

1932 BUCKEROO PLANS TALKED

Group to Sponsor Dances; Mrs. Lee Adams Heads Seal Sale

MOLALLA, Nov. 12.—The directors of the Molalla Buckeroo association met Monday evening. D. M. Guyres of Portland spoke on the plan of advanced sale of tickets for the 1932 Buckeroo. Mr. Guyres has charge of the sale of tickets for the Rose City Golf club and is anticipating having charge of the sale of tickets for the Buckeroo. A decision will be made at the next meeting. One hundred thousand tickets will be put on sale. The association also decided to sponsor old-time dances in Molalla twice a month on every other Friday night. The K. T. Wolfers with Frank Confer, singer, will furnish the music.

Mrs. Lee Adams has been named chairman of the 25th annual Christmas seal sale for this city, by Mrs. M. J. Browne, Clackamas county seal sale chairman. This year the health workers of Clackamas county are working hard to raise eight cents per capita. The sale is sponsored by the Clackamas County Public Health association.

Attend Institute
A number of the members of the Molalla Methodist Episcopal church were in attendance at the mid-winter institute of the sub-district Epworth leagues held at Canby, ending Sunday evening. Those attending the institute from Molalla were Opal Foglesong, Cleo Foglesong, Henry and Harold Wolff, Thelma Wormell, Laura Ramsey, Mary Heivey, Lawrence Bernard, Luzerne Harvey, Norman Wolff and Earl Ramsey. The next sub-district rally will be held at Willamette some time in February.

25th Wedding

A large number of neighbors and friends helped Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cordill observe their silver wedding anniversary Saturday night. The visit was a complete surprise. The honored couple were presented with a beautiful 19-piece set of silverware and many other pretty and useful gifts. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Joe Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kennedy and son Grover, Mrs. John Cross and children, Milton and Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Parks, Mrs. E. K. Dart, Mrs. Eliza Watts, Mrs. Ida Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Farr of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Courter, Rose and Velma Courter, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Mallett, J. and Dolores, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Parks and children, Opal and Eldon, Jr., Mrs. Jim Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kynlston, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wade, Wren Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Ison and Betty Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Marsh, Mrs. Mabel Quick, Alfred Wright, Donald Schoenborn, Delbert Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Enos of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Wood of Portland, Bert Sprague, J. L. Broyles, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cordill and children, Elmer, Leona, Alta, Alvin, Ruth, Idore and Ross.

Jefferson Star Host to Lebanon

JEFFERSON, Nov. 12.—Euclid Chapter No. 70 O. E. S. held its regular meeting Tuesday night in the lodge rooms of the Masonic hall. Members of the Lebanon chapter were invited guests. After the regular business routine, the following program was given: Trio, "A Brown Bird Singing," and "Autumn Lullaby," by Bertha Dillon, Maude Durfee, and Geraldine Regester; Violin solo, "Lonesome Road" from the Show Boat, by Gilbert Looney; vocal solo, "Love Here is my Heart," by Claudian Roland; reading, "A Letter," by Mrs. Delmer Davidson; vocal solo, "In Luxembourg Garden" and "Shoes" by Geraldine Regester. Reading, "The Jiner" by the Worthy Matron, Nina Westinghouse.

Chickens at Aurora Are Despondent Lot

AURORA, Nov. 12.—Should you notice the drooping despondent look of the chickens in this vicinity, you will recall that Saturday is the day of the annual bazaar and chicken dinner at the Lutheran church. The dinner has gained such a reputation for its excellence that a large number of fowls on that day are commandeered to appease the appetites of the multitude who are always "among those present."

Thanksgiving Bargain Round Trips!

Portland	$.90
Seaside	3.35
Astoria	2.95
Eugene	1.40
Spokane	9.00
Seattle	4.85
Tacoma	4.05
Helena	16.75
Boise	11.55
Butte	16.75
Salt Lake	20.05
Pendleton	5.60
Walla Walla	6.15
Vancouver, B. C.	8.15

Go Nov. 24, 25, 26
Return Dec. 3
E. F. Roberts
City Passenger and
Ticket Agent
Telephone 7127
L. F. Knowlton
General Agent, Portland

WOMEN PLANNING FEBRUARY BENEFIT

LIBERTY, Nov. 12.—The entertainment committee of the Woman's club is busy getting material for a program honoring Washington's birthday anniversary in February, to raise funds to be used in the various club activities. Plans are also being made for a colonial quilt to be pieced by the club members, and which will be disposed of at the time the entertainment is given.

WOMEN PLANNING FEBRUARY BENEFIT

The Woman's club is also furnishing the school with a first aid kit of medical necessities for the treatment of injuries at school. Miss Jerry Jo Patterson has been confined to her bed lately. So far the doctor has not been able to determine the exact nature of the trouble.

