

EAST LOOKS UP, VISITOR FINDS

Dr. George C. Knott Home From Month's Study at Rochester Clinic

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 28.—Dr. George C. Knott, who has been specializing in internal medicine and gynecology for a month at the Mayo clinic at Rochester, returned home Thursday night. He met doctors from all over the world—one from Japan, another from India and others from various points of the globe—all at the clinic in the interest of the profession.

Dr. Knott said that the Mayo brothers, Charles and William who established the clinic, have retired from the more active work and have become consulting physicians only, while C. W. Mayo, a son of Charles, is a very successful surgeon along with other eminent physicians including the famous doctors, Judd and Rankin in this clinic.

Besides a month of interesting research work at the clinic, Dr. Knott enjoyed visits with relatives both on his trip east and also on the return. Going, he stopped at San Francisco where he visited his daughter, Miss Helen W. Knott, who is taking nurses training at the Stanford hospital. While in San Francisco, the doctor visited his nephew, Clifford Trotter, an interne at the Southern Pacific general hospital.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

Dr. Knott brought home a rare relic for Mrs. Knott. It is one of two brass candelabras used in the German Lutheran church which she attended when a child at the home of her parents near Owlesville, Iowa. The relic was kept for Mrs. Knott by her brother when the church building was razed. The candelabrum, 35 years old, is crescent shaped, beautifully engraved, and contains holders for seven tapers.

In speaking of the weather conditions at home and on his trip, Dr. Knott said that the deepest snow which he encountered was at Baker, Oregon, as he was returning home. He said that it had just begun to snow in the east as he started home, the weather being exceptionally good during the time he was there.

Talking with the depression conditions, the doctor said that he had talked with many easterners and they had seemed very optimistic over the future but that conditions in general seemed such as to indicate independence and other western points.

NUMEROUS EVENTS HERE ON HOLIDAY

LITERARY GROUP IS CLUB'S OFFSPRING

LIBERTY, Nov. 28.—Recently several members of the community club met and formed a literary club which is to be a sort of sub-division of the larger organization. This club, however, is unique in that there will be no officers and no dues. Those who are interested in books, debate, current events, literature, etc., meet twice a month and discuss topics of interest.

RECORD CROWD AT ANNUAL FESTIVAL

Ball Game and Program Furnishes Entertainment For Event

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Nov. 28.—A record crowd of 200 persons gathered for the annual community Thanksgiving celebration held Thursday in the popcorn school building. This affair which has been held yearly for the past 25 years is in the nature of a homecoming where old friends meet in a happy reunion.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

Dr. Knott brought home a rare relic for Mrs. Knott. It is one of two brass candelabras used in the German Lutheran church which she attended when a child at the home of her parents near Owlesville, Iowa. The relic was kept for Mrs. Knott by her brother when the church building was razed. The candelabrum, 35 years old, is crescent shaped, beautifully engraved, and contains holders for seven tapers.

In speaking of the weather conditions at home and on his trip, Dr. Knott said that the deepest snow which he encountered was at Baker, Oregon, as he was returning home. He said that it had just begun to snow in the east as he started home, the weather being exceptionally good during the time he was there.

Talking with the depression conditions, the doctor said that he had talked with many easterners and they had seemed very optimistic over the future but that conditions in general seemed such as to indicate independence and other western points.

Family Moves From Mill Camp; Lyons Responds to Drive

LYONS, Nov. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bressler who have been living at the Cochran-Hinkle mill camp on the McCully mountain for the past year, are moving to Lyons this week. The mill is closed for an indefinite time and the families have nearly all located elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Bressler bought a cottage near the Smith-Fountain store and are moving into it. The Arthur Vaughn family have had the Bressler cottage for several months and vacated it this week.

Independence Will Take Steps to Aid Unemployed of City

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 28.—Relief work is under discussion in Independence. Churches, lodges and other organizations are planning to organize a central unit to take care of the needy during the winter months. A meeting will be called soon by R. K. Moncomery, chairman of the relief committee of the chamber of commerce, and a plan will be adopted.

GROWD APPLAUDS VARIED PROGRAM

Hazel Green to Join Other Community Clubs for Meet at Chemawa

HAZEL GREEN, Nov. 28.—A varied program was given to a crowded house Friday night at the regular meeting of the Community club, Clark Wood of Salem, a sleight-of-hand performer, delighted the children by his magic.

