College of Puget Sound's overwhelming defeat of Pacific Saturday at Forest Grove, 25 to 6, regarded by many followers of the Northwest conference race as the climax of this season's lengthy series of shocking upset, put Eldon Jenne's Badgers out of the championship running and restores the campaign to the same status that has prevailed for in all major sports for the last three seasons—A Willamette-Whitman duel.

At the same time it heightens interest in the Willamette-Whitman game scheduled for Thanksgiving day at Walla Walla. Pacific's defeat means this exciting game will settle the championship without any question. Willamette has the slight advantage that would win the championship on a percentage basis in case of a tie game.

The Bears were out for practice bright and early Saturday morning after beating Albany college by a narrow margin Friday night. The showing of players, who have not been first string men in that game, indicates that several of them will see considerable action at Walla Walla.

FOREST GROVE, Ore., Nov. 21.—(AP)—College of Puget Sound scored a 25 to 6 football victory over Pacific university here today and eliminated Pacific from the Northwest conference championship race.

A fist fight late in the second period cost each team one of its star players and an inspired drive in which the Loggers scored three touchdowns in the second half toppled Pacific.

The first half ended 6 to 6 but Pacific was still the favorite, having made nine first downs to 10 first downs for the Loggers.

Puget Sound's touchdown came on the first play of the game. Ennis, left half, took the Pacific kickoff on his own 15 and raced 85 yards, protected by a perfect wedge of interference, to the Pacific goal line. Sterling missed the try for point.

Pacific warmed up quickly and Al Wetzel got away for 26 yards and a touchdown. They missed the goal point.

Pacific marched the ball to Puget Sound's one-yard line again. There Wetzel fumbled and recovered but the Loggers held for downs.

As Puget Sound punted from behind her goal line, Albert Lemcke, Pacific tackle, and Ennis engaged in a hot but short fist fight and both were sent off the gridiron.

Lemcke had been the backbone of the Badgers' attack and defense and after his loss they were unable to hold the Loggers.

The Loggers opened the third period with a 70-yard march to the goal line. Sterling kicked goal.

The Loggers scored twice in the fourth, once when Brush intercepted a Pacific pass and raced 33 yards and again when Johnson intercepted a pass on the Pacific 35. The plays put the ball over.

Independent Grid Squads Clash Today

The Salem Heights independent football team, an eleven composed mostly of former high school players, will tangle with the Chemawa Indian stars on the latter's field this afternoon.

Two weeks ago the Chemawa athletes took a 14 to 13 victory from the local squad in a game that was played in a heavy rain on a field covered with mud. The fiery little Indians well deserved their victory because they were outweighed considerably and withstood a merciless pounding from the heavy Salem backs.

Wayne Blaco former Salem high backfield ace, will be the principal ball carrier for the Salem Heights team in today's game. He will be supported in the backfield by Clyde Landry, ex-LaGrande high player, at the other half. Kenneth "Swede" Lewis will play fullback while Kenneth Dalton will do the quarterbacking.

On the Salem Heights line will be Eldon Jory and Tony Shoemaker at tackles, Roy Hunt and Bob Carpenter, ends, Carl Trick and Blaine Chapman, guards, and Duke Maestretti, center.

LIBERTY LOSES
LIBERTY, Nov. 21.—The Liberty school boys, who have been practicing basketball only two weeks, journeyed to Stayton Friday afternoon for their first game and did very well, losing by only an eight-point margin, 18 to 4. Mr. Meyers, who is coaching the boys, has so far not made up his first team, but expects to have a good one after more practice.

HE'S NEXT

R. V. Borleske, the "old fox" of the Northwest conference, whose Missionaries await the invasion of Willamette's Bears at Walla Walla Thanksgiving day. Due to recent upsets, this game will decide the conference championship without any question.

Out at the Salem Golf club the members are now provided with large score cards conveniently placed on their lockers, whereon they may record their scores immediately after coming in from the course. It's expected to be a big help in recording enough scores so that handicaps may be arrived at fairly.

Of course all golfers are honest about their scores, but we wonder if some aren't a bit tempted now and then. But if one should happen to forget a couple of strokes now and then to impress his associates with his skill, he would be hurting his handicap at the same time.

