

Gay Dances Lead Thanksgiving Week Social Functions in Salem

Greet Thanksgiving!

THE events of this week gather up the fall harvest idea and then a pause comes, in which the accomplishments of the past months are viewed and in which is considered the blessings that have been the product of all the labors.

Families will gather, youth from college will come trooping "home", social life will move with rapid step and "Thanksgiving" will be the keynote of thinking, and entertaining.

Among the large family parties to come Thanksgiving day will be that at the Wallace Carson home. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCammon of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McClellan, Mrs. John Carson and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Stacy will spend Thanksgiving day in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. DeLin, parents of Mrs. Stacy.

The Chambers families will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chambers. Present will be Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Chambers, Miss Rachel Chambers of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Chambers, Carl Pope, Jr., Virginia Pope, and Latimer and Fredrick Chambers, and Phillip Chambers.

Mrs. Rex Adolph and daughter Joanne will leave this weekend for San Francisco where they will spend Thanksgiving day. They will return in about two weeks.

Dances, informal dinner parties and many, many more family parties will mark "Thanksgiving" day, so long ago celebrated as a harvest thanksgiving.

Luncheon is Colorful Affair

ONE of the outstanding social affairs of the year for the American Association of University Women is the luncheon for which Mrs. Claudius Thayer is hostess each fall at her home at Williams Lodge.

The luncheon for this fall was a colorful affair of Saturday. The guest rooms were beautifully arranged with flowers, many of them rather unusual blossoms.

The service table, at which Mrs. Lyman Steed presided, was centered with a very lovely bouquet with deep salmon pink blossoms.

Proceeding the luncheon a reception was held for new members. The line included Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, president of the group, and Mrs. Herbert Rahe, Miss Leila Johnson, and Miss Laura Hale, and the new members which include, Mrs. G. C. The Nimble Needles Four-H club under leadership of Mrs. C. T. Harrington met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Upjohn.

This was the first meeting of the new year for club work and officers were elected as follows: Patricia Schramm president; Margaret Upjohn vice-president; Rosa Upjohn secretary. Other members present were Jean Pound, retiring president; Jean Harrington, retiring secretary; Trula Short, Carol Cooper, Dorothea Greenwood, Doris Harrington, Florence Upjohn. After the business meeting the afternoon was spent making stuffed animals as gifts to include in Christmas baskets. Refreshments were served.

Club Meets at Reynolds Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds entertained at their home Saturday night with a pleasant evening of bridge in compliment to a small group of friends.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Morse of Newport; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan DeArmand of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Meslier, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFarland, and Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds.

The guest rooms were artfully arranged with Mickey Mouse as the motivating idea. Favors and decorations carried out the idea together with a pretty arrangement of fall flowers.

Hubbard—A lovely luncheon and a pleasant afternoon were enjoyed by the Pink and Lavender club at the home of Mrs. Alice Weaver Thursday. The hostess was assisted by Frances Weaver, Andy Wells, and Hazel Wells. The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums.

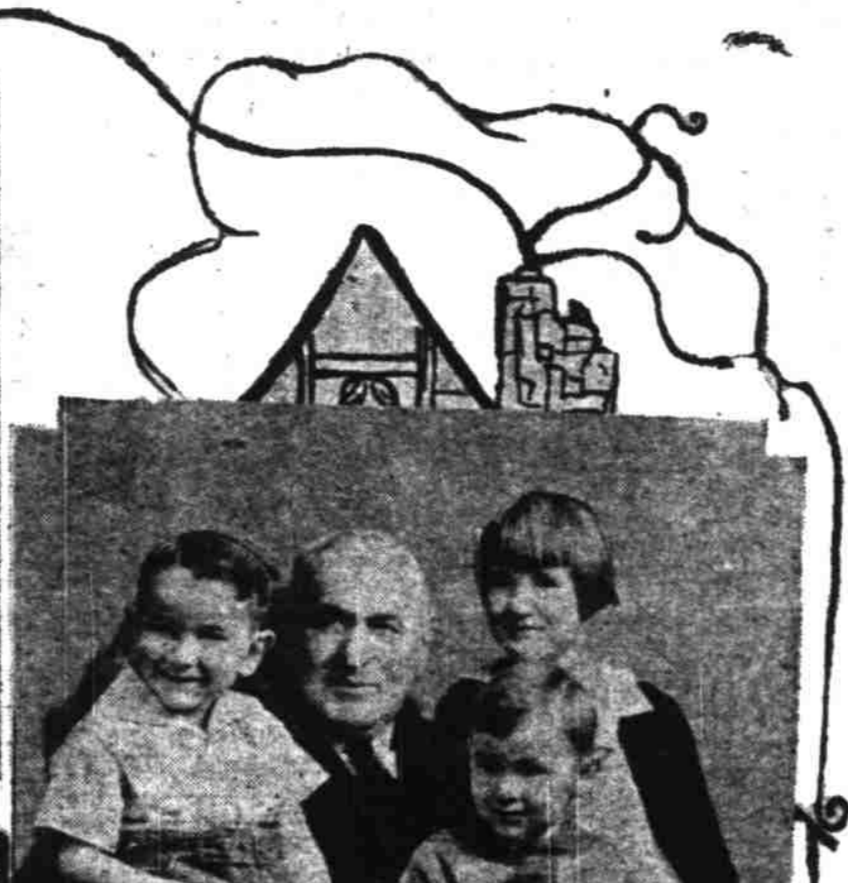

Covers were placed for Mesdames Anna Scholl, H. E. Adams, Percy, Widston, Dart, Rilla Zeek, Elizabeth Grim, Edith Painter, Bates, Mary Coleman, E. S. Wolter, Mattie Crocker, Lucy Sewall, Anne Bevens, B. G. Wells, Ebert McKey, Christina

TODAY "grandfather" breaks into the society page and with his grandchildren he anticipates "Thanksgiving" day when all his children and grandchildren will come trooping home.

