Golden Jubilee For W.C.T.U. Planned

An elaborate celebration will observe 50 years of organization for the Salem Women's Christian Temperance union according to plans made by the Union in its meeting Tuesday.

Records show the names of such charter members as Mrs. C. M. Paffy, Mrs. A. J. Leslie, Mrs. T. A. Mathews, Mrs. L. H. McCull, Mrs. A. M. Buley, Mrs. N. L. Allen, Mrs. E. C. Darden, Mrs. T. Jeffrey, Mrs. B. W. Cook, and Mrs. L. W. Houston. Many of these will be represented by descendants at the banquet planned for sometime in February.

The program which won so much commendation at the state convention, "A Patriotic Wedding" is planned to be repeated for the banquet celebration.

Mrs. H. H. Vandervort will have charge of the banquet plans. Mrs. Sara Oliver and Miss Luella Baker is the committee on historical background for the celebration. Other committees will be appointed at a later date.

A vote of thanks was extended Mrs. S. Pool for the beautiful flowers which she has supplied for the meetings. Reports were given from the state coming from a letter sent to the Union by the state president, Mrs. Ada Jolly.

Music for the Tuesday meeting was given by F. L. Warren, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Fessenden.

The next meeting of the Union will be December 1 at which time Mrs. Beulah Ratliff will present a "Peace" program.

Mrs. Marvin Roth Entertains

Mrs. Marvin Roth entertained with a bridge luncheon at her home Thursday.

Cards followed bridge and winning scores were held by Miss Thompson and Mrs. Roth. Mrs. Otto White will be hostess for the club in two weeks.

Mrs. Stanley Burgess entertained members of her bridge club Monday with a prettily appointed 1 o'clock luncheon followed by several hours of bridge in her home on North Summer street.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

This lovely frock with its smart shoulder treatment is undeniably Parisian in flavor. A contrasting vestice is cut to drape in the most becoming manner, and then buttoned on one side. The skirt too, is beautifully cut and tends to slenderize the figure. A truly sophisticated model that will make up charmingly in velvet, satin or crepe in combinations of black with white or green; brown with gold or rust; purple with flesh.

Pattern 2226 is obtainable only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 requires 2-3 yards of 39 inch fabric, 1/2 yard contrasting. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern.

Step by step instruction diagrams given with this pattern.

Send fifteen cents in coin or stamps (coin preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new fall catalog is now ready. It features the newest in afternoon sports and home dress. Exquisite selections in dress clothes. Also delightful gift suggestions in accessory and transfer patterns. Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog with pattern, twenty five cents. Address for mail and orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 248 West 17th street, New York City.

Travelers Welcomed Home

A delightful dinner party Thursday night welcomed home Miss Esther Erickson, president of the Ecclesia club, and Miss Velma Rominger, who have just completed a five weeks' trip to Hawaii. Hostesses for the party were the members of the Ecclesia club and the affair was given at the Rose cafe.

The long dinner table was centered with a handsome cornucopia filled with fruit. Tall orange tapers completed the centerpiece and added the beauty of soft lights to the table.

The hours following the dinner were spent in conversation concerning the interesting tour made by the honor guests. Visits were made to nearby islands in the Hawaiian group and to many of the outlying districts from Honolulu. Pictures and articles of interest brought back by the travelers were displayed.

In addition to the honor guests there were present Edna McElahney, Golda Wheeler, Irene de Lisl, Flora Turabull, Mildred Judson, Eleanor Dorrance, Zeima Busch, Charlotte Horning, Marcelle Caspell, Mabel Ahrick, Emma Dell Schwabauer, Mrs. Oia Hughes, Helen Hillier, Rita Graves, Louise Kayser, Alice Grayson, Ruth Kitchen, Verda Olmstead, Charlotte Lindquist, Mrs. Gladys Schmidt, and Mrs. Gladys Youngblood.

'Joker' Party Planned For Shrine

Mrs. Susan Varty will entertain with an original party Saturday night at her home, 430 D street, in compliment to members of the Williamette Shrine of White Shrine of Jerusalem.

The affair will be a "joker" party and extensive plans are being developed by the committee, Mrs. Hazel Gillette, Mrs. T. Grace Babcock, Mrs. Mary Gatliff, Mrs. Della Hayden, Mrs. Betty Smith, Mrs. Ellen Gabriel, Mrs. Theima Green, and Mrs. Minnie Protsman.

The ceremony was performed Monday at 2:30 o'clock by the Reverend Gillespie of the Church of God at the home of the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Knox, in east Salem. The Knox home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with chrysanthemums.

The bride was attractively dressed in a black silk crepe suit with black and white accessories. The day was chosen because it was also the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Gilmour, who were married 27 years ago.

Mrs. Qualey, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmour, graduated from Stayton high school with the class of 1930 and also attended Capital Business college in Salem. Mr. Qualey is the son of Mrs. S. J. Qualey.

Friends of the couple held an old fashioned charivari in their honor at their new home, on the Lon Edison place south of Silverton.

Independence.—Mrs. Irene Seely was elected noble grand of Cloverleaf Lodge No. 56, Rebekahs, at the meeting Tuesday night. Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Mrs. Mae Rex; secretary, Mrs. Ella Hart, and treasurer, Mrs. Lena James. The appointive officers will be filled soon and installation ceremonies will be held in January.

Grandmothers' night was featured at the social hour following the business session. Seventeen grandmothers and four grandfathers were complimented with a lovely chrysanthemum each—white for grandmother, pink for grandfather.

Many of the members wore quaint old-fashioned costumes and the games, stunts and musical numbers were in harmony with the age represented. Mrs. Charles Irvine, accompanied by Mrs. Guy Walker, sang the old favorite, "Mother McChree." The old duet "Juanita" was sung by Mrs. Clair Irvine and Mrs. Ellen Davis, accompanied by Mrs. Ed Wunder.

Hostesses were Mrs. Hugh Hanna, Mrs. W. H. Walker, Mrs. Evelyn Davis and Mrs. Wunder.

The next meeting of the Oregon State Graduate Nurses' association will be held Tuesday at the Salem General hospital. All members and nurses are invited to attend the session.

Royal Neighbors of America will meet at 8 p. m. Monday evening in Fraternal temple, for their regular monthly session. All members are urged to attend.

Loyal Bereans Have Social Evening

The Loyal Berean class of the Court street Christian church were entertained for its regular social meetings at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Wegner on Portland road.

At the brief business meeting held before the social hours it was determined to sponsor a box social December 11.

After the informal social evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Wegner assisted by Mrs. Lewis Priem, Mrs. Ben Hawkins, and Mrs. Cash Roberts.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Keithley, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Winkenweider, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weller, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Cash Roberts, Rev. B. F. Shoemaker, Mrs. Lewis Priem, Mrs. Arthur Priem, Mrs. Esther Krueger, Mrs. J. E. Spaulding, Mrs. Besse-Uppergraft, Mrs. Harvey Beeson and Mr. and Mrs. Wegner.

Victor Point.—A wedding of much interest in this community was that of Arthur Qualey to Bernice Lenore Gilmour.

The ceremony was performed Monday at 2:30 o'clock by the Reverend Gillespie of the Church of God at the home of the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Knox, in east Salem. The Knox home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with chrysanthemums.
