Expert Appointed on Committee

Announcement of the appointment of Miss Charl Ormond Williams of Washington, D. C., former president of the National Education association, as representative on the Women's Joint Congressional committee for the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs has been made by Mrs. C. F. Gillette, Virginia, the president.

Miss Williams, who just retired from the chairmanship of the education committee of the Federation, is an expert in the legislative field, training in both politics and the support of sufficient equipment for government during the campaign for federal suffrage she served as chairman for the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment in Tennessee. As a county superintendent of schools in Tennessee, from 1914 to 1922, she was influential in securing such important legislation affecting the school system of Tennessee. For the past nine years she has been field secretary of the National Education association, with special charge of legislative work, and has built up a strong organization for the purpose of promoting the passage of the Education bill, which seeks to create a federal department of education with a secretary in the president's cabinet.

As representative of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs on the Women's Joint Congressional committee, Miss Williams will work for the acceptance of protocols which will further the entrance of the United States into the permanent court of international justice; for the Education bill, and for the Infancy and Maternity bill, all of which have been endorsed by the Federation. She will also co-operate with the Women's Joint Congressional committee in persuading the classification board for government employees to raise the classification of nurses, social workers and dietitians from sub-professional to professional status.

Gervais — The Hermosa club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. W. Seely. Mrs. M. D. Henning read a paper on "The Origin of Thanksgiving" and conducted a guessing contest in which Mrs. G. J. Moisan won the prize. At the business session the club voted to take a Red Cross membership and also voted $2.50 to the Community Christmas tree fund. During the social hour, Mrs. Seely, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Charles Cinther of Woodburn, served refreshments. Those present were Mrs. Robert Harper, Mrs. Sam H. Brown, Mrs. Moisan, Mrs. Sumner Stevens, Mrs. H. Cannard, Mrs. C. W. Cutsforth, Mrs. C. T. Wadsworth, Mrs. Henning, Mrs. S. D. Manning and the hostesses, Mrs. A. B. Adkisson was an invited guest.

Oak Grove.—Mrs. Bert Givin and Miss Pearl Eyre entertained the Young People's class of Oak Point Sunday school at the home of Mrs. Givin Tuesday. This class will put on a two-act play, "Christmas at Stebbins" by Marie Irish, the night of the school Christmas program.

Those present were Rodney and Glen Harman, Kenneth and Patsy Black, Rodney Peterson, Lavinia Ramsdell, Margaret and Wilson Noble, Reich and Sumiko Inouye, Leone Hall, Joe and Kozimo Komoto, Miss Jesse Brown, Evelyn and Betty Jane Ottinger, Earl Givens and Emma and William Wolfe.

Monmouth.—A delightful surprise party was given at the home of Miss Katherine Arbutnot on Tuesday evening, complimenting Mrs. Ardie Parker, preceptress of the dormitory, and Mrs. Howard Morlan, whose birthday anniversaries occur November 24 and 26, respectively.

Bridge was played, followed by the presentation of gifts. Those enjoying the affair were Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Morlan, Mrs. Robards, Miss Lois Criswell, Miss Laura J. Taylor, Miss Agnes Erickson, Mrs. Edo Culver, Miss Bertha Brainerd, Miss Maud McPherson and Miss Arbutnot.

Turner.—Mr. and Mrs. Vester Bones entertained Tuesday night with a surprise birthday party for their 13-year-old daughter, Lucile. The time was happily spent with a group of schoolmates, who enjoyed games. The guests present were Sumner Clark, LaVerne and Norman Whitehead, Ralph Alsmann, Elton and Keith Ball, Clarissa Clark, Geneva Barber, Roe Westfall, Robert Hatfield, Ruth Robinson, Leata Catterson, Albert Robinson and Lester and Arieta Bones.

Annual Dance Held At Castilian

One of the many gay events of the Thanksgiving holidays is the Thanksgiving dance held each year in Castilian hall and sponsored by students of Mrs. Julia R. White's School of the Dance. Between 75 and 100 couples attended this year's dance which was held last night.

Uniquely combining thoughts of the Thanksgiving turkey and symbols of good luck the hall was decorated with wish-bones great and small. Color was furnished by bright streamers of crepe paper, autumn leaves and golden shocks of corn stalks in a scheme of orange, brown, and yellow.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Patton, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gillette, Mrs. Rose Wilkes, and Mrs. F. Ethel Lau were patrons and patronesses for the affair which gathered together many of the high school and college young people.

The Misses Cynthia Delano, Ruth Gillette, and Mary Jane Lau were the committee in charge. Katherine Earle and Roberta Varley were responsible for the decorations.