Chickens at Aurora Are Despondent Lot

Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed, and refreshments served. At the next meeting of the chapter, the members will enjoy their annual Christmas tree and chicken pie supper.

START PRACTICES

MONMOUTH, Nov. 12.—A group of 80 or more residents of Monmouth gathered in the Training school auditorium Wednesday night to participate in an evening of singing. The group included faculty and students of the Normal school, and many townspeople. Work was begun on the chorus of the "Messiah." Miss Margaret Slusher, of the Normal's music department is director and hopes to have every person in town who enjoys singing, to join the group.

CHAMPION

Slashing thirty-five hours from the previous record, Peggy Salaman, 19-year-old British society girl, landed in Cape Town, South Africa, completing a flight from England in 5 1/2 days. Miss Salaman's co-pilot was Capt. Donald Store. The young girl became interested in flying only last year, when she tired of the social whirl of London. Note the South African riding habit which the aviatrix effects.

WOMEN PLANNING FEBRUARY BENEFIT

LIBERTY, Nov. 12.—The entertainment committee of the Woman's club is busy getting material for a program honoring Washington's birthday anniversary in February, to raise funds to be used in the various club activities. Plans are also being made for a colonial quilt to be pieced by the club members, and which will be disposed of at the time the entertainment is given.

The Woman's club is also furnishing the school with a first aid kit of medical necessities for the treatment of injuries at school. Miss Jerry Jo Patterson has been confined to her bed lately. So far the doctor has not been able to determine the exact nature of the trouble.

Chickens at Aurora Are Despondent Lot

AURORA, Nov. 12.—Should you notice the drooping despondent look of the chickens in this vicinity, you will recall that Saturday is the day of the annual bazaar and chicken dinner at the Lutheran church. The dinner has gained such a reputation for its excellence that a large number of fowls on that day are commandeered to appease the appetites of the multitude who are always "among those present."

Thanksgiving Bargain Round Trips!

Portland	$.90
Seaside	3.35
Astoria	2.95
Eugene	1.40
Spokane	9.00
Seattle	4.85
Tacoma	4.05
Helena	16.75
Boise	11.55
Butte	16.75
Salt Lake	20.05
Pendleton	5.60
Walla Walla	6.15
Vancouver, B. C.	8.15

Go Nov. 24, 25, 26
Return Dec. 3
E. F. Roberts
City Passenger and
Ticket Agent
Telephone 7127
L. F. Knowlton
General Agent, Portland

Chickens at Aurora Are Despondent Lot

Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed, and refreshments served. At the next meeting of the chapter, the members will enjoy their annual Christmas tree and chicken pie supper.

START PRACTICES

MONMOUTH, Nov. 12.—A group of 80 or more residents of Monmouth gathered in the Training school auditorium Wednesday night to participate in an evening of singing. The group included faculty and students of the Normal school, and many townspeople. Work was begun on the chorus of the "Messiah." Miss Margaret Slusher, of the Normal's music department is director and hopes to have every person in town who enjoys singing, to join the group.

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR CARL M. HORN

FALLS CITY, Nov. 12.—Funeral services were held here Wednesday for Carl M. Horn, 71, who died Nov. 9 at his home here, following a lingering illness. Dr. M. A. Marcy of Salem conducted the service, and burial was made in the L. O. O. F. cemetery at Falls.

Mr. Horn, a native of Denmark, came to New York in 1880, and three years later was married to Marie B. Carlson, who survives him, as do also seven children. He came to Falls City from South Dakota in 1911.

Children surviving are: Henry, Ceres, Calif.; Frank, Kelsey; Chris, Prospect; Eddie, Salem; Mrs. Anna Dial, Verona; Mrs. Emma Elkins, Poulso, Wash.; Mrs. Emelia Hudson, Falls City. Dr. C. P. Horn of Falls City is a brother.

MRS. PARKER HOME

MONMOUTH, Nov. 12.—Mrs. C. H. Baker has returned home from a stay of three weeks at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kirtland Nichols of Friday Harbor, Wash., where she assisted in the care of her son, an electrician, who was critically injured in September when an electric light pole that he was climbing, fell upon him. He has been obliged to undergo three operations, and is now much improved in health. He is 31 years of age, and has three children.

GOVERNOR

Circuit Judge Ruby Laffoon (above), Democrat, was elected Governor of Kentucky in the battle of ballots just held in the Blue Grass State. Laffoon defeated Mayor William Harrison, of Louisville, for the honor with a majority which Democratic leaders hailed as a repudiation of the national and State Republican chief executives.

TEACHERS MONTHLY MEETING TUESDAY

SILVERTON, Nov. 12.—Miss Olivia DeGuire will be the principal speaker at the November meeting of the Teachers' association to be held Tuesday night at the Eugene Field building. The meeting has been called for 7:30 o'clock. Miss DeGuire will speak on her summer in Japan. Special music will be in charge of Hal Campbell.

