

CONTESTS HELD AT CLUB MEET

Mrs. Walker Next Hostess; J. P. Graber at Oak Point For Winter

OAK POINT, Nov. 26—Independence Rural Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Ed Rex Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. John Walker presiding. Mrs. J. L. Pickens, Mrs. Tom Ottinger and Mrs. Allen Hall were appointed on the Ways and Means committee. Mrs. John Walker gave a report on the Institute of the third district which met in Salem.

A discussion on cakes and a cake guessing contest was a feature of the program, after which all worked on the club quilt. Club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Walker for the next regular meeting Tuesday, December 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Secgar will entertain Mrs. Secgar's father, G. Schultz and her sister, Mrs. B. T. Maves and son Stanley, all of Salem; at their home on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Larson of Newberg visited at the John Walker home Wednesday. Mrs. Larson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker.

T. J. Primus is leaving tonight for Lewiston, Idaho, to be with his mother, Mrs. Mary Primus who is very ill. Mr. Primus will also visit Mrs. Primus' people in Washington before returning.

Ruddells Leave
Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ruddell left Sunday morning for their home in Baker. They have been visiting their son Byron Ruddell and family here for two months. His grandsons, Olney and Noah Macey of Baker, drove here Thursday for their grandparents, and they intended to make the drive back in one day.

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Metzler and daughter, Mrs. Amanda Philipp of St. Johns, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Allen and family. This was a delightful surprise for Mrs. Allen, as she and Mrs. Metzler went to school together and had not seen each other for over 20 years.

Roland Ruddell and bride of Portland are visiting his mother, Mrs. Byron Ruddell and family this week.

Ed Brown and daughter, Elva made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Attend P-T Meet
Several from Oak Point attended the Greenwood P. T. A. Deed Roy Hewitt, who has recently returned from China and Japan was the speaker. He told of the terrible conditions existing there, the children raised up in a half starved condition; they marry young and raise large families. He thinks the adoption of birth control is the only way to solve the problem there. Mr. Hewitt spoke of seeing Col. and Mrs. Lindberg while they were in those countries. An Indian drill by the school children and serving of refreshments concluded the evening.

EXCITEMENT RULES IN HOOP CONTESTS

MONMOUTH, Nov. 26—Results of last week's basketball games in the Donut series at the Oregon Normal school indicated several exciting tilts.

In the B division, White Hall defeated Second Floor B team 8 to 4, and Cornelius Hall smothered South Monmouth Avenue 29-10.

In the A division, the Town Girls staged a massacre of Mathany-Arnold Arms at 46 to 8, and Senior Cottage edged its way to victory over Third Floor A, scoring 17 to 16. This last game was one of the best of the season, with neck and neck fighting to reach the half with a tied score.

The Third Floor girls protested the game with charges of ineptibility, and the two teams met again Friday night, and staged another exciting contest.

SMILE GONE

Known as "the girl with the smile" when she was arrested three times during a period of six weeks, Mrs. Patricia L. Lyons's (above) smile disappeared when she was arraigned in court at Gervais, Pa., and held in $5,000 bail on a charge of forgery.

FIVE'S A CROWD—OF SMART FASHIONS

Here are some hot tips on the new Fall fashion situation as interpreted by a quintet of New York's foremost society debutantes. The girls offered their assistance as models at a fashion show given for the benefit of the Manhattan Symphony Orchestra Fund. Left to right, Mary King Smith, in a smart peach blossom tea gown trimmed with sable; Dorothea Mallory, wearing a mediaeval tea gown; Ethelyn Talbot, in a black velvet pajamas ensemble trimmed with real lace; Georgine Hunt, wearing a stunning rose satin pajama ensemble with velvet bolero, and Barbara Fish, sporting modish black velvet pajamas trimmed with ermine. Now you know what's proper when the sandman comes along.

GWINN FUNERAL IS SET FOR SATURDAY

Was Born in Salem in 1856 and Spent Most of Life in This Vicinity

Graveside services will be held at the Murphy cemetery in the Howell Prairie region at 1 o'clock Saturday for Pulaaki Gwinn, who died suddenly Tuesday morning at Lebanon. He was a member of a pioneer family and spent his boyhood in and around Salem, where he was born August 16, 1856.

Funeral services will be held at the Howe funeral home, Lebanon, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, according to word received here by Mrs. J. A. Gwinn, a sister-in-law.

Pulaaki Gwinn was married in Salem in 1887 to Nellie McClain, daughter of J. B. McClain, pioneer of 1843. To this union three children were born, one dying in infancy. Nellie Gwinn died in 1892, and later the family moved to Tillamook, where he married Mintha Jones, to which union two children were born.

In 1897 Gwinn went to Nome, in the gold rush to the Klondike, where he spent two years. He followed mining for a number of years, and in later years took up a claim around Foster.

Old-timers will remember Mr. Gwinn and his brother Jeff when they were interested in the shingle business at Cedar camp above Silverton on the Little Abiqua. Pulaaki served with the Linn county fire patrol for 10 years and was lookout man on the Yellowstone in the Three Sisters region.

He is survived by four children, two sons and a daughter of Foster and a daughter of Lebanon; also a sister, Mrs. Henry Brown of Portland. A sister, Mrs. Isabel Corley, died at her home near Hood River 12 days ago.