Gervais — The community 500 club met at the Masonic hall Tuesday night with Mrs. F. H. Cannard, Mrs. J. W. Johnston, Mrs. Ward Lundy and John Klense as the refreshment committee. Pink chrysanthemums and ferns were used as table decorations.

Nine tables of the game were played, prizes for high scores going to Miss Marie Mangold and J. W. Johnston and for second high to Mrs. I. V. McAdoo and J. J. Scheeland. Mrs. Wm. Allsup, Miss Mangold, Mrs. S. D. Manning and Mrs. McAdoo are hostesses for the meeting of December eighth. J. J. Scheeland and son Henry, of Portland, were out of town visitors coming with the Jos. Nathmans whose guests they were.

County P.-T. A. Program Given

Announcement is made of the program which will be given by the Marion county Parent-Teacher association in the chamber of commerce December 1. This is the fall meeting held each year by the association.

Election of a president will come before the group, this being made necessary through the resignation of the president, Robert Gets of Silverton. Mrs. Virginia Kletzer of Portland, former state president of the P. T. A., will give an address on the "Children's Charter" as it was developed in the recent Washington, D. C. child welfare conference.

The meeting will be opened at 7:30 o'clock with an invocation by O. O. Epley of Brooks; Wilda Sargent, small miss from Liberty, will give "Youngest in the Family" as a reading.

Reports will be given by the secretary, by Dr. Klineborg of Silverton on the Eugene convention, and the presidents of the associations. Special music will be given by Mrs. Alva Adkisson of Gervais.

Gouleys Entertain With Dinner

It has come to be an annual affair, this Thanksgiving dinner at the large country home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gouley. Yesterday afternoon 10 guests and the hosts sat down at the charmingly appointed table.

A great pumpkin basket of red and yellow apples, grapes and pears centered the table, lending to it the air of a harvest feast. Yellow tapers furnished the light, and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the living and dining rooms.

Covers were placed for Dr. and Mrs. W. Q. Williamson and children, Josephine and Walter, Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Anders and daughter Jean, and Kevin Cooke, all of Portland; Miss Margaret Wilson, Homer Gouley, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gouley, Sr.

Many Students In Salem

College and university activities which call so invitingly most weekends have given way to family gatherings over the Thanksgiving holidays and Salem is literally overflowing with students who are spending all or a part of these four days with their parents.

Tommy Livesley, freshman at Oregon State college, has as his guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Eugene Baum, also a student at the college whose home is in Los Angeles.

Jimmy Emmett, Oregon State college student and son of Mrs. Ada M. Emmett, is at home and has as his guest Harold Joslin.

Edith Clement, sophomore at the University of Oregon, is spending the weekend with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clement. Margaret Wagner, also a sophomore at the university, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wagner.

Edward, Donald, and Wilson Sigmund, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sigmund, and students at the university, were the guests of their parents yesterday. Wilson and Donald will remain in Salem until Sunday, while Edward returned to Eugene last night.

Robert and Charles Kay Bishop are spending the holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Both are students in the University of Oregon.

David Eyre, Kimball and Urlin Page, Katherine Laughridge, Margaret Wilson, John Creech, Nancy Thielson, Roberta Mills, Edward Fisher, and Homer Gouley, Jr., are other well-known university students spending the holidays in Salem.

Virginia Holt, Dorothy White, Wilda Fleener, and Leon Perry, students at Oregon State college are the guests of their parents.

Illahce Clubhouse Scene of Dance

The Thanksgiving holidays furnish the inspiration for one of the large social events of the year, among the younger set in Salem to be held tonight at the clubhouse of the Illahce Country club. Thanksgiving among the early American colonists will furnish the motif for the decorations. Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bonesteels, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Mishler and Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds, Jr.

Hostesses for the dance are the Misses Margaret Drager, Dorothy White, Alida Olson, Virginia Holt, Myra Belt, Kathryn Corey, Ruthita Hoffnail, Margaret Wagner, Katherine Laughridge, Josephine McGilchrist, Wilda Fleener, Ellen Hemenway, Iris Jorgenson, Marie Bone, Doris Drager, Frances Huston, Yvonne Smith Caroyl Braden and Mrs. Gordon Bennett.

Family Dinner at Pemberton Home

A large and jolly Thanksgiving dinner was that for which Dr. and Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton were hosts at their home yesterday when 50 members of the Pemberton family were their guests.