Above is Mr. Joe Adolph and his young granddaughter, Joanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph. She is leaving this week with her mother to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adolph in San Francisco.

To the right it looks as though "Grandfather" J. W. Chambers was already entertaining his Thanksgiving guests. On his left is Master Carl Pope, Jr., and to the right is Virginia Pope, children of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pope, and in the center is Phillip Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Chambers.—Photos by Kenne-Ellis.

Members present were Mrs. Hurl Blyden, Mrs. Stella Hart, Mrs. B. S. Thurston, Mrs. R. W. Curl, Mrs. K. S. Thurston, Mrs. G. W. Humphrey, Mrs. Maude Blackwell and the hostesses, Mrs. Parrish and Mrs. Skelton.

Anniversary is Brilliant Affair

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer of Dunsmore was brilliantly celebrated Saturday afternoon with an "at home" arranged as a surprise for the honor guests by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hynon, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hofer.

A large number of Salem friends called during the "at home" hours. A thrilling incident was the arrival of Robert Hofer, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Hofer, who flew over the home several times in his airplane before dropping a package of gifts to his grandparents in compliment to the day.

Mrs. Frank Jerome, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. John Carson, and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson presided at the tea urns during the afternoon. Miss Rovena Eyre, Miss Jeanne Patton, Miss Marie Patton, and Miss Virginia Cross assisted in serving.

Mrs. Dan J. Fry will entertain members of her contract bridge club at her home Monday afternoon.

Bridge Tea Planned Tuesday Afternoon

The regular social afternoon meeting for Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star social club, will be a bit out of the ordinary this Tuesday afternoon. The hostesses will be members of the Eastern Star who are not affiliated with Chadwick chapter.

This group has planned a card afternoon for the Chadwick chapter members and at 4 o'clock, tea will be served. Cards will be in play at 2 o'clock.

Special degree work will be put on by these past officers. Refreshments will be served following the program. Visitors are welcome.

A pleasant afternoon was spent by members of the United Spanish War veterans Friday at the home of Mrs. Lillian McKinley. An impromptu Thanksgiving was a feature of the afternoon.

Mrs. Dan J. Fry will entertain members of her contract bridge club at her home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Blake to Be Hostess

In order to avoid a conflict with the plans for Thanksgiving day members of the Leslie Can Do class will meet for the regular social afternoon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Fred Blake rather than Wednesday the regular meeting date.

The hour is set for 3 o'clock. Mrs. Blake will be assisted by Mrs. Eva Rasmussen, and Mrs. Vernon Sackett.

Rainbow Has Brilliant Dance

THE first large affair of the fall for the Order of Rainbow for Girls was given Friday night in the Masonic temple. The large ballroom was appropriately and beautifully decorated with "rainbows." A large one spread over the orchestra in the center of the room and smaller ones were arranged in other effective spots.

Rainbow-colored lights played over the room and a lighted "Rainbow" symbol added an attractive note to the total effect. Miss Jean Eastridge had general charge of the plans for the dance; Miss Peggy Wagstaff had charge of the decorations and Miss Josephine McGilchrist had charge of the refreshments.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith.

Thanksgiving Inspires Dances

THANKSGIVING is a perfect time to give dances. The spirit of being thankful and that of dancing seems naturally to blend and so with the grand holiday of the fall coming nearer at which time people deliberately celebrate their blessings one of the most popular choice is a dance.

Tuesday night the Tillicum club will dance at Castilian hall. An attractive Thanksgiving interior is being given the Masonic temple ballroom for Wednesday night at which time the Subscription club will dance the hours away. A large number of guests are being asked for this dance and several large dinner parties will be given preceding the dance.

Among the hosts for this night will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears and Mrs. Seymour Davis are in charge of the affair. The affair is being given for the welfare work of the organization.

Thursday night the annual "Thanksgiving dance", a feature of great moment in the lives of the college set home for Thanksgiving holidays. It has been an event for which Mrs. Julia White has been hostess for a number of years and it marks a reunion time for a very large group of the younger crowd of Salem.

Miss Cynthia Delano is general chairman in charge of arrangements and she is being assisted by Ruth Gillette and Mary Jane Lau. Patrons and patronesses for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Hal Patton, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Myers, Mrs. Rose Wilkes and Mrs. F. Ethel Lau.

Friday night a large group of high school people will dance at Illiheo club house with a group of high school maids as hostesses. Saturday night the Illiheo country club will give its Thanksgiving dance at the clubhouse. The interior of the charming rustic clubhouse will be decorated with symbols of the Thanksgiving time and refreshments will carry out the same idea.

The affair is also in compliment to Frank E. Shafer. He will be presented with the championship cup given by the club, the winner of the intra-club tournament. The affair is of more than usual interest in that the marriage of Miss Mary Kafoury and Mr. Shafer will be an event of the next day, November 29, at St. Paul's Episcopal.

Mrs. A. C. Eoff will be a hostess Monday entertaining members of her club with an afternoon of bridge.
