DAME FASHION RECOVERS HER SANITY

Having recovered from the mental aberration the result of which was a wave of nonsensical fashions which were disinterred from the "Gay Nineties" and early Victorian era, Dame Fashion is once more her charming self. Styles for the coming season have none of the freakish features that have marked most of the recent creations. Pictured above are some of the charming models that mark the grand old lady's return to sanity. On the left is a transparent velvet dress, for tea, cocktail hour, theatre or restaurant wear. Simply made, it has shirred sleeves which are puffed, and the only decoration is a chintz collar. The next model (third from left), is a brown lace dress with buckle and necklace of burnt topaz. The coat is of orange velvet with brown astrakhan collar. On the right is an ensemble for informal wear in the afternoon. It is of black transparent velvet with hat and shoes to match.

COMMUNITY CLUB LIKES TREE PLAN

BETHEL, Nov. 30.—The Bethel Community club met at the school Saturday night. The new president, S. Hamrick, was in the chair. As Mrs. Weddie, the secretary, was not able to be present, Mrs. A. L. Schulz served as acting secretary.

An invitation was accepted by the Community club to hold the December meeting the night of the school Christmas entertainment, Wednesday, December 23. The invitation was gladly accepted. There was a discussion regarding changing the regular meeting night of the club away from Saturday night. It was decided that the meetings are to continue on Saturday nights.

Bazaar Friday
The annual bazaar of the Menonite church, sponsored by the girls department of the Ladies' Aid of which Miss Alta Harris is president, will be held in the school basement Friday night. Last year the bazaar was such a grand success that the whole community is looking forward to the one on Friday. Harry Leisy will be auctioneer and Rev. J. Frans has charge of the program. Money obtained will go for mission work.

The Christmas program at the Methodist church, of which William deVries is superintendent, will be in charge of Miss Mildred Meyers and Mrs. Harold deVries.

KEEPS RICE BUSY, BUT PIPES CLEAR

SWEET HOME, Nov. 30.—Norval Rice, Sweet Home saw mill operator, has been a very busy man for the last few days, keeping the water pipes from freezing. The coldest night was Thanksgiving night and will be cold again by all indications, for a few more days. But Sweet Home people are feeling fortunate to not be wading snow, and a silver thaw, which was very close by the latter part of the week, just a few flurries of fine hail fell here.

The C. E. young people held a party Friday night at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Hartzell of the Evangelical church. There was a good attendance of members present that answered to roll call, and the way they all dressed for the occasion was a good advertisement for the present time. Miss Frieda Wodtill, president, had the evening's entertainment well outlined.

On Highway Work
Two hundred and thirty residents of Linn county have registered for work on the county clearing crew at Upper Sottum, which is removing the timber from the right-of-way on the Santiam highway. The rate of pay per day is $2; one dollar of this is kept for board at the county cook house, and one dollar is remitted to the worker's family. About 40 men is all that can be accommodated at present.

Under the skilled hand of L. Skinner of Lebanon, Sweet Home's new welcome sign is being transformed from some meaningless boards to a thing of beauty. "Welcome" in large letters those in a setting of beautiful fir trees, amid hill and plain. The wood work which is also a master piece was turned out of Wm. Wiley's shop. R. Belstrom assisting. The sign will be erected at the intersection of the Santiam highway and the market road, by Junction Inn.

MORE ONIONS ROLL FROM LABISH AREA

LAKE LABISH, Nov. 30.—Labish onions continued the sensational runaway rise in price with a leap of 25 cents, to $2.25 per hundred; $2.35 is being paid for three inch grade. Buyers scoured the neighborhood at the $2.00 price and were unable to find any for sale; at the new price a number of cars were billed over. The night watchman at the Hayes farm recently surprised a couple of onion thieves at their nocturnal vocation and obliged with a shotgun obligato. Since no gunshot wounds have been reported in the vicinity it is doubtful if a bullseye was scored.

For more than a month onions have been mysteriously absenting themselves from the shelves of various onion houses, and as a result the night watchman is going on duty two hours earlier.

NEWTON WOODWARD IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Health Lecture Scheduled; Returned Missionary Gives Address

HAZEL GREEN, Nov. 30.—Newton Woodward is seriously ill at the home of his daughter, Miss Ruby Woodward. Mr. Woodward is 84 years old. He crossed the plains in 1856, at the age of nine.