The finance committee which was recently appointed to portion out the association funds will give a report at this time. The group voted last time to give assistance to the Boy Scouts and to the Girl Reserve organizations. The committee is composed of Blanch Hubbs, Elaine Clower and Mary Sinclair.

Returns From East

Mrs. Anna Riviness, who has been in the east for the past year, has returned to Silverton to make her home. For a time she lived out on the Bethany road and later owned the old Good home on McClaine street. Her son, Dan, owns and operates the store and postoffice at Marquam.

Mr. and Mrs. James Refsland who have been at their home here since Sunday returned to Portland again Thursday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Refsland have been under the care of physicians at Portland. Mr. Refsland has been at the veterans hospital. He is get-

INTEREST GROWS IN GERVAIS 500 CLUB

GERVAIS, Nov. 12.—That interest in the community 500 club is increasing is shown by the large attendance Tuesday night. Twelve tables of the game were in play with prizes for high scores going to Mrs. J. W. Johnson and Father Walsh and for second high to Mrs. F. H. Cannard and Joe Nathman, Sr.

Mrs. James D. Brehaut, Mrs. Carl B. Ellsworth, Mrs. John A. Ferschweiler and Miss Ethel Martin were hostesses for the evening. Both the card room and dining room were attractively decorated with chrysanthemums, cosmos, salvia and other fall flowers combined with ferns. Hostesses and hosts for the next meeting, November 24, are Mrs. Cannard, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Ward Lundy and John Klene.

The program as arranged for the pre-Thanksgiving carnival to be given by Sacred Heart church at the parish hall Monday night, November 23, will consist of boxing bouts interspersed with a few comedy skits. There will be games, refreshments, and other events.

WACONDA, Nov. 12.—A shooting match will be held Sunday, November 22, at the C. A. Hanning farm. About 34 turkeys and 25 ducks will be disposed of.

ELECTED

Martin Sennett "Mike" Conner (above) evidently believes in the adage, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." And it won for him the Governorship of Mississippi in the election just held. His first two races for the honor netted him decisive defeats, but his third attempt was eminently successful. He will be inaugurated Jan. 19.

WACONDA, Nov. 12.—A shooting match will be held Sunday, November 22, at the C. A. Hanning farm. About 34 turkeys and 25 ducks will be disposed of.

MODERN TEACHERS CLUB HAS SESSION

HAYESVILLE, Nov. 12.—The Modern Teachers club held its monthly meeting in the Hayesville schoolhouse Tuesday.

Mrs. Hazel Marshall gave a committee report on the outline for the year's work which was approved by Mrs. Fulkerson, county school superintendent, who offered to order reference books on the work. Book reports were made by Mrs. Hazel Marshall, Miss Wilma Evans, Miss Barquist and Mrs. Miller.

The next meeting will be held at Middle Grove December 6. Members present were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Marshall, Miss Wilma Evans, Mrs. Albertson, Mr. Albertson, Miss Barquist, Mrs. Stetler and Mrs. Hammer.

Sheridan Wins Close Contest From Amity

AMITY, Nov. 12.—Sheridan won, 7 to 6, in the football game played Wednesday afternoon on the Amity field. It was a hard-fought, evenly matched contest.

Mrs. Ralph Nelson and son of Tillamook called at the J. R. Snodgrass home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Nelson is a sister of Mr. Snodgrass. They also visited Mr. Pearl Snodgrass of McMinnville.

ANNOUNCING TWO GREAT OVERCOAT DAYS AT BISHOP'S

Friday And Saturday

250 FINEST VIRGIN WOOL COATS

EVERY ONE THE NEWEST STYLE IN ALL POPULAR WEAVES & COLORS. THESE COATS ARE TAILORED IN OUR OWN FACTORY AND ARE WITHOUT A DOUBT THE GREATEST VALUE SENSATION OF THE SEASON AT TWO ASTOUNDING PRICES, $19.75 & $25.

ABOUT 100 COATS at this crashing low price. Excellent tailored in Raglans, Belted, Double Breasted Styles, and Coats that but two months ago sold up to $35.00, but now through this exceptional purchase we pass them out to you at a most phenomenal saving—

$19.75

$25.00

1000 SUITS

Hart Schaffner & Marx and other fine makes—Now back to the prices of 1916—the most striking values in 15 years—Many of this lot sold but 2 months ago up to $45. See these now in this immense selection.

MEN!

These Suit Values Top All Competition

SEE OUR WINDOWS FOR BETTER VALUES

Bishop's Clothing & Woolen Mills Store Inc.

C. P. Bishop, Pres. R. H. Cooley, Mgr.

136 NORTH COMMERCIAL ST.