Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
The elegance of this frock is exemplified by its details as well as its fabric. The graceful revers, the stunning puffed sleeves with trim cuffs and the very new, very smart skirt treatment combine to create a model of unusual chic. The cream lace ves- teds adds a formal note. In black, green or brown velvet, satin or cotton crepe, model 2231 may go from luncheon to dinner in perfect taste.

Pattern 2231 is obtainable only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 39 inch fabric. No stitching experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new fall catalog is now ready. It features the newest in dresses, lingerie, pajamas and children's clothes. Also delightful gift suggestions in accessories and trousseau patterns. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog with patterns, twenty cents. Send all mail and orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Public Invited to Club Institute

Mrs. W. F. Fargo, president of the third district of the federation of Women's clubs, announces that the program planned for the county institute which will be given Saturday at the Woman's clubhouse, is open to the public. The nature of the program makes it of unusual appeal to all welfare workers, and health workers, and it has been so developed as to appeal to men as well as women and the former are being urged to attend along with the women.

The session will open at 10:00 o'clock. Registration will begin at 9 o'clock and all members are urged to register as Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, chairman of institute for the federation, keeps a record of all attending and at the end of the year sends each club a certificate with the names of members thereon, to show the standing of the club in its institute attendance during the year.

Mrs. Milo Rasmussen and Mrs. J. A. Brown will take the morning registration and Mrs. E. T. Love and Miss Eula McCully will have the afternoon registration.

John Meyers will speak at 11 o'clock on the parole system as it has been used in the boys' training school and what it has accomplished. This talk bears much of interest to all who may hear it.

Mrs. Charles N. Bilyeu will speak on the model prison which she visited last year in Maryland, just across from Washington, D. C. and which is an experimental federal prison of astonishing successful outcome.

The afternoon program will be the regular club meeting and an international program demonstrated by Mrs. G. Buland of Portland.

S'Lladna Club Plans Activities

Members of the S'Lladna club met at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening and made plans for a Christmas banquet for November 17, this to be served in the Y. M. C. A. social rooms. A pot-luck dinner was also planned for November 19.

Plans were also made for a rummage sale which will be sponsored sometime during December. Miss Theresa Ulrick, president, presided at this meeting. At the close of the business meeting tea was served by Gwen Gallaher and Virginia Wassam.

Present were Grace Skinner, Theresa Ulrick, Rachel Gardner, Lucille Rollow, Dorothy Tucker, Agnes Moore, Gwen Gallaher, Virginia Wassam, Gretchen Rockenfeller, Ruth Roberts, Eileen Moore, Harriett Pointer and Helen Breithaupt, advisor.

Members of Willamette chapter Deltaeth Teth Gimmel, national social organization, on the Willamette university campus, will be hostesses Saturday night for a line party. The group will see "Side-walks of New York," and afterward will go to the C. P. Bishop home on Court street for refreshments and further entertainment. Miss Elizabeth Bishop, social secretary of the society, is in charge of arrangements for the party.

Reception Is Planned For Symphony

Following the custom which has become a courtesy to both the audience and the members of symphony orchestras the members of the executive board of the Salem Symphony will sponsor a reception Wednesday night following the symphony concert to be played in the armory.

The idea prompting this is to allow the members of the audience to become acquainted with the members of the orchestra. The receiving line will include Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deckebach, Mr. and Mrs. William M. McGilchrist, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kella, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs, and Prof. and Mrs. R. W. Hans Seltz.
