Church Wedding is Impressive Affair

A brilliant event of the fall and winter season was the marriage of Miss Mary Kafoury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, to Frank E. Shafer, son of the late Frank E. Shafer, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the beautiful altar of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The church was filled with the 'many invited friends, most of whom had known the young people since their childhood.

Dignified simplicity marked the service and church decorations. The tall ivory tapers which form so distinctive a part of St. Paul's altar arrangement, burned steadily and cast a mystic glow over those who stood within the radius of their light.

Yellow and white chrysanthemums were entwined about the beautiful silver cross which forms the central figure of the altar background. More of the same flowers were arranged behind the glowing altar tapers. Tall palms gave the final note of dignity for the background, which complimented the rare loveliness of the bride.

Preceding the entry of the bridal party, the vested choir of St. Paul's, of which the bride had been a member, entered singing and took its place. Then the thrilling pipe organ notes of Lohengrin's march were sounded by Mrs. Kenneth Dalton, and the ushers, Donald Deckebach, Clark Jackson, Homer Smith, Jr., and Ivan Kafoury followed by the little flower girls, Ruth and Naomi Kafoury, in white chiffon frocks and wearing piquant white bows in their hair, took their places at the chancel rail, meeting there Mr. Shafer and Fietcher Johnson, best man.

Following them came Miss Helen Kafoury, sister of the bride. and as maid of honor, the only attendant. She wore a rose pink satin gown made with tight bodice. ruffled cape sleeves and a long full skirt with several tiers of ruffles extending from the waist line almost to her knees. Long white gloves and a chic, close-fitting silk turban completed her ensemble. She carried an arm bouquet of deep pink and rose orchid chrysanthemums.
