

Annual Webfoot-Stater Gridiron Clash Looms This Week

TEAMS DEEMED WELL MATCHED

University Holds Edge on Past Victories; Frosh, Rooks Play Friday

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 12.—Oregon State football players, both varsity and freshman, are putting on the finishing touches of preparation for the games with University of Oregon varsity and frosh this week end. The freshman game will be played at Corvallis Friday night at 8:15 o'clock and the varsity at Eugene the following day at 1:30.

The varsity game will be the 31th meeting of the two state institutions on the gridiron. The first game was played at Corvallis in 1894. Since the formation of the Pacific coast conference in 1915 the University of Oregon has won eight games while the Oregonians have taken six. Two contests resulted in scoreless ties. Since Coach Schissler came to Oregon State in 1924 the Orangemen have won four of the seven tilts. Oregon State won last year by the score of 15 to 0.

Oregon's recent victory over New York university indicates the strength of the Webfoot eleven. Oregon also has won two conference games, defeating both University of Washington and Idaho. Oregon State broke into the conference win column by defeating University of Montana last week.

Here are the records of the two teams for this season:

- University of Oregon
- Oregon 20, Monmouth 6.
- Oregon 20, Willamette 0.
- Oregon State 0, U. S. C. 30.
- Oregon State 25, Linfield 0.
- Oregon State 7, Stanford 25.
- Oregon 0, U. S. C. 53.
- Oregon 0, North Dakota 0.
- Oregon 14, New York 6.
- Oregon State
- Oregon State 76, Willamette 0.
- Oregon State 10, Co. team 0.
- Oregon State 0, U. S. C. 30.
- Oregon State 25, Linfield 0.
- Oregon State 7, Stanford 25.
- Oregon State 37, Monmouth 0.
- Oregon State 6, W. S. C. 7.
- Oregon State 19, Montana 0.

Rud Ambrose Beats Smith, Stayton Card

STAYTON, Nov. 12.—Buddy Ambrose, Salem fighter, won a 10 round decision from K. O. Smith of Eugene in the main event here tonight.

Smith held back during the fight and tried to beg off in the fifth with a broken thumb. A doctor examined and found it to be not broken, but merely sprained. So the fight went the distance.

Red Hayes of Stayton scored a technical knockout over Frenchy Myers of Salem in the semi-wind-up. Bobby Ambrose of Salem took a four round decision from Cy Landers of Independence.

Bill McCool of Stayton and Hank Brady of Silverton went to a four round draw. Ray Reynolds of Salem and Melvin Scirelli were disqualified and did not finish their match. Frank Arthur of Silverton and Ernie Christenson of Stayton fought a four round draw.

Yankees Buy Newark Club Across River

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The "chain" system, once frowned upon by baseball elect received an important convert today with the announcement the New York Yankees had purchased the Newark Bears of the International league.

The deal, announced by Paul Block, owner of the Bears since 1927 was confirmed by Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yankees.

"I have purchased the Newark club 100 per cent," said Colonel Ruppert.

The Yankees for years have been "friendly" with such clubs as Hollywood, St. Paul and Jersey City, but the Bears are the first team of which they have acquired complete control. The purchase price was not announced.

Block, a publisher, bought the club for $520,000.

Soccer Tourney At High School In Semi-Finals

The indoor soccer tournament at Salem high has reached the semi-finals with the teams captained by Allan Baker, Jim Burrell and Dolph Wetzel remaining undefeated.

Baker's team, champion of the second period gym class, is composed of H. Brown, L. Brown, Croker, Harris and Jessen and will meet Wetzel's team in the fifth period class. On Wetzel's team are Piekens, Tappan, Saunders, Reinahl, Wedle and Orey.

The winner will play the third period winners Monday for the school championship. On the third period class team are captain Jim Burrell, Biver, Gerig, Emmerick, Armprist, Ercelding and Carter.

Gymnasium soccer is a new venture tried by Vernon Gilmore, physical director, and is proving popular.

