

BUTTER HOLDINGS ON COAST LOWER

Result is Strong Undertone With Prospect of Short Supply Before Long

PORTLAND, Nov. 18—(AP)—The greatly decreased holdings of butter in store on the Pacific coast as well as in the country generally create a generally strong undertone in the trade.

While recently the report indicates a slight increase on the local make of butter, arrivals from the outside have decreased somewhat more than the home gain, therefore creating a smaller available total.

There is no change in the price of butterfat, local private creameries paying the highest price in the northwest sector.

There was practically no price or trade condition changes in the market for eggs locally during the day. Local co-ops continue to quote full prices and are getting them.

Recent cut of 1c in the buying price of heavyweight hens appeared unwise for leading operators are again offering the old price, 19c lb. for No. 1 heavyweights.

All chickens are in call. There is reasonable scarcity of country killed mutton which is causing prices to stiffen somewhat. Eggs are below requirements around 4-5c lb. Lambs in good call.

Full steadiness is reflected for both hogs and calves along the wholesale and retail markets. The 7-8-9c for best light blockers and the latter 10-10 1/2c lb. Bull beef is excellent call.

Buying price of onions in carlots has again been lifted here with confirmed purchases in the Willamette valley at $1.75 per cwt. for regular sized No. 1 quality. Growers are fair sellers. Demand is now for immediate use as well as for store.

While Yakima continues openly to quote $16 ton for No. 1 potatoes there, local trade interests have been freely offered top grade at $14.50 ton which is the same price as quoted previous to the alleged advance.

CELERY, LETTUCE ARE BOTH FIRMER

PORTLAND, Nov. 18—(AP)—Cauliflower, celery and lettuce were alike firmer during today's wholesale market. Cauliflower sold well up to 45c for B's with 2s at 35c.

Celery was stronger at 75c doz. for jumbo size while hearts held mostly $1.10 doz. bunches. Lettuce sold $1.25 for best 2s as well as from The Dalles although some business was around $1.25 crate.

Potato movement was fair; best moving 50c orange box. Cabbage market was fairly active; 50c 60-65c crate. Chinese 50c 50c cantaloupe crate.

Demand for bulk turnips was good; mostly 30c lug. Green peppers in small supply sold 60c lug.

Apple demand was fair with no change in the price.

Better movement of brussels sprouts up to $1 box.

Tumble in Prices at Chicago Results; Crops Heavy

CHICAGO, Nov. 18—(AP)—Almost a complete halt in North American wheat export business, together with sudden drop in Liverpool quotations, gave grains an all around tumble today. A decidedly unsettling factor was a report by a leading British authority that Europe's 1931 wheat crop, not including Russia, would total 37,000,000 bushels, more than last year's production.