Several much appreciated numbers were given by the Japanese group. A drill and folk dance by Lillie and Yoshiye Yoshika in costume with piano and song in Japanese language and accompaniment. Mrs. Okuda of Ketsor and Miss Kiyoi Mio gave musical numbers using a stringed instrument.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

Dr. Knott brought home a rare relic for Mrs. Knott. It is one of two brass candelabras used in the German Lutheran church which she attended when a child at the home of her parents near Owlesville, Iowa. The relic was kept for Mrs. Knott by her brother when the church building was razed. The candelabrum, 35 years old, is crescent shaped, beautifully engraved, and contains holders for seven tapers.

In speaking of the weather conditions at home and on his trip, Dr. Knott said that the deepest snow which he encountered was at Baker, Oregon, as he was returning home. He said that it had just begun to snow in the east as he started home, the weather being exceptionally good during the time he was there.

Talking with the depression conditions, the doctor said that he had talked with many easterners and they had seemed very optimistic over the future but that conditions in general seemed such as to indicate independence and other western points.

CHILDREN RUSHING FOR 4-H PROJECTS

LIBERTY, Nov. 28.—The school children are busy organizing the new 4-H clubs for the coming year, and are showing great enthusiasm for the project. Last year Mr. Meyers, after a great deal of persuasion, prevailed upon six boys to form a pig club, and several girls formed a cooking club. Both were so successful, the pig raisers financially, and the cookery club in winning prizes as well.

Independence Will Take Steps to Aid Unemployed of City

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 28.—Relief work is under discussion in Independence. Churches, lodges and other organizations are planning to organize a central unit to take care of the needy during the winter months. A meeting will be called soon by R. K. Moncomery, chairman of the relief committee of the chamber of commerce, and a plan will be adopted.

BONES BROS. SELL GARAGE BUSINESS

Webbs are Buyers; Pearsons on Short Trip to California City

TURNER, Nov. 28.—The Bones brothers' garage business which has been conducted by the Bones' firm for a number of years, has been purchased by Pay and Hugh Webbs, who have taken possession. The Webbs' brothers have been residents at Turner most of the time since they were school boys.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

Dr. Knott brought home a rare relic for Mrs. Knott. It is one of two brass candelabras used in the German Lutheran church which she attended when a child at the home of her parents near Owlesville, Iowa. The relic was kept for Mrs. Knott by her brother when the church building was razed. The candelabrum, 35 years old, is crescent shaped, beautifully engraved, and contains holders for seven tapers.

In speaking of the weather conditions at home and on his trip, Dr. Knott said that the deepest snow which he encountered was at Baker, Oregon, as he was returning home. He said that it had just begun to snow in the east as he started home, the weather being exceptionally good during the time he was there.

Talking with the depression conditions, the doctor said that he had talked with many easterners and they had seemed very optimistic over the future but that conditions in general seemed such as to indicate independence and other western points.

COLLEGE STUDENTS HOME FOR HOLIDAY

McIntosh Home Scene of Dinner Party; Others Also Reported

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 28.—College students who have returned home for Thanksgiving are: Oregon State college—Gordon Plant, freshman; Willard Sloper, and Miss Gungadene Bidgood, both sophomores. Reed college—Miss Glenna Hillebrand, sophomore. University of Oregon—Miss M. F. Hill, sophomore. Eugene—Miss E. J. Hill, sophomore. Capital Business college—Miss Elsie Brown.

BEAL OFFERS CUP FOR BEST STUDENT

SCIO, Nov. 28.—Mr. Beal, the boys' athletic coach, announced Wednesday that he would give a trophy at the end of school year to the best all round athlete and student among the Scio high school boys.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

Dr. Knott brought home a rare relic for Mrs. Knott. It is one of two brass candelabras used in the German Lutheran church which she attended when a child at the home of her parents near Owlesville, Iowa. The relic was kept for Mrs. Knott by her brother when the church building was razed. The candelabrum, 35 years old, is crescent shaped, beautifully engraved, and contains holders for seven tapers.

