Social Affairs Are Compliment to Bride-Elect

Miss Mary Kafoury, bride-elect of Frank E. Shafer is being feted with a round of social affairs before her marriage November 29. Miss Kafoury has been a popular member of the younger set and with her approaching marriage, both the younger group and matrons of Salem are entertaining for her.

Tuesday evening a group called for a surprise shower at the home of Miss Kafoury. Miss Irene de Lisle, Mrs. Allan Kafoury and Miss Julia Query were hostesses. Musical numbers were given and after the presentation of gifts and a social evening, refreshments were served.

Guests in compliment to Miss Kafoury were Miss Sally Lansing, Miss Vivian Elker, Mrs. George Swift, Mrs. R. H. Robinson, Mrs. Leo Kafoury, Mrs. Kenneth Dutton, Mrs. N. C. McKafoury, Mrs. deLisle, Miss Sophia Kafoury and the hostesses.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Karl Becke and Mrs. F. W. Poorman entertained with an informal tea for the only intimate friends of Miss Kafoury were invited.

Mrs. L. R. LeFurgey presided at the tea table and Miss Josephine Cornoyer, and Mrs. Zelma Farmer assisted in serving. Mrs. William Busick will be hostess for a one o'clock luncheon today at her home. A small group of intimate friends of the bride-elect have been invited.

Miss Kafoury will leave Friday for Jacksonville where she will be the guest of her sister, Miss Helen Kafoury, who is a member of the high school staff there. Miss Kafoury will return Wednesday to be present for the dance with which the Illibee club members are complimenting Mr. Shafer, at the clubhouse Wednesday night.

Jefferson — A pleasant time was spent Friday afternoon, at the country home of D. H. Looney, when Mrs. D. H. Looney and Miss Marguerite Looney Sr. entertained in honor of Mrs. A. J. Fairbanks and daughter, Miss Ruby Fairbanks of Wilhita, California who are visiting their relatives here, and at Salem.

Guests present were the honor guests, Mrs. A. J. Fairbanks and daughter, Miss Ruby Fairbanks; and Mrs. W. N. Jones, Mrs. R. D. Gilbert, Mrs. Hazel French and daughter Jean, and Mrs. J. Harper, all of Portland; Mrs. Frankie Cornell, Mrs. Walter Looney, and Mrs. George Griffith of Salem; Mrs. Karl Steiner, Mrs. M. D. Looney and daughter, Eleanor; Mrs. W. J. Looney, Miss Ruby Looney, Mrs. Herbert Looney and daughter, Louise; Mrs. George Looney, D. H. Looney, Mrs. H. D.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Frocks for small girls imitate grown-up models, but with a simplicity and beauty that are very youthful. This model wears its cape with considerable charm and adds a skirt with side godets that are extremely graceful. There are long sleeves with the pattern, also. A part bow of ribbon adds chic at the neckline and a sash of ribbon holds the frock smartly to the figure. You'll like dimity, voile, lawn and wash silk for best; challis, jersey and sheer wool for every day.

Pattern 2234 is obtainable only in sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14. Size 12 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material for a sleeveless dress. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted. The new fall catalog is now ready. It features the newest in afternoon, sports and home dresses, lingerie, pajamas and children's clothes. Also delightful gift suggestions in accessories and transfer patterns. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog with pattern, twenty-five cents. Address all mail orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 248 West 17th Street, New York City.

"Harvest Home" Tea Event Friday

An annual affair given by members of the churches of Salem is the "harvest home" tea at the Old People's home on Center street. The invitations are extended to the public and each guest is asked to bring a "harvest gift" to be presented to the home.

The affair is one attended by large numbers of Salem people both from the churches and other organizations and is made a delightful social occasion for the members of the home.

This year the program which will be given at 2:30 o'clock and which is under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Rhoten of the Leslie Methodist church, will precede the tea hours from 5 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. George Moorehead is in charge of the tea arrangements and assisting her is Mrs. P. J. Voth. The tea tables will be arranged in yellow and white chrysanthemums with yellow tapers and silver tea services belonging to members of the home. These services are very old and rare and will add an exquisite note of beauty to the tea tables.

