

Thanksgiving Permeates Rural Society With Many Functions

HOPE OF WEEKEND STOCK RALLY VAIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—(AP)—The stock market was unable to emerge from the shadows of the October average lows today. Stocks made a gesture of steadiness in the first hour when it appeared as though a rally might bring a rally but sagged in the latter half of the session under the despiriting influence of the rally. The market finished from fractions to three points off. The Associated Press standard statistics closing average for 99 stocks was 72.5 or 2.8 points above the October 5 bottom. Transactions totaled 938,099 shares.

New York Central was hampered with selling orders which hammered it down to 23 1/2, a loss of 3/4. Western Union broke 1 1/2 to 50 and U. S. Steel approximately 1 point to 52 1/2. American Can sold at 67, the lowest in four years, finishing at 67 1/2, off 1/4. Radio dipped a point to a new minimum. Baltimore & Ohio, Santa Fe, New Haven, Jersey Central and Union Pacific were off roughly 1 to 2. General Electric and General Motors were about steady, while National Biscuit, Case and American Tobacco "B" made small fractional gains.

'Argentina Heat Wave Brings on Rally in Wheat

CHICAGO, Nov. 28—(AP)—Aroused by news of a hot wave in Argentina, with temperatures overtopping 100 degrees and threatening to damage crops, all grain prices rallied late today. Earlier, the grain markets had to contend most of the time against disturbing effects of fresh breaks in Wall street securities. Stubborn resistance to selling pressure, however, developed from evidence that standing orders were executed to purchase wheat on downturns. Recoveries which followed came chiefly after trading in stocks had ended.

'MASQUERADE'

he was, to all intents and purposes, vanished; and he was, he must be—Evelyn. He dressed in a tuxedo, and he was, and now and then returned the invitations given to him by small, perfectly correct little parties. The girls found him a "knock-out," the men agreed that he was a good sport.

One day, in early winter, she had a letter from him. She opened it with a sinking heart and read the few lines it contained.

"I must see you, alone," he began without preamble. "Please arrange a time, I spoke the other day of wishing to visit the Metropolitan Museum. Unless I hear from you I will call for you tomorrow at three."

He had moved to a small, good hotel in New York and was living there for the time being. To Fanchon's inquiries, "Evelyn"—he answered carelessly that she was still in Brooklyn and was cared for; he saw her often.
