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Vosburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Lavelle, Miss Jasmine Lindquist, Miss Rosalind Crause, Miss Opal Mountjoy, Mrs. T. C. Vesper, Mr. and Mrs. Cardy and Mrs. Edwards.

BALL PLAYERS ARE FETED AT BANQUET

GERVAIS, Nov. 11.—Donald, Cecil and Kenneth Manning attended a banquet given for members of the ball team composing the Cascade league at the Mt. Angel hotel Thursday night. Fred Ferschweiler, another member of the team from Gervais, was unable to attend. Orville Schwab of Silvertown, a member of the team is also a former Gervais boy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Snyder have spent most of the past three weeks with relatives. They spent a week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Cal Carbaugh and family at Siver. They then went to Oregon City to be with Mr. Snyder's sister, C. T. Blackburn, who is ill, and on to Portland to visit Mrs. Snyder's sister, Mrs. H. L. Rogers.

Mrs. Bird Elliott, Mrs. Anna McGur and Mrs. W. C. Snyder will be hostesses for the monthly meeting of the St. Rita's altar society to be held at the parish hall Wednesday afternoon of next week.

Quarter Conference
Mission is Thursday

LABISH CENTER, Nov. 11.—The quarterly conference session for the Labish mission will be held at the school house Thursday night. Rev. C. P. Gates and Rev. H. R. Scheurman will be in charge, and the representation will include delegates from Middle Grove, Clear Lake, and Labish Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trachsel and family of Meridian were Sunday dinner guests at the W. F. Klamppe home.

INJURES FINGERS
INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Emma McCoy nearly lost two fingers while splitting kindling a few days ago. The wounded fingers were dressed by a local physician.

LANDMARK UNDER HAMMER, STAYTON

W. C. T. U. Organizes, With Mrs. W. H. Lyman as First President

STAYTON, Nov. 11.—Harry Humphrey is tearing down the old house on his lots next to the Korinek Remedy company building, and Mrs. W. H. Hobson recalls that she, her older brother and cousin lived in this house 25 years ago, before she was married.

At that time the house was one of the best in town. Although the house had been on fire three or four times in the past half century, it was never but slightly damaged. Mrs. Hobson says the house was not even when she lived there, and it is probably among some of the first houses built in town.

A Women's Christian Temperance Union, with about 15 or 20 members has been organized here. Officers are: Mrs. W. H. Lyman, president; Mrs. Gile Brown, vice president; Mrs. E. C. Downing, secretary and Mrs. Carl Titus, treasurer. The first meeting of the group will be held on November 13 when the organization work will be completed and committees named.

The visit of Mrs. E. Buck, field manager for the W. C. T. U., was the inspiration for the Stayton women to organize. It is said that 45 years ago an organization of this kind was in existence here.

This is National Education week, and an invitation has been extended to parents and friends to visit the schools. Other things of interest were the physical examination for girls which was held Monday in connection with the physical education program for this year's work. Thirty-two girls were in the lineup, Tuesday, two out of three groups in the U. S. history class put on interesting programs of tableaux of scenes during the Revolutionary and Civil wars. J. G. Swan, former principal of the Eugene and Wheeler high school stalked before the students that same occasion.

Home People Elated Over Fischer's Mark

SALEM HEIGHTS, Nov. 11.—Many Salem Heights folk were greatly elated over the news that Fred F. Fischer, butter maker for the Capitol Dairies of Salem, secured first prize for his company in the state, running second in 44 states in the national competition for high butter score.

He has been a resident of Salem Heights the past eight years, is an officer in the community league and both himself and wife are very active in community affairs. Before coming here to live he was in the farm and dairy business many years in his native state of Iowa.

S-H Students
Take Awards
At Corn Fair

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 11.—The road map of Polk county was a feature of the exhibit at the corn show by the students of the Smith-Hughes department of the Independence high school under the supervision of Howard Bennett, instructor.

The booth contained a splendid display and prizes were awarded as follows: Hugh Hanna, Jr., first; George Genteman, second, and Delbert Hainer, third, for farm animal project books. Rodney Peterson, first; Maurice Newton, second, and Donald Newton, third, for farm crops project books.

