HUBBARD CITIZENS WILL PLAN RELIEF

Old Landmark Being Wrecked; K. of P. Plans Annual Roll Call

HUBBARD, Nov. 11 — There will be a public meeting of the citizens of Hubbard at the city hall, Monday, November 16, at 7:30 o'clock to form an organization for relief work. Committees will be appointed and a definite program planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newton and their son Melvin, who formerly lived in Mrs. Thomson Hayes house west of Hubbard, have moved into Melvin's new house south of Hubbard, Melvin will continue to go back and forth to Meier and Frank's store where he has been employed for a number of years. The old livery barn on the corner of West A street, an old landmark of Hubbard, is being wrecked by Henry Von Essen. The property was deeded to the city of Hubbard by the late Robert Poinsett.

1931 Roll Call
On November 19 the Knights of Pythias of Arion lodge No. 57 will hold their annual roll call when every member is requested to be present either in person or in writing. Walter G. Gleason, Grand Keeper of Records and Seals from Portland will be the principal speaker of the evening. Fred Johnson another prominent Knight from Portland will also be present.

Avon Jesse will sing. The Aurora lodge will attend in a body. The committee in charge is Lester Will, Otto Blosser, and Walter McManus.

Mrs. Phoebe Ward is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Ward and her grandsons, Junior and Eugene for a week.

Mrs. David Hovenden has returned to Hubbard to visit her mother, Mrs. Joe Calvert for another week. She motored here from her home at Newport with Mrs. Avon Jesse.

W. P. Collard is President of New Parent and Teacher

MISSION BOTTOM, Nov. 11 — A parent teachers association was organized here Friday night. Interesting talks were given by Dr. B. F. Pound and Mrs. Wright, both of Salem.

Officers elected were W. P. Collard, president; Theodore Jeldirks, vice president; Miss Thelma Barnett, teacher at Mission Bottom, secretary-treasurer. A committee appointed to examine and select by laws is Mrs. W. P. Collard, Miss Thelma Barnett and A. N. Parsons.

Mrs. William McGiechrist, chairman of the membership committee will be assisted by Mrs. Theodore Jeldirks.

Further arrangements will be made and plans discussed at the next meeting Friday, Nov. 20.