In speaking of the weather conditions at home and on his trip, Dr. Knott said that the deepest snow which he encountered was at Baker, Oregon, as he was returning home. He said that it had just begun to snow in the east as he started home, the weather being exceptionally good during the time he was there.

Talking with the depression conditions, the doctor said that he had talked with many easterners and they had seemed very optimistic over the future but that conditions in general seemed such as to indicate independence and other western points.

HALF STUDENTS ON SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

MIDDLE GROVE, Nov. 28.—Fifty per cent of the pupils enrolled in the Middle Grove school were on the honor roll last quarter. They were:

Edna Sonesinger, Roberta Bartruff, Aram Herrick, Irene Salter, Charles Bangert, Mildred Wachen, Leo Hammer, Emmett Warner, Earl Hammer, David Bartruff, Jaunita McCallister, Norman McCallister, Maxine La Due, M. J. McCallister, Audrey Harms, Viola Satter, Murray Dow, Genevieve Scharf, Daryl Calwell, Frances Dixon, Eillaine Harms, Sylvia Eisenbach, Loyale Satter, Doyle Satter, Jack Young, Barbara Leonard, LeRoy Barker. Mrs. Walter Fisher and Mrs. Jasper Hillyard served hot cocoa to the school children Wednesday.

Among those who enjoyed Thanksgiving dinners with relatives or friends were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scharf and daughter Genevieve, Mr. and Mrs. E. Scherman and family who spent the day in Portland; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Edwards were guests of Mrs. Lena Bartruff; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bassett and small son of Salem spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. August Olsen; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scharf and children Katherine and Harry were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lial Rand; of Salem.

WOMEN OF VICTOR POINT PLANNING TO ATTEND GRANGE COOKING SCHOOL

VICTOR POINT, Nov. 28.—Plans for a Christmas entertainment were laid out at the Parent-Teacher meeting at the schoolhouse Friday night. About 30 attended. Committees were appointed as follows: Program, J. O. Darby, Edyth Mulkey, Annice Miller, Christina Jones, Eleanor Paddock, decorating, Bertha Darby, Elizabeth and Leona Krens; candy, C. O. Jones and Ivan Darby; tree, J. O. Darby and Carl Jones.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

Dr. Knott brought home a rare relic for Mrs. Knott. It is one of two brass candelabras used in the German Lutheran church which she attended when a child at the home of her parents near Owlesville, Iowa. The relic was kept for Mrs. Knott by her brother when the church building was razed. The candelabrum, 35 years old, is crescent shaped, beautifully engraved, and contains holders for seven tapers.

In speaking of the weather conditions at home and on his trip, Dr. Knott said that the deepest snow which he encountered was at Baker, Oregon, as he was returning home. He said that it had just begun to snow in the east as he started home, the weather being exceptionally good during the time he was there.

Talking with the depression conditions, the doctor said that he had talked with many easterners and they had seemed very optimistic over the future but that conditions in general seemed such as to indicate independence and other western points.

TUBERCULIN TESTS STARTED, SHELburn

SHELburn, Nov. 28.—H. O. Shilling had as guests Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCrae and son Arby; Opal, Ralph and Virgil Shilling. T. M. Russell and family of North Albany spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McLain.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Crozier and niece, Evelyn Bronson, spent Thursday with his daughter, Mrs. Manhill, at Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Quigley, Mrs. Finley and Clarence Overholt were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Finley. Miss Johnston, the Shelburn school teacher, is spending her vacation at Hood River. Dr. G. F. Korinek of Stayton is giving the tuberculin test to the dairy herds in Shelburn district this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bates spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates, of the Cole community.

GLAD OFFERS CUP FOR BEST STUDENT

SCIO, Nov. 28.—Mr. Glad, the boys' athletic coach, announced Wednesday that he would give a trophy at the end of school year to the best all round athlete and student among the Scio high school boys.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

Dr. Knott brought home a rare relic for Mrs. Knott. It is one of two brass candelabras used in the German Lutheran church which she attended when a child at the home of her parents near Owlesville, Iowa. The relic was kept for Mrs. Knott by her brother when the church building was razed. The candelabrum, 35 years old, is crescent shaped, beautifully engraved, and contains holders for seven tapers.