Mrs. F. W. Selee and Mrs. Stratton will pour the first hour and Mrs. George Lewis and Dr. Emma Rodgers will pour the second hour.

Assisting with the serving will be Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Edwin Thomas, Mrs. Virgil Golden, Mrs. Marion Curry, Mrs. Mark Wilbur, Mrs. J. H. Erp, Mrs. Necla Buck, and Mrs. Asha.

Mrs. H. H. Vandevort will direct the guests to the tea rooms.

Zona — Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stephens entertained a group of friends with an old-fashioned dance at their Zona home Saturday night.

The guest group included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Alderman and son, Junior, Glen Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davidson and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sohn and daughter Nadine, all of Spring Valley; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Taylor and sons Gerald and Orel, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allred and son Elmer, Mrs. Ed. Olsen, all of Sheridan, Miss Vera Nowlinney, Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sohn and children, Elaine, Ellabell and Jesse, Jr., of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Eppram Sohn and Miss Nancy Atha of Amity, Marcella Dowdy and Leo Pletsch of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Hunt and children Kenneth and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Stephens and two children, Miss Olga Horten, Miss Easter Horten, Ted and Iver Horten, Ike and L. J. Stephens, Frank and Louis Butler, Miss Gertrude Johnson, Miss Marguerite Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stephens and two sons, Emmett and Raymond, all of Zona.

Pythian Sisters Install

The Pythian Sisters presented the initiatory work for a group of initiates from Lebanon temple Tuesday night in the regular meeting. Guests were present from both Lebanon and Independence.

Following the initiatory work refreshments were served and a social evening was enjoyed. The committee in charge of the social hour was Mrs. Florence Shipp, Mrs. Laura Johnson, and Mrs. Anna Berkman.

The Sisters will hold the annual roll call pot-luck dinner at the temple Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. This will be followed by a program and social evening. Mrs. Hester Hogan and Mrs. Wayne Greenwood is the committee in charge of the arrangements for this.

The order is planning a rummage sale and the committee in charge is Mrs. Vera Compton, Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, Mrs. Mary Pugh, Miss Myrtle Burk and Miss Vivian Burk.

Good Book Week Observed by Women

Independence — Good book week was observed by the Independence Woman's club at the Tuesday afternoon program. Mrs. Henry G. Hanson gave a splendid review of the book, "Magnificent Obsession," the theme of which is service of mankind for the sake of mankind.

Mrs. E. E. Hennigan was the leader in a round table discussion on good reading with the following persons taking part and the subjects assigned each: Mrs. Robert Graves, "When Should Good Reading Begin?"; Mrs. H. Dixon, "Stories Children Ask For"; Mrs. William Campbell, "Kinds of Stories for Boys"; Mrs. George Chores, "Kinds of Stories for Girls"; Miss Myra Montgomery, member of the city library board, "Choosing Library Books".

An outstanding number on the program was the five minute talk by Mrs. G. D. Butler whose subject was "Oregon Pulp and Paper Mills". Mrs. Butler gave an interesting history of paper from its beginning in ancient times to the modern methods used and displayed kinds of paper made by the Salem pulp and paper mills.

Mrs. M. J. Butler entertained with a vocal solo taken from the opera "Norma", preceding her song with its story. She was accompanied by Mrs. Harry McHale of West Salem.

Several important items came before the business session including a vote to cancel the note on the new oak floor in the club house; to donate five dollars to the scholarship loan fund; and the appointment of Miss Myra Montgomery and Mrs. M. C. Williams as members of a committee to investigate the purchase of an umbrella stand for the club room.

Mrs. K. L. Williams, Mrs. E. O. Broadhears and Mrs. J. H. Hart were the hostesses.

Members of St. Joseph's Dramatic club have been busy the past few weeks on a one act play "The Restless Auction Sale" by S. Decatur Smith, Jr. It is announced that the play is now ready for production and will be presented Friday at 8:30 o'clock in St. Joseph's hall.

Thomas M. Heaphy, a visitor from New York City, has directed the play. A minuet will also be presented at this time which was written and directed by Dr.
