

LABRANCH HAS CHARGE HOTEL

Takes Over Management of Willamina Business; Newlyweds Return

RICKEY, Nov. 16.—A. E. La Branch has taken over the management of the Willamina hotel, owned by A. W. King of Salem. Mrs. La Branch is a daughter of Mr. King. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller will be in direct charge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Magee and daughter Marian were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Magee Thursday.

Mrs. C. L. McNeil was hostess to the Ladies' Sewing club Thursday at which 11 were present. The next meeting will be held December 1 at the home of Mrs. Shaw.

Mrs. R. Raymond, who was called to Wenatchee several months ago by the illness of a sister-in-law, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pietrok, nee Margaret Fitzpatrick, returned from an extended wedding trip to Idaho and Montana Saturday night. After visiting relatives here and at Stayton for a few days they will be at home to their friends at their new home near Stayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller are the parents of a son, named Alvin Robert.

Mrs. Addie Smith of Scotts Mills is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brougher.

The Mosberger family of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown have had as house guests J. Graham, I. H. Brown, Mrs. Alfred E. S. Bolts, Mrs. McKim is a sister of Lovena Hazel of Salem. A. E. Batts, another brother, of Santa Rosa, Cal., is expected to arrive soon. This will be the first time the family has been together for 30 years.

A sedan driven by G. W. Gehrke of Polk county and a truck driven by D. W. Johnston of Stayton collided near the A. E. La Branch service station Friday night. No one was injured.

RED CROSS DRIVE UNDER WAY, LYONS

LYONS, Nov. 16.—The Red Cross membership drive is now on with Mrs. Alta Bodeher as chairman here. Mrs. Effie Hobson is assistant for the school district 40, Fox Valley.

The Fox Valley school is planning a benefit program for Thanksgiving week and at that time donations, consisting of clothing, fruit, vegetables, groceries and meats as well as cash, will be received.

The chairman of each district will gladly assist in looking after such donations and see that the things reach the proper place for distribution. It is hoped all who can will bring donations to the place designated for packing which will probably be at the school buildings in the Lyons and Fox Valley districts.

The S. B. Crooks family who have leased the Fox Valley farm belonging to L. C. Trask, have moved there from the Hadley Hobson place further up the valley. The Crooks have a five year lease of the farm. Their son Richard and his wife are living with Richard's parents at the farm also.

Federated Church Young People Have Successful Party

HUBBARD, Nov. 16.—The young people of Sunday school class of the federated church held a party Friday night at the community hall, under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. George Leffer. Games were played until a late hour, when refreshments were served by Mrs. Leffer, Mrs. Claypool and Orva Barrett.

Those who enjoyed a pleasant evening were Delmar Claypool, Eugene Higgenbotham, Dorothy

RESCUED MARINERS REACH PORT

Helpless as the result of eight and a half days' exposure at the mercy of the sea while drifting in an open boat off New York, David Warshauer, 31, is shown being carried from the U. S. Coast Guard Cutter Cuyahoga after the boat which rescued him and his companion, Irving Tachyner, 28, from death landed at Clifton, Staten Island, N. Y. Warshauer (upper right) and Tachyner (lower left) drifted helplessly out to sea, as map indicates, when their outboard motor failed them.

PRUNE MOVEMENTS IN SUNNYSIDE AREA

SUNNYSIDE, Nov. 16.—Prunes are moving some in this district but not much change in price. Earl Peary sold seven tons of Italians to the H. S. Gile company, for immediate delivery. A. M. Hammer sold a limited amount of Petites to Rosenberg Bros. but not yet delivered. The growers will hold the remaining tonnage for further development of markets.

W. S. Pemberton has sold his entire holding of 50 fur pelts to a Seattle company. This company will be in the neighborhood again for further business.

Mrs. Bertha King, sister of G. T. Heckart, and her husband have returned to their home in Walla Walla, Wash.

Miss Ellen Pemberton attended the home coming weekend at Eugene.

The young Sunnyside travelers, Ray Heckert, Kenneth Cole and S. Gleason have arrived in Denver, Colorado, on their return trip and found very cold weather. They will travel through California spending several days at Oakland, arriving home the middle of next week.

The report of the National Grange session coming in over KGW radio station from Madison, Wisconsin, was very gratifying to Sunnyside patrons, who were fortunate enough to tune in for the morning session. They heard that Oregon granges stood first of all states in home economics.

PHEASANTS TO BE FREED, SILVERTON

SILVERTON, Nov. 16.—Two hundred pheasants, mostly hens, will be liberated at 14 different locations within a five mile radius of Silvertown Tuesday or Wednesday of this week. This was decided at the November meeting of the Isaac Walton League held Friday night with Edwin Over-