In speaking of the weather conditions at home and on his trip, Dr. Knott said that the deepest snow which he encountered was at Baker, Oregon, as he was returning home. He said that it had just begun to snow in the east as he started home, the weather being exceptionally good during the time he was there.

Talking with the depression conditions, the doctor said that he had talked with many easterners and they had seemed very optimistic over the future but that conditions in general seemed such as to indicate independence and other western points.

GLAD OFFERS CUP FOR BEST STUDENT

SCIO, Nov. 28.—Mr. Glad, the boys' athletic coach, announced Wednesday that he would give a trophy at the end of school year to the best all round athlete and student among the Scio high school boys.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

WOMEN OF VICTOR POINT PLANNING TO ATTEND GRANGE COOKING SCHOOL

VICTOR POINT, Nov. 28.—Plans for a Christmas entertainment were laid out at the Parent-Teacher meeting at the schoolhouse Friday night. About 30 attended. Committees were appointed as follows: Program, J. O. Darby, Edyth Mulkey, Annice Miller, Christina Jones, Eleanor Paddock, decorating, Bertha Darby, Elizabeth and Leona Krens; candy, C. O. Jones and Ivan Darby; tree, J. O. Darby and Carl Jones.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

Dr. Knott brought home a rare relic for Mrs. Knott. It is one of two brass candelabras used in the German Lutheran church which she attended when a child at the home of her parents near Owlesville, Iowa. The relic was kept for Mrs. Knott by her brother when the church building was razed. The candelabrum, 35 years old, is crescent shaped, beautifully engraved, and contains holders for seven tapers.

In speaking of the weather conditions at home and on his trip, Dr. Knott said that the deepest snow which he encountered was at Baker, Oregon, as he was returning home. He said that it had just begun to snow in the east as he started home, the weather being exceptionally good during the time he was there.

