Budgeteers For Polk Are Named By County Court

DALLAS, Nov. 18—The budget committee as appointed by the Polk county court includes: R. M. Walker, banker of Independence; James Imlah, fruit grower, West Salem, and Holt Stockton, farmer of the Bullston district. Mr. Imlah is the only one that has ever served on the budget committee before.

The first meeting will be held December 7 when the tentative budget will be prepared and the final taxpayers' hearing will be held December 21. For a number of years Dallas has not had a representative on the budget committee despite the fact that it represents ten per cent of the taxable wealth of the county.

They Say—

Of course you only heard this—so please dont tell anybody we said it, we're only tellin you because your a friend of ourn—of course there may not be a thing to it. And you know we would'n want get anything started that wasn't true, you've known us long enough for that—and if we hadn't heard it like we did we wouldn say a word about it—But they say — there's been considerable gossip lately but as we said before we dont want our name mentioned because we dont know whether its true or not—but it seems to us every one should know about it just the same, well solong' hope you dont think we'd tell anything thats apt to hurt any one and you know we're no gossip — but they say — things'el be in a purty mess if somethin aint done before Winters Over — Now as we said befor its bein whipped aroud that they're gona start some kind of a drive and raise some money and if its true what they're sayin about the're bein some body outa work and in needin Circumstances' likes Been reported it seems its high time somethins bein done about it—so when the man calls on you for a subscription dont start tellin him a lotta things because he'se not after intertainment if he was he'd probably be home toast-in his shins and readin somethin to improve his mind like fer Instance readin Busicks ads and seein how much money he could save buyin things at the Market where they say things aint so dear like they are some other places in this world.