And now we have the new ball, all official and everything. But if anybody wants to keep on using the 1931 ball, he can because only the maximum weight is prescribed, according to the wording of the new F. C. & A. rule. That will please the "world's worst golfer" whom we quoted a while back.

Graham Sharkey came back from a recent tour of Oregon coast golf courses with word that the game is growing in patronage by leaps and bounds down there. It hadn't been, up to the time of his visit, wet enough to handicap play. Most of the players at the beach courses between Devil's Lake and Agate Beach live in the Willamette valley from Salem to Eugene.

There was a thin scum of ice on the lake at the Salem coast Saturday, and if it freezes over solid, we plan to go out and play the fourth in par.

The Willamette griddees were mostly at Forest Grove Saturday, watching Puget Sound and Pacific play. Foolish question No. 134693: Whom were they pulling for? The report we get is that Pacific was pretty cocky before the game. But we're not as surprised as some people appear to be, at the outcome.

During the first quarter of the Albany game Friday night, Oshon, massive Bearcat fullback, hit through the line 15 yards before any one touched him and then went five more after he was tackled. Several similar plays during the game proved that the reserve line can rip holes in the opposing forward wall.

The showing by the Willamette line was indeed creditable as the Pirates' forward wall was the heavier. Albany made only three first downs from scrimmage through the scrappy reserves. The starting crew realized not an opportunity to show its stuff and made the most of it.

One of the gratifying features of that game was the work of Bill Ross. Coming here he was regarded as a probable star. Ross has felt a little "unnecessary" as injuries prevented him from showing much of anything until the Albany game.

The turnout of Salem people at the Salem-Albany game Saturday was little short of a miracle. There seemed to be more Albany rooters than home people.

We mentioned one resemblance of the Chemawas to Notre Dame's eleven yesterday. Pete McCaffery, who bobbed up as a dark horse star in that game, is another. Except that the "Irish" don't appear to have any fighting Irishmen in their backfield.

A cat owned by L. E. Cady of Orena, Nev., has nursed a wild rabbit and several fox puppies.

TROJANS SEIZE GREAT VICTORY

Baker's Place Kick Beats Notre-Dame First Time In Three Seasons

By PAUL MICKELSON
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Notre Dame's mighty football, impregnable against 26 assaults in almost three years of gridiron warfare, fell at last today.

Fluttering over it tonight flew the maroon and gold battle flag of the Trojan football team of Southern California, who thrilled the world of football with one 15 minute rush in the last period of battle today to win by a margin of 16 to 14. The final drive came just when it looked as if the big Notre-Dame gunners, Marthy Schwartz and Steve Banas, seemed certain of winning the day.

Trailing by two touchdowns as they entered the final period, the Trojans could not be denied as they smashed the Irish wall. They dashed and passed their way to the edge of the field and rushed over another one to come within a point of tying the battle and then triumphed as the frenzied crowd of 52,000 spectators, treated to one of the greatest struggles in the lore of football, watched Baker, Trojan left guard, arch a perfect placement kick through the uprights. Trojans Were Last To Beat Ramblers

Baker's kick, coming with but one minute of play remaining, was an ironic touch for old Notre Dame which has witnessed its fighting army march through 25 victories in 26 starts. The kick beat Notre Dame as the "fighting Irish" had three times defeated the Trojans. More ironic was it that the kick ended the Trojans to be the first and the last to defeat Notre Dame, as it was the same invader from the west who conquered Notre Dame's football army back in 1923.

If ever a football team deserved over the goal line for the score, the Trojans' placement was wide. A 74 yard drive in 13 plays with Temple and Mikulak altering in a line plunging spree made possible Oregon's second touchdown. The pair seemed unstoppable, and while Temple's pass to Grille Bailey was good for 17 yards to the forty-yard stripe, it was sheer power which brought the score. Mikulak crashed through from the one-yard line and Temple converted with a placement.

When two Clovis, N. M., golf teams met for 18 holes of play the total scores were 2225 and 2227 for the 54 men and 10 women participating.

The Chemawa game is a real story book climax to Salem's mediocre season, as it will likely be the toughest contest of the year for the Chemawas. Last year Salem high won 14 to 0, but as far as actual playing was concerned, the teams were as even as could be imagined. One Indian dropped a pass which was right in his hands when he was behind the Salem safety and in the open.

