Northwest conference football expectations were torn wide open by the word from Caldwell Saturthat day a second division eleven, had triumphed over Whitman. previously unbeaten, 19 to 6.

This game puts Whitman down below Willamette and Pacific in the standings, leaving those two schools tied for top place. Pacific plays College of Puget Sound this week and Willamette will indulge in a non-conference game Friday with Albany college, saving most of its fire for Whitman the following Thursday, Thanksgiving day. at Walla Walla.

It is the first time in the history of the reorganized Northwest to Puget Sound.
