

BUICK DEALERS SHOW NEW CARS

Automatic Clutch is Outstanding Feature of new Buick; 26 Models

The principles of "wizard control" were demonstrated at all Buick showrooms the country over Saturday, when the new Buick eight for 1932 was shown for the first time.

"Wizard Control" results from a new method of car control through the use of an automatic clutch, operated by power, plus improved free-wheeling, and a new synchromesh transmission with silent second gear, said to represent the finest engineering Buick has ever attained in a unit of this kind.

The presentation includes an extensive line of 26 new models, the most complete line ever built by Buick, grouped in four series, with smart, modish bodies by Fisher and a score of brilliant engineering features.

In the new body design, a skillful handling of the radiator lines has achieved a slim, fleet beauty, enhanced by chrome heading on the radiator shutters and chrome-plated bullet-shaped headlamps with fender parking lamps in a harmonizing design. Dual trumpet-style horns, synchronized in tone and placed on each side of the radiator below the headlamps, and door-type ventilators, instead of the usual louvers, give further luxuriance to the design. The entire body, with these features, and the new smartly sloping windshield and easy flowing lines, presents a longer, lower custom-built appearance.

Led by wizard control, Buick offers many outstanding advancements for 1932. There is a newly-developed ride-regulator, easily operated while driving, by a small handle located on the steering column. It adjusts the riding qualities of the car to any type of road surface or condition, the speed of travel and the number of passengers in the car. A brand new instrument panel that groups all the instruments at the left, directly under the eye of the driver, marks a new trend. A commodious glove compartment with special key, occupies the right side.

The new valve-in-head straight eight engines provide optional high compression, capable of improved performance; while improved starting, carburetion and fuel supply system, an improved oil temperature regulator and a new vacuum pump pioneered by Buick, giving positive windshield wiper action at all speeds, are other important features.

Vacuum from the intake manifold, always available when the engine is running, operates the automatic clutch. It is controlled by a touch of the foot upon a floor button, making possible smooth gear shifting without use of the clutch pedal, with instantaneous change back and forth from free wheeling to conventional control, as desired.

The conventional clutch pedal is retained, and yet it need not be used in shifting gears, save when making a cold start or perhaps when parking in close quarters. Free wheeling is obtained simply by depressing the button and releasing the accelerator. Release the button or depress the accelerator, and the clutch engages again, making positive connection with the engine.

Rice-McCollum Nuptials Monday

Miss Karlene Elizabeth Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Rice, will become the bride of Henry E. McCollum, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCollum, Monday at 11 o'clock at the Rice home. Rev. Fred Taylor, of the Rose Park Methodist church of Portland will be the officiating minister.

The wedding will be very quiet with only immediate members of the two families present. The nuptials will be held before the fireplace in the living room of the Rice home. Flowers in pastel shades and fern will bank the fireplace, and the same shades of flowers will be used in profusion about the guest rooms.

There will be no attendants. The bride will wear a formal suit of Spanish tile color and trimmed with a large collar of black fox. Her hat will be black and she will wear accessories to match. Her flowers will be Cecil Brunner roses in corsage arrangement.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding luncheon will be served at the Spa with covers placed for the bridal couple and members of the immediate families.

Following the luncheon the young people will leave for a wedding trip north and will return to be at home to their friends after December 1 at 55 Gerth avenue, West Salem.

Several informal showers and evening affairs have complimented the bride-elect.

Miss Naomi Phelps Finds Success

Miss Naomi Phelps, who left Salem for the east three years ago to carry on her study of music, is establishing a place for herself in the radio circles of New York City under her professional name "Sharon Wayne".

During the time she has been in the east, Miss Phelps has been featured over radio stations WAAT, Jersey City and WAAM, Newark, both in New Jersey, and in programs over WGBS, WNYC, WOV, and WEAF in New York City.

Miss Phelps now has two individual features over the Columbia station WABC, New York City, one "Yesterday", and the other "Patteran", which is a television program. She writes the continuity and arranges her own programs.

Miss Phelps is well known in Salem as a musician of ability and also as a writer. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps, prominent in music circles of Salem.

Hayesville—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams entertained Thursday evening at a surprise birthday party for Mrs. A. L. Bones of Turner. Annual Luncheon for A. A. U. W.

