

SAIDIE DUNBAR CLUB SPEAKER

Urges United Efforts in