All of the books in the booth were judged by Homer Grow, Smith-Hughes instructor of the Roseburg high school and former instructor at Independence.

SCHOOL BOY FALLS AT PLAY; INJURED

PERRYDALE, Nov. 11.—Mrs. Orville Kurtz attended the alumni banquet of the Amity high school Saturday.

Charles Bratcher of McMinnville is taking care of the Yoakum store during Mrs. Yoakum's illness. Mr. Bratcher worked in the store for a number of years before Mr. Yoakum's death and made a large circle of friends here.

Wallace McKee fell while playing at school Friday and cut a deep gash in his forehead. Miss McMillan gave first aid and Mr. Silke took him to the doctor. Eugene Silke has purchased a Ditto machine, to be used in putting out the high school paper. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Gross spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKibben at Airlie.

COMMUNITY DINNER FOR THANKSGIVING

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Nov. 11.—The neighborhood will sponsor, as has been its custom for many years, a community Thanksgiving gathering at the Popcorn school building. A season program and social afternoon are being arranged. Everybody will be welcome, especially new comers, lonely folk, and those having few family ties. Guests may bring any contribution they wish to the mid-day feast which will be served in the basement.

Miss Dorothy Logan of Portland was a recent guest for several days of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edgar.

R. W. Clarke is building a neat tenant house from material salvaged from the old Clarke dwelling which was recently razed for that purpose. The new house will be occupied by Herman Cobb and family who will be employed on the Clarke farm. The Cobbs, who came here recently from Quinaby, are living for the present in one of the cottages on the Bruce Cook prune farm.

Funeral of the Popcorn and Mountain View schools are enjoying a three day vacation beginning with Wednesday, Armistice day. The two succeeding days, their teachers will be in Dallas attending institute.

Mrs. J. B. Best and Miss Ethel McDowell spent the weekend at their homes here. Mrs. Best is teacher of the Fir Grove school near Airlie and Miss McDowell has the primary grades at Pratum.

Members of the Orchard Heights club and all residents of the neighborhood are urged to contribute toward the success of the chrysanthemum show to be given Thursday, Nov. 12 in the Oak Grove grange hall. Entries of flowers may be made at any time during the day. A program will be given in the evening. There will be no admission fee but light refreshments will be on sale.

Mrs. Mary Kleeman
Able to be Removed To Parents' Home

SILVERTON, Nov. 11.—Mrs. Mary Kleeman, who underwent a major operation at the local hospital some time ago, is getting along nicely and will be removed to her parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Will Egan, home this week. Mrs. Del Barber, who also underwent a major operation at the Silvertown hospital a few weeks ago, is recuperating nicely at her home on the Silvertown-Mount Angel highway. However, she will be unable to resume her duties as bookkeeper at the Hubbs Planning Mill for sometime. Albert Sather, who has been ill for some weeks, is still confined to his bed at his home on Grant street.

Mrs. Davenport Has Attack Rheumatism

LARWOOD, Nov. 11.—Ben Buhite of Portland has been spending a few days visiting relatives of this vicinity, George Leevers, John Davenport and Lee Gaines.

Mrs. John Davenport has been suffering from an acute attack of rheumatism. Mrs. Carson Davenport has been staying with her, and Mrs. Lillie Tichner of Albany spent the week end with her mother.

Druid fruit shipments by sea from San Francisco and Los Angeles harbors nearly doubled this fall as compared to a year ago.

ECONOMICS GROUP TO HEAR REPORTS

NORTH HOWELL, Nov. 11.—The women of the Home Economics club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Gladys Wiltman next Thursday afternoon.

At this meeting, reports of the various committees named by Mrs. Cline for the fair just closed will be heard and accounts prepared and arranged for the grange meeting the next Friday night, Nov. 13.

J. H. Edwards of Corvallis, will be present at this grange meeting and the topic of discussion during the lecture hour will be the question of disarmament.

August Woeike is serving on the jury this week. The school teachers and pupils are preparing a program for the latter part of November, featuring Thanksgiving.
