Salem Woman's Club Guest Day is Colorful Function

TAKING its stand along with all other organizations of the city Salem Woman's club accepted the recommendation of the executive board at the business meeting Saturday afternoon and will from hence forth for the next five months contribute $25 a month to the aid of the Community Service organization. The money will be handled through the chairman of the welfare committee of the club, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding.

A recommendation to assess each member of the club twenty five cents to be sent to the state scholarship loan ofund was also adopted.

the ace always is valued as one quick trick. For similar reasons the A-K of a suit probably will win two tricks before leads of their mit can be trumped. The K-Q must lose the first trick to the missing ace, but the second trick ordinarily will be won, so the K-Q are considered equal in value to an ace.