STARS TO TWINKLE IN FOUR GRID BATTLES

Four of the most attractive of the grid tangles on the card for November 14 will feature the knights of the pigskin presented above. George Melnikovich, star of Notre Dame, will strut his stuff against Navy at Baltimore. He will have a worthy opponent in Lou Kirm, of the Middies. The last meeting of the two teams ended in a 26-2 victory for the Irish. At Pittsburgh, Ralph Daugherty, Pitt's ace, and well in the running for the mythical All-American team, will try out his heavy artillery against Army, whose white-haired boy is Jack Price. The game at Madison, Wis., between Ohio State and Wisconsin, promises to be of more than usual interest.

Their battle of last season ended in a scoreless tie. Lew Hinchman is the big hope of Ohio this year, while plenty of opposition will be furnished by Jack Scheller, of Wisconsin. The scheduled fracas at Athens, Ga., in which Tulane and Georgia vie for honors, will really resolve itself into a duel between Jerry Dalrymple, of Tulane, and Vern "Catfish" Smith, of Georgia. Last season Tulane trounced the Georgians to the tune of 25-0, but with both of the young men aforementioned being in the running for All-American honors, there will be no one-sided battle this time. It surely looks like an entertaining week-end for the fans.

DONUT BASKETBALL TILTS PROGRESSING

MONMOUTH, Nov. 12.—The Donut basketball games at the Oregon Normal school are progressing so successfully, that it is believed finals may be scheduled before the Thanksgiving holiday.

As a result of Monday night's games, the Matheny-Arnold Arms group defeated third floor C team of Jessica Todd hall by a lopsided score of 19-2. Alpha Chi defeated the South Monmouth team 14-8, while the third floor B dormitory team managed a close win of 10-9 over White Hall.

Tuesday evening first floor-East Jackson group conquered second floor C, 18-9; and the Merrimack team trounced the Johnson hall-Colonial Co-eds 31-3. Wallulah Hall's A team defeated second floor B team of Jessica Todd hall 11-3.

VETERANS' DINNER ENJOYABLE EVENT

STAYTON, Nov. 12.—The annual Armistice dinner was a potluck affair this year, members' wives bringing the food. There were about 150 present and the toastmaster was Harry Humphrey, who had arranged for an interesting program. Given E. Fox, past commander, made the address of welcome and George Duncan also spoke.

Earl Jennings, of Scio but who recently came from Hollywood, sang two numbers, which were much appreciated. Mr. Jennings is said to have sung one of the leading parts in the "Desert Song."

Mrs. Ida Fleetwood, newly elected president of the Legion club, Mrs. Eva Humphrey, past president, Joe Pounds, past commander of Stayton post and Glen Seely of Salem, all made short talks.

Following the dinner a public dance was held which was largely attended.

Editors Decide 'Depression' is Hole in Ground

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12.—(AP)—That word "depression" that has been bruited about the world ever since the economic structure became somewhat disjointed doesn't exist any more as far as America's newspaper publishers are concerned.

A symposium of beliefs expressed by the 150 publishers attending the fall convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' association Wednesday showed determination to delete the word "depression" from reference to anything but an indentation in the ground.

Neuman Goes to Tacoma to View Postoffice Task

Louis Neuman, manager of Neuman's paint store here, within a few days will leave for Tacoma, Wash., to supervise the redecoration of the federal postoffice building there, contract for which has been awarded to Neuman Brothers, of Salem, Corvallis and Minville. At least one local painter will be taken to Tacoma.

Neuman's bid on the job was only $2.50 under the second low figure submitted. Three other bids were within $10 of the low figures, which approximate $5000.

Schmeling and Dempsey May Fight for Title on West Coast Says Jacobs

By EDWARD J. NEIL
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Madison Square Garden must compete with a $200,000 offer from Los Angeles for Max Schmeling's services as heavyweight champion if it is to retain its legendary control of boxing's big business asset.