Covers were placed for Mrs. I. A. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Buell, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cole and son Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford S. Smith and sons Vernon and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Pemberton and children, Max, Ruth and Elbin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edmondson and son Paul, all of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wilde and children, Paul, George, Jr., and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Wilde and son Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Wilde and son Bernard, Mrs. Howard McMauney and daughters, Pauline and Betty, of Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Bernice Coppock, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crozier and daughter Dorothy of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Newby and son Bernard of Washougal, Wash. Mrs. F. M. Langlois, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Pemberton and son Rex of Dallas, Dr. and Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton and daughters, Mary Esther and Rachel.

Mrs. Albert Smith Will be Hostess

Among the interesting week-end parties will be the large card affair to be given at the A. C. Smith home with Mrs. Albert Smith as hostess.

Guests will include the officers, committee chairmen, their husbands and wives, of the Order of Eastern Star in Salem. Mrs. Smith is worthy matron of the local chapter.

"Certainly I smoke Luckies"

"Certainly I smoke Luckies. I've been smoking them since 1917. In those 14 years I've tried other brands, but Luckies are the only cigarettes I like. Furthermore, in my profession I must consider my throat, and Luckies do not cause throat irritation. And you Lucky Strike people certainly considered the smoker when you put that little tab on your improved Cellophane wrapper. A flip and it's open."