According to a delightful custom Mrs. Claudius Thayer entertained members of the American Association of University Women at her home, Willamette lodge, with a fall luncheon. The date for this luncheon has been set for this Saturday. The invitation list includes only members of the association.

Following the luncheon a program is being arranged which will include talks by Mrs. George Alden, Miss Lois Latimer, and Miss Lella Johnson, all of whom will speak on various phases of their summer oriental tour. Music will be given by Miss Frances Virginia Melton. An informal reception to new members will complete the program for the afternoon.

Members of the receiving group for the reception to new members will be the officers of the club, Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, president; Miss Lella Johnson, vice president; Miss Laura Hale, treasurer; Mrs. Hubert Rahe, secretary; Mrs. Harry Keeney, social chairman; and Miss Helen Louis Crosby, program chairman.

Miss Mabel Robertson will assist Mrs. Thayer in receiving.

Mrs. Carlton Smith Addresses Club

Waldo Hills—Nine members of the Willard Women's club enjoyed the hospitality of the Union Hill Women's club Thursday afternoon. The program included a program of music and an informal talk on "Greater Oregon Products" by Mrs. Carlton Smith of Salem.

Those motoring up from this club were Mrs. Robert Bye, Mrs. D. F. Hillman, Mrs. Karl Haberly, Misses Vera and Olive Otterway, Mrs. Ted Finley, Mrs. Fred Knight, Mrs. P. J. Neuwanger, Mrs. C. O. Geor.

A pretty compliment to Mrs. Bruce Barrington, nee Kathryn Rowe, who has just returned to her home following a brief wedding trip into California, was the informal reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Rowe Wednesday night. George and Dorothy Frink met the guests at the door. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. H. Fairhurst, Mrs. Grace Thompson, Mrs. Montgomery Shaffer, and Mrs. Joyce Phelps. Musical numbers were given by Miss Yvonne Smith and Virgil Frink assisted by Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps and Mrs. Virgil Frink. A large number of friends called to greet Mr. and Mrs. Barrington.

Monmouth Celebrates Two Weddings

Monmouth—Miss Alma Tittle, daughter of Mrs. Dora Tittle, became the bride of Norman Paul Lanzer of Dallas Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at a pretty wedding at the Evangelical church. Rev. A. L. Lonsberry read the service before a large group of relatives and close friends.

Miss Tittle wore an attractive frock of eggshell crepe with slippers to match, and carried a showery bouquet of small white chrysanthemums. Her attendants were three of her sisters, Miss Verna Tittle, maid of honor, and Miss Lyla and Miss Twilla Tittle, bridesmaids. Marilyn Hadley of Dallas acted as best man, and Olive and Lloyd Tittle, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Miss Virginia Leitch of Dallas sang "I Love You", preceding the ceremony, and Rev. L. H. Willard of Portland sang "Untill." Miss Katherine Leitch of Dallas played the wedding music.

The church was especially attractive for the occasion with personal decorations of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. Miss Tittle, who is a graduate of the Salem General hospital's school of nursing, has been with the nursing staff of the Dallas hospital for several years. Mr. Lanzer is connected with the Polk County Itemizer at Dallas, where the couple will make their home after a short trip to Newport.

A second wedding was that of Miss Wilda Fuller, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miller, who was married Saturday evening to Glenn Lee Rowell at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wright of McMinnville. Rev. Thomas Hardy read the ring service before a group of friends and relatives. The bride was charming in a frock of brown chiffon velvet, and wore a corsage of Tallisam roses and lilies of the valley.

A reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Rowell left immediately by motor for a trip through southern California. The bride wore a smart ensemble of brown with Spanish-tille trim and accessories for traveling.

They will be at home after November 23 in McMinnville, where Mr. Rowell is in business. Mr. Rowell is a Monmouth girl, a graduate of the local schools and the Oregon Normal school.

Aurora—Mrs. Bea Stoner entertained a group of friends at a pretty 1 o'clock bridge luncheon on "Friday the Thirteenth". Her guests were Miss M. Farman of Eugene, Mesdames Frank Miller, Walter Grim, B. F. Giesy, E. E. Bradt, J. W. Sadler, F. O. Ottoway, A. L. Strickland and Mrs. Chester Gilbreath. Miss Farnum received a guest gift and Mrs. Bradt and Mrs. Grim scored at cards.