So spoke Joe Jacobs, manager of the black brawler, when he sailed into port today after a visit of several months in Germany. Furthermore he has much more to say, all of it indicating there may be stirring times ahead for the heavyweight division, either in the prize rings of the nation or the law courts.

With one lingual blast Jacobs cleared Schmeling of all ties with Madison Square Garden, which, through an Illinois subsidiary, nurses a contract it believes binds the heavyweight champion's services until July 15, 1932. The Garden even went so far as to issue a statement today warning Schmeling that any attempt to fight for any one else before fulfilling his contract would be accomplished only over the bodies of the "600 millionaires" legal staffs.

But Jacobs read aloud for the press the opinion of his own lawyers that the Garden contract expired the night Schmeling scored a technical knockout over Stripling in Cleveland last July. Then Jacobs went on to paint

Last Fall, the Rockne team wrecked Navy, 26-2. The middies hope to cut that margin of victory this year, but from a neutral viewpoint their objective will be unsatisfactory unless Notre Dame aims to win without bearing down.

Of course, sentiment seldom figures in such matters, but, if it does, the Kosmers will not try to head Navy as badly as they "brilliant" team last season. Edgar "Rip" Miller, who played on Notre Dame teams in the glorious days of the "Four Horsemen," is coach-

Students Allow Beards to Grow For Novel Party

Good clothes do not necessarily mean good times; similarly, a bearded face does not necessarily signify hard times. If you see a young man or two with a bulging brief case and the look of a student, yet wearing a beard several days old, he is probably a Willamette student preparing for the "hard times" party to be given to university students by the First Methodist church. The affair will take place Friday night at 8 o'clock at the church.

One of the publicity schemes of Frank Haley, versatile social director of the group, is that collegiate men abstain from the use of their razors from Sunday morning until Saturday morning of this week. This means that many faces will have 140 hours growth of whiskers at the party Friday night.

Jonathan Bourne Is Retired Upon Espee's Pension

Jonathan E. Bourne, employed as ticket agent in the Salem offices of the Southern Pacific company here for more than 28 years, has retired on pension, after 30 years of continuous service.

Mr. Bourne first entered the employ of the Southern Pacific company at Eugene, where he was stationed for four months. He then was transferred to Roseburg, where he remained for a year and a half. Mr. Bourne later was shifted to Salem where he continued with the railroad company.

Mr. Bourne recently was ill for a number of months, but he is now virtually recovered.

"B" Hoopers of Salem High in County League

The Salem high B basketball team, which won all but three of its games last year, will be entered in the Marion county league this year.

Coach Vernon Gilmore's team in 1930-31 played 23 games, winning 20, tying one and losing two. Last year the team did not get entered in the county league, but has done so now.

Gilmore has a number of his old players returning, but states that they will have to work hard to keep their positions as a large amount of new material will be on hand.

Shedd to Play Scio 11 Today

SCIO, Nov. 12.—Athletic Coach Beal and his football boys of Scio attended a game at Lebanon on Armistice day.

Scio football boys will meet the Shedd boys on Scio field Friday. This is the last scheduled game of the season.

Shades of the "Horsemen"!

By HARDIN BURNLEY

"RIP" MILLER -- NAVY'S NEW COACH -- HIS ELEVEN WILL TRY TO WITHSTAND THE NOTRE DAME AVALANCHE.

Another typical Notre Dame football machine, hitting on all cylinders and flattening opposition in juggernaut fashion, looms as menacingly as a naval appropriation bill to the midshipmen who must encounter this South Bend crusher, Saturday, at Baltimore. Last Fall, the Rockne team wrecked Navy, 26-2. The middies hope to cut that margin of victory this year, but from a neutral viewpoint their objective will be unsatisfactory unless Notre Dame aims to win without bearing down.