Bill Boyd

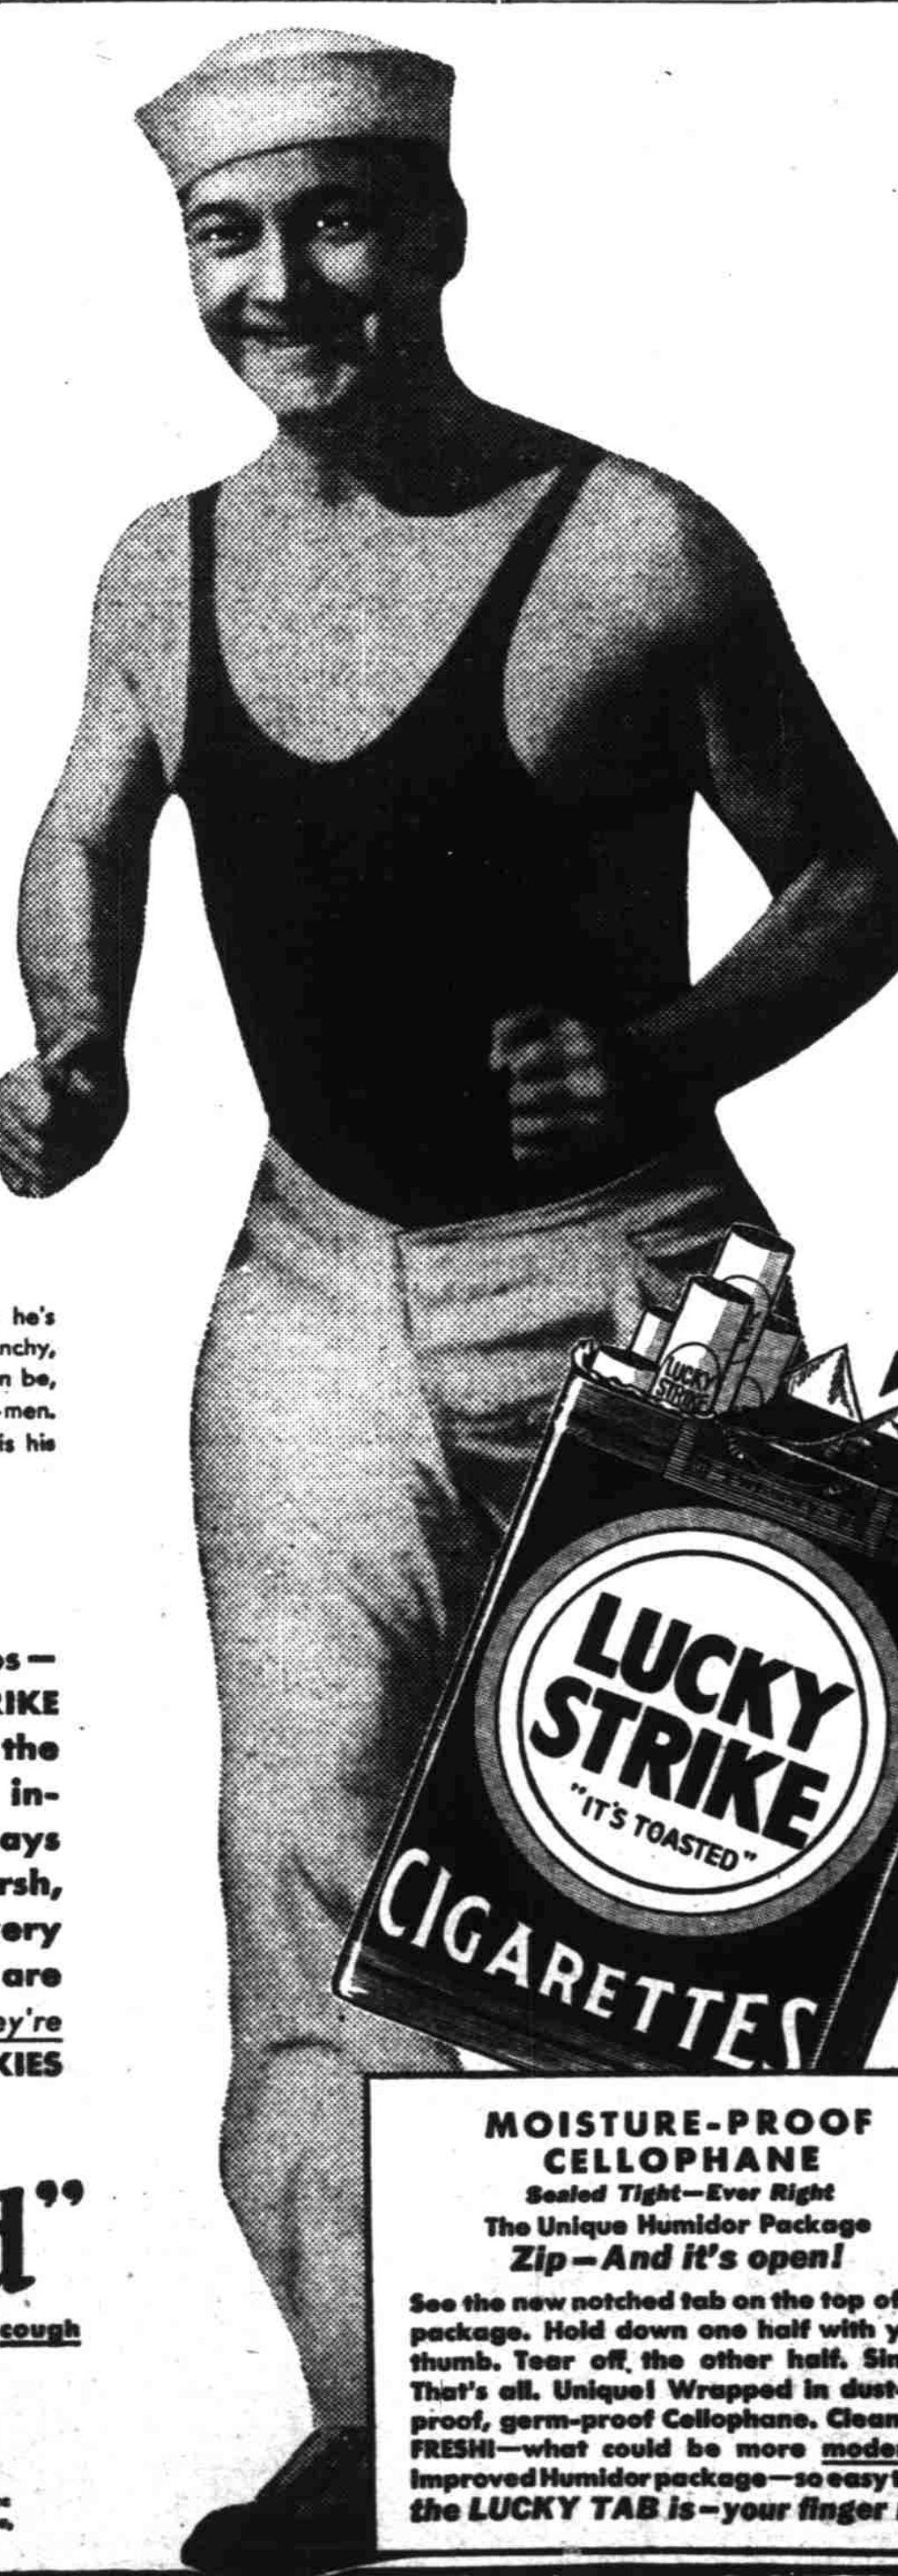

His parents named him William, but he's Bill Boyd to us—a favorite star of punchy, open-air films. As blond as a chap can be, Bill is one of pictures' foremost he-men. "Suicide Fleet," an RKO-Pathé, is his new film.

Made of the finest tobaccos—
The Cream of many Crops—LUCKY STRIKE alone offers the throat protection of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays—the process that expels certain harsh, biting irritants naturally present in every tobacco leaf. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. "They're out—so they can't be in!" No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough
And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE; 60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose guests of today become the stars of tomorrow, over Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.