On another play Chemawa lacked inches of making first and goal on the fourth down, while Salem made it by inches on a similar occasion and a score resulted.

SPOKANE, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Washington State College, beaten in an aerial attack by Gonzaga University's Crafty gridmen, went back to its 1930 championship system today, and steam rolled a 13 to 6 victory.

Mike Pecorovich's Gonzagans took the cougars for an air line ride, beating them in the pass attack of the first three periods. The desperate Cougars finally quit the trick stuff, clawed across a touchdown, dug in and held until the final gun.

Nebraska Wins Big Six Title
MEMORIAL STADIUM, LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Flashing an offense marked by both power and versatility the university of Nebraska trounced the cyclones of Iowa State College here today, 23 to 0, to win the 1931 big six conference championship.

The cornhusker victory was a complete rout for the Iowans.

Football relations between Iowa State and the University of Missouri have been more frequent and continuous than between any other two schools in the Big Six.

Oregon Power is Winning Factor; Uclan's Chances Muffed; Varnell Travels

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN
OLYMPIC STADIUM, Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Two green garbed ghosts of the gridiron, Mark Temple and Mike Mikulak, swung the pendulum of victory to Oregon 13 to 6 today after a stirring struggle with the University of California at Los Angeles.

Fifteen thousand persons, the smallest crowd to witness a Pacific coast conference game here this season, saw these two Webfooted backs pound their way through a rugged Bruin line in the first and third periods to shut their opponents out of the win column in their third season as members of the conference.

Twenty penalties marred the game, and gave George Varnell, the referee from Seattle, the largest individual yardage of the year. He stepped off 100 yards at the expense of the beaten Bruins and 75 yards against Coach Clarence Spears' eleven.

Temple scored in the opening quarter on the third opportunity presented the Webfoot. Charles Wishard, Oregon end, rushed in and dashed and passed their way to the edge of the field and Wishard picked it up to race to the 9 yard line before he was tackled.

A five yard penalty for offside, after Temple had cracked center for two yards put the ball on the two yard line, and the half-back plunged through on the next play. His kick was wide. Fumble Paves way For Uclan's Score

Lloyd McMillan paved the way for the Bruins' only score in the second period when he recovered Don Waits' fumble on the Oregon 35 yard line. Two tries at the line and a 15 yard penalty for unnecessary roughness made it first down on the Webfoot 10 yard line.

Two crashes at center put the ball on the five yard strip, from which point Captain Norman Duncan passed to Dick Mulhaupt over the goal line for the score. Duncan's placement was wide.

A 74 yard drive in 13 plays with Temple and Mikulak altering in a line plunging spree made possible Oregon's second touchdown. The pair seemed unstoppable, and while Temple's pass to Grille Bailey was good for 17 yards to the forty-yard stripe, it was sheer power which brought the score. CHEMAWA TILT SET THURSDAY

Catching Oval Tossed From Airplane Will be Stunt Just Before Game

Unique and comprehensive preparations are under way to make the Thanksgiving day football game here between Salem high and Chemawa the most colorful athletic event ever held between the two schools.

Vernon Gilmore, track and "B" basketball coach of Salem high, will attempt to catch a football tossed from an airplane to Olinger field just before the start of the game. As far as is known here, this stunt has never been tried before any place in the United States.

The game is called for 2 o'clock. Just before that time an Eyerly plane will cut its droning motor for a swoop to within 30 feet of the ground. Amid cries of "down, Gilmore, down," Vern will attempt to ensnare the lowly pigskin which had such a high calling.

Gilmore was a track man at Oregon State college and is also a great soccer player. Any work which he might have had in astronomy while he was in school will also come to his assistance. At any rate he will make a real effort to keep that aforementioned pigskin from returning directly to its original habitat, the dirt.

Movies of Attempt May be Filmed
Fletcher Johnson, manager of Salem high athletics, is arranging the details and states that perhaps a Fox movie camera may be here from Portland to record the unique performance. However, this point will not be settled definitely until Monday, said Johnson.

The Salem high band will play at the game and special preparation for organized rooting will be made. It is expected that the freshmen will build a bonfire on Olinger field for a Wednesday night rally.
