

CLUB ATTENDANCE IS REPORTED LOW

Perrydale High School Students Will put on Carnival Tonight

PERRYDALE, Nov. 19.—Monday night a group of Ballston's five hundred card club journeyed to Sheridan and surprised Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sechrist, it was Mrs. Sechrist's birthday. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edison, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Henton, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kibbler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shaffer, Mrs. J. J. Sechrist, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Sechrist, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Gross, all of Ballston and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brown of Sheridan.

Miss Luzelle Crippen is visiting this week with her sister, Carmen at the Martin Van Gross home.

The Community club held its meeting Tuesday night with only a fair sized crowd out to enjoy a fine program, numbers of which were: Vocal trio, Ethel Wirts, Mary and Mildred Miller accompanied by Estella Wirts. Two numbers by the men's quartet, composed of Eugene Silke, Fay Morrison, George Woods and H. J. Elliott.

Carl Martin, two musical saw solo numbers accompanied by Roberta Mitchell; song by the high school girls; duet by Elsie Muller and Lorraine White; reading by Miss Moore of Independence; accordion solo, Mr. Strieder; vocal trio by the small Sechrist girls of Ballston.

The next club meeting will be held in conjunction with the community Christmas tree at which time the school will put on the program.

There will be a carnival put on by the high school here Friday night. A free program, and the carnival will be held in the gymnasium.

MEETING MARION LOCAL IS TONIGHT

MARION, Nov. 19.—The Albany chamber of commerce was host to the Marion Community club Tuesday night at the Woodman hall here, giving two hours of entertainment. The program consisted of orchestra music, vocal solos, readings, and a male quartet.

The numbers taking the house by storm were the violinist, Mr. Taylor, the Swedes, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson; Mr. Bennett who gave the readings.

The officers of the club are holding a special meeting Tuesday night, November 24, at the home of M. A. Barber, to lay plans for the winter's work.

The Farmers' Union local will hold an open meeting at the Woodman hall Friday night, to acquaint more people with what the union is trying to do for the farmer. Refreshments will be served by the women and a good social evening is assured for all who attend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wiesner were dinner guests at the Graymire farm Wednesday. Mr. Wiesner is a brother of Mrs. Gray.

Mrs. Miller Speaks On Teacher Program

MONMOUTH, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Inez Miller of the Normal school's rural department attended the Clackamas county teachers' institute Thursday. She spoke to the rural group on the general topic, "Changes in Rural Education." During the institute she will give four additional lectures on these topics: "Why Do We Need to Change Our Method in Rural Schools?" "What Are the Newer Methods?" "What Should the Recitation Mean to the Child?" and "Why Does the Teacher Need to be Tested?"

BOARD GIVES WAY; K. D. RUE INJURED

WALDO HILLS, Nov. 19.—K. O. Rue is confined to his bed owing to a peculiar accident which befell him late Monday. Mr. Rue was laying a new floor in the kitchen and had part of the old one torn up. One board under the joist seemed solid, he said he had hammered it and lifted on it previously, but as he stepped on it it gave way and he slipped through striking his left side and probably breaking ribs.

His daughter, Ruth, a trained nurse, is caring for him.

Mrs. A. A. Geer, R. N. has accepted a position in the Stayton hospital and started her duties.

The Happy Hour club of the Evergreen district will hold its regular November meeting at the schoolhouse Friday night. The program is in charge of Edith and Ethel Knight and Maxine Harmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Haberly attended the grange meeting at Stayton Wednesday when the home economics and agricultural committees held a session.

It Is a Strange But Immutable Law of Nature that human beings learn only through punishment. It has taken an economic "Big Stick" to make America a nation of wise and thrifty buyers. "Easy Come, Easy Go" is no longer the order of the day. Because money is harder to earn, it is spent with increasing wisdom and forethought. We admire and respect the careful buyer — we ask nothing more for our own wares than that you see them, compare them, and pay us nothing more than you pay others.

DUPONT EXPLOSIVES

FOR BLASTING STUMPS
LOGGERS' POWDER—A powerful explosive for blasting green stumps in wet or dry soil. Has more power in each stick. Does more work per pound of powder used. Stays down in the bottom of hole. Can be stored without losing its "pop."
Try a case of DU PONT Loggers' Powder—a trial will prove you are saving time, labor and money.

ACRITOL—This powder is made for blowing out old stumps, or splitting them for pulling with team or tractor. Acarrot is sold in 50-pound cases containing about 172 sticks, 1 1/4"x8". May be loaded in damp soil—will not freeze.
If your stumps are suited to Acarrot powder, you'll find it the cheapest explosive to use. Try a case today.

FOR BLASTING DITCHES IN WET SOIL
Make your drainage ditches with dynamite! It's the quick, easy, cheap and simple way to dig a ditch, straighten a stream channel, or clean out an old ditch. Lay out the new ditch line, make the necessary holes of uniform depth and distance, put a blasting cap in the center charge, and when it is exploded the other charges detonate—and there's your ditch ready for the water! Ditching with dynamite is saving time, money and labor wherever farmers need a new ditch, or an old one should be cleaned out.
Get some DU PONT Ditching Dynamite and try this new way to dig your ditches!