Bohany—Mrs. Frank Hubbs entertained for her mother, Mrs. Sena Madson recently at a bridge and tea. Guests were invited for four tables. Chrysanthemums formed the decorations. At the tea hour Mrs. Theodora Lorenson and Mrs. John Wilson assisted in serving.

Mrs. Clarence Lebo of Salem made high score and Mrs. Gilbert Moser of Silverton had low score.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy had as their guests Friday Mr. and Mrs. Grover Frances of Ontario, and Mr. and Mrs. Cole McIlroy and son Burton McIlroy of Portland. The guests were on their way to Eugene to attend the football game Saturday afternoon.

Under the Dome... Occurrences and Gossip at the center of Oregon's state government

NOW that the annual argument between Oregon and Oregon State remains unsettled until next year as the result of the scoreless tie, football fans will have an empty victory to celebrate, but without either adherents being downcast. At this writing all that remained for them to do was to attempt scurrilous attacks along the highways home.

So much of Salem was at Eugene yesterday that business was virtually minus here, and people who did remain were busy with radios during much of the afternoon. With the Notre Dame game, the Oregon state contest and the Washington state contest all available on the air, it was a big day. The Washington-W. S. C. game proved the most interesting.

The executive offices were made ready yesterday for the return Monday of Governor Julius L. Meier. He returned to Portland from Gearhart with the statement that he was returning to Salem Monday for sure. His office will again be dressed up with flowers, as the governor is a lover of flowers and always has several bouquets around.

The governor has been absent from the capitol since August 24, or just 12 weeks. Since that time state business has been carried on as usual, and the governor, with the exception of several days when he was seriously ill, kept in touch daily with his office here. The governor's return is the biggest event on schedule for this week.

The first nominee for the capitol beauty contest, Superintendent of State Police Charles Pray, will be absent all week, perhaps to avoid bouquets coming his way, or to keep from opening fan mail. At any rate Pray will be in eastern Oregon this coming week, looking over police activities in that section.

The second nomination for beauty honors was yesterday. He is Charles M. Thomas, that dignified personage who hailed here from Medford to do the work of three men. Thomas is public utilities commissioner, succeeding the three members of the old public service commission. Thomas' name was entered by several admirers.

Herbert Hauser, by the nomination of Thomas, was thus automatically eliminated from the contest, as he is a member of the same department. Until then he was a potential candidate, although perhaps a little short of stature. Claude Lester, engineer of the department, has been nominated as a possible candidate for the consolation award. Tough luck, Lester.

A glance at any newsstand now brings to attention the fact that there are hundreds of magazines of every description published nowadays. In contrast to this, this writer had the occasion to study one of the two or three magazines published in America just 90 years ago. And what a contrast—it would make one wish the old magazines were back again.

The magazine was known as "The Family Magazine, a weekly abstract of general knowledge." This it truly was, with every subject conceivable interestingly discussed, with each containing the biography of some prominent personage of that time who still stands out in history. J. S. Redfield, who styled himself the "Original Bachelor Editor," was publisher. The magazine was published in New York in 1832.

A. L. McDonald, who lives near Falls City in Polk county, and by the way a native of Polk county, is the owner of these series of old magazines. They are not the only old publications he has. McDonald has a collection of old books of which he is very proud. Interesting evenings could easily be spent looking over these books with him.

McDonald not only has these but he reads them and is well versed. That is not all, he is a student of the dictionary and current events, and any conversationalists should be on their toes to discuss most any subject with him. In addition to being a rancher, McDonald is an active Mason and has instructed more than one candidate in Polk county.

Well, now what's happened to the Northwest conference, with Whitman beaten by College of Idaho? The editor of "Curt Comments" has it all figured out by deduction. At any rate he has been busy for 15 minutes figuring out how much better Whitman was than others by scores. It proved too involved for this writer—so figure it out yourself.

McKenzie Pass Not Certain to Be Open, Warns

Motorists planning on driving to Bend via the McKenzie Pass route should first inquire at Eugene as to the condition of the road, the Salem branch of the Oregon State Motor association yesterday advised. Sudden snowstorms, which are liable to occur at any time, might block the pass, it was said. The alternate route to Bend via Wapinitia cutoff, according to association reports, is being kept clear of snow.

Travel over the Coast highway north from Tillamook, which was halted by a slide at Barview, is being routed over the old Foley road from Bay city, which again connects with the main highway at Mohler.