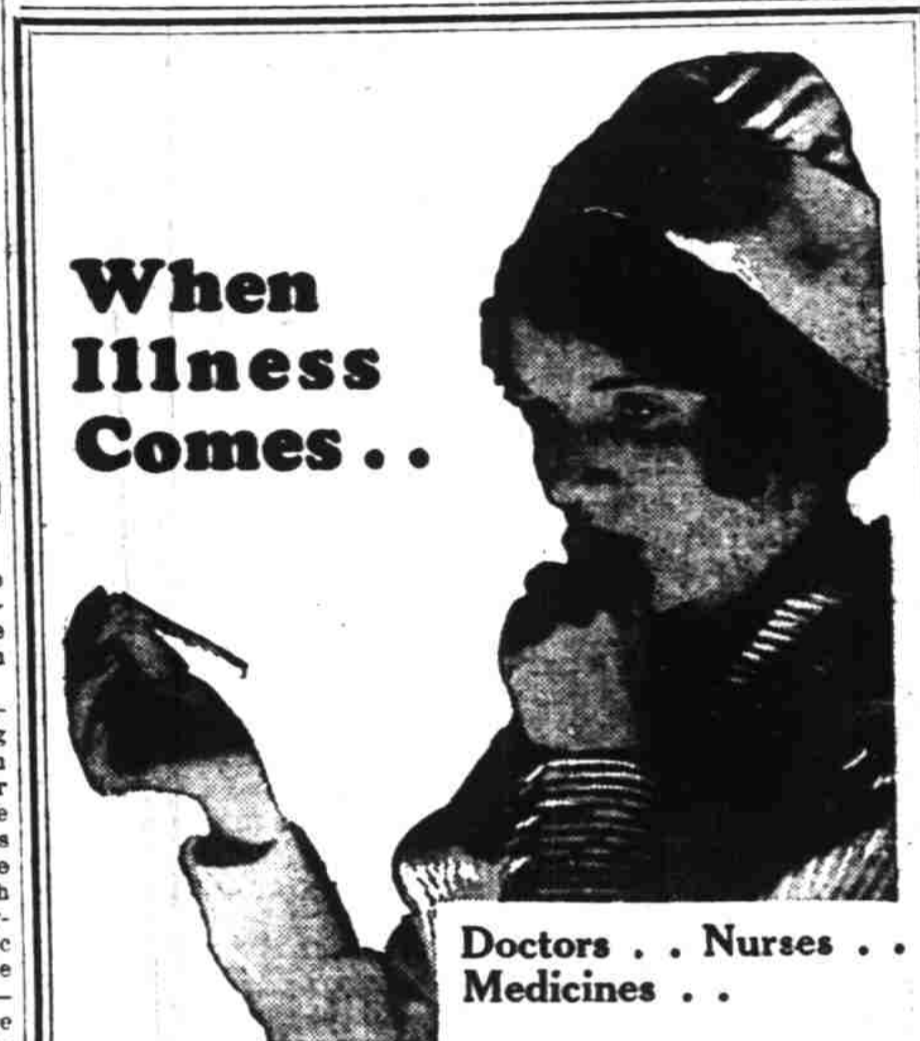

Talking with the depression conditions, the doctor said that he had talked with many easterners and they had seemed very optimistic over the future but that conditions in general seemed such as to indicate independence and other western points.

GLAD OFFERS CUP FOR BEST STUDENT

SCIO, Nov. 28.—Mr. Glad, the boys' athletic coach, announced Wednesday that he would give a trophy at the end of school year to the best all round athlete and student among the Scio high school boys.

On the return trip he visited the Trotter boys' brothers of Mrs. Knott and their families in northern Iowa. Sunday he enjoyed a family reunion with fifty of Mrs. Knott's relatives, including her brothers and sisters and their families.

When Knott was visiting relatives in Independence, Iowa, the First National bank of that city, failed, caused by the low value of farm land that had been backed by the banks when land was at a high price and farmers who were involved could not pay their debts and the bank became land poor.

When illness Comes... Doctors... Nurses... Medicines...

In time of need you will find your physician, your nurse and your pharmacist ready and willing to give you their best service.

OUR PRESCRIPTION SERVICE IS THE BEST SERVICE WE RENDER

Capital Drug Store

405 State J. H. Willett Tel. 3118

BEWARE

Smooth-worn tires skid on winter roads

GOODYEAR PATHFINDER	SIZE	Price Each	Price Each in Pair
22x1.40-21	2.40	9.40	18.80
22x1.50-20	2.60	9.45	18.90
22x1.50-21	2.60	9.45	18.90
22x1.75-19	3.05	9.45	18.90
22x1.75-20	3.05	9.45	18.90
22x1.90-19	3.40	9.45	18.90
22x1.90-20	3.40	9.45	18.90
22x1.90-21	3.40	9.45	18.90
22x1.90-22	3.40	9.45	18.90
22x1.90-23	3.40	9.45	18.90
22x1.90-24	3.40	9.45	18.90
22x1.90-25	3.40	9.45	18.90

FRANK DOOLITTLE'S

MASTER SERVICE STATION
Satisfaction With Every Transaction
North Commercial and Center Sts. Phone 4228

LADD & BUSH, BANKERS

Salem, Oregon
Established 1868
Commercial and Savings Department

Delegation Attends Highway Gathering

AURORA, Nov. 28.—A delegation from Aurora attended a highway meeting in Woodburn Friday night. Ralph Zimmerman was appointed a member of the Oregon highway association to represent this place, and which includes a representative from every community along the highway, and which will confer with the highway commission in regard to the broadening of the pavement.

COLE AND FRIENDS RETURN FROM TRIP

ROSEDALE, Nov. 28.—Kenneth Cole and party returned this week from their eastern trip. They came via California and stopped at Oakland a few days, where Mr. Cole was formerly employed. The T. D. Trick family spent their Thanksgiving with the Scott family at Liberty. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beje and

Family Moves From Mill Camp; Lyons Responds to Drive

LYONS, Nov. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bressler who have been living at the Cochran-Hinkle mill camp on the McCully mountain for the past year, are moving to Lyons this week. The mill is closed for an indefinite time and the families have nearly all located elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Bressler bought a cottage near the Smith-Fountain store and are moving into it. The Arthur Vaughn family have had the Bressler cottage for several months and vacated it this week.

INDEPENDENCE Will Take Steps to Aid Unemployed of City

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 28.—Relief work is under discussion in Independence. Churches, lodges and other organizations are planning to organize a central unit to take care of the needy during the winter months. A meeting will be called soon by R. K. Moncomery, chairman of the relief committee of the chamber of commerce, and a plan will be adopted.