Of course, sentiment seldom figures in such matters, but, if it does, the Kosmers will not try to head Navy as badly as they "brilliant" team last season. Edgar "Rip" Miller, who played on Notre Dame teams in the glorious days of the "Four Horsemen," is coaching Navy and he is assisted by Christy Flanagan, of Rockne climax running fame. It's their first year with the Annapolis boys and, while Notre Dame will level to win clearly, there should be no burning desire to humiliate a team taught by two of Rockne's own products. As a New York Notre Dame roofer remarked in connection with this game: "Sure the boys will be satisfied to win by, say, three touchdowns; they'll save the rest of 'em for Southern California the following Saturday."

Thus Navy need not anticipate a shambles. And the very thought that the game is being rated by some as merely a "breather" for the South Bend juggernaut may inspire the middies to thrilling night.

Furthermore, "Rip" Miller is sure to "shoot the works" against his alma mater. His boys' who'll some day boss the deck swabbers will ask for no quarter on sentimental or other grounds. "Bullet Lou" Kirm, Tschirgi, Campbell, Konrad & Co., not overlooking "Ching" Chung-Hoon, coached as they are by another great Notre Dame star—Christy Flanagan—may amuse with flashes of their Rockne offensive.

But the Miller-Flanagan combination will have to spring a coaching miracle to hold their alma mater in check Saturday if "Hunk" Anderson asks his touchdown maulers to open up full blast. In that case, "will be" "Anchors A-way," indeed; and the biggest sinking Navy' gristers ever outfitted.

HANSEN MEETS BUSKIRK AGAIN

Knockout Dispute Entitles Pendleton boy to new Chance, Says Plant

Johnny Hansen and Brownie Buskirk, the fighters who put on such a terrific battle here a few weeks ago, will be rematched for a 10-round battle here Tuesday, November 24, by promoter Harry Plant.

In their previous meeting here, a controversy arose over the knockout. Buskirk and his manager stoutly denied that he was down for 10 counts, but the referee's announcement made his decision and would not alter it.

Buskirk had his hands on the rope and came to his feet just as the 10th count was made. Prior to that time he had stretched Hansen to the mat for eight counts on one occasion and had knocked him off his feet a number of times.

Following the match the sturdy Pendleton fighter stated that he did not consider himself whipped by any means and that he believed on one occasion he was in a 10-round battle. He admitted that his condition was not too good at the previous meeting, and plans to get into better shape for the coming battle.

Johnny Hansen, the Portland newsboy, is a classy fighter and has won most of his starts by knockouts. This 15-year-old boy has all the confidence in the world and his training has made him a heady fighter.

Harry Plant announces that a Portland referee will be secured for certain this time. Plant also promises that the local boys will be given preference on the card for the preliminary bouts. The showings they have made in the past and particularly on the last card here, earns them the call again.

Bearcat Tennis Players Decide Season is Over

The Bearcat tennis players have almost abandoned their wigs for the winter as the courts are wet a good part of the time now. All but one of last year's teams will be on hand in the spring and several of the men have improved considerably with summer practice.

Wesley Roeder, captain of the team, with the Spaulding-Journal class D tournament in Portland last summer. Cecil Harmon, Melvin Goode, Tommy Goetz and Donnel Sanders are the other returning members and all of them improved their games considerably during the summer.

Pete Hageman is the only member of the 1931 team who will not return.

CURT COMMENTS

And now for the annual higher education civil war of Oregon. If that's too far fetched to be intelligible, we refer to the battle of the Spearsmen and the Schisslermen—the Beaver vs. the Webfoot—the Stater vs. the Lemmon-Yellow. The University of Oregon vs. Oregon State Agricultural college, Football, Saturday at Eugene. Hayward field. One-thirty p. m.

Late in September it was cried around that Oregon would have no change against Oregon State. That was right after Schissler's boys had walloped Willamette by sixty-odd points and the Spears outfit has managed to get only 20. Having seen what Oregon did, we hastened to tell the world that Spears' relatively green team would come around in due time and be no setup.

Later on most of the doubters came around to our opinion. When the Oregon boys walloped Washington, tied North Dakota and routed New York U., which belated press carries it ought to be. Maybe it will. But most of the public is now doubtful. There has been a short circuit somewhere in the machine.

Outside of those minor considerations, the one thing now is that the game will be the same old battle with all the "dope" thrown overboard as it always has been in the past.

An appetizer is the Rooks-Frosh affair at Corvallis tonight. Looks like the Frosh hold the edge this year though if they win tonight it will be the first time either outfit has beaten the other twice the same season. Our old pal Elmer Brown is the big gun for the Frosh. A great ball carrier in high school, but did you know he was a great kicker too? We used to catch his punts and kick the ball back to him—we and another fellow stationed midway.

Now gather around, golfers, and hear some low-down. We know it's low-down because it comes from Graham Sharkey. That is, we mean, it's the straight dope.

Graham says the general run of golf balls is going to be about a dime cheaper next spring, but a new ball will be introduced at a little higher price. This will be made out of Edison's new synthetic rubber and will be guaranteed to travel 20 to 50 yards farther than the present one. Reason for that is, that whereas the rubber thread in the present ball is stretched to ten times its original length, this rubber will be stretched to 20 times its original length in winding. Graham thinks this ball will be the last word in golf ball construction for a long time to come.

And then the clubs—do you think this year's clubs are going to be right up to date next year, when golf goods men can take a lead out of the automobile man's book? No, by a jugful, or rather a bagful.

Next year's iron clubs will be designed to take advantage of the new ball's distance propensities and enhance them. The club-head will be more compact and stubby, with thicker iron back of the face; more of a mallet in contrast to the present blade-type club.

But there's good news too—the club's also will be lower in price.

There, blame it, we've used up our space and no football lesson. Don't give up, we'll get around to those shock troops yet.

OLYMPIAD GETS MORE SUPPORT

Foreign Nations Flocking In After Doubts due To Depression

By FOSTER HALEY
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—(AP)—After a summer of depression, news concerning the Olympiad to be contested at Lake Placid and Los Angeles next year has turned bullish with indications now that the tenth revival of the Greek games will be bigger and better than ever.

Last summer several countries, among them France and Sweden, were uncertain whether they would be able to finance a team on the long trek to the snowy Adirondacks and then to sunny California. Today Daniel J. Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic union, beamingly predicted a record number of entries for the Olympiad.

The most nations ever entered in any Olympiad was at Amsterdam in 1928, where 40 were represented. If there are ten more than that next year Ferris will not be surprised.

Spanish Cabinet has just voted Big Fund. Cheerful news of the last few days received by the Associated Press included the action of the Spanish team, a much larger sum than was expected; the decision of Italy to send two bobbed teams and several ski runners and jumpers to Lake Placid and the announcement of definite plans by Sweden to enter a strong team both in the winter and summer games.

Recent events in competition abroad and the announcement of Franco-Norval, the "phantom Finn," that he planned to enter the marathon for the first time at Los Angeles, has stimulated interest in and comment on the individual performers who will show their wares in the games.

St. Francis Team Wins Tilt From Gervais Eleven

GERVAIS, Nov. 12.—Junior football held the board at Gervais Armistice day with a team from the St. Francis grade school of Portland playing against the Sacred Heart grade school of Gervais. The final score was 3 to 0 in favor of St. Francis. Father H. A. Orth, former pastor of Sacred Heart church and Father Maxwell coach for St. Francis accompanied the team. The women of the church served dinner after the game for the visitors and others, at which there were 40 present.

Coed Hoopsters Start Practice

Practice for girls' interclass basketball at the high school will begin in a few days. Mrs. Grace S. Wiganott, director of physical education, announced. The interclass second team volleyball games which were to have been played this week probably will be dropped, she said, because of the basketball. The games were called off when the team members misunderstood the time for play.

French Champ Wins

PARIS, Nov. 12.—(AP)—The French heavyweight champion, Maurice Grisele, tonight knocked out the German, Jaspers, in the second round of a ten round bout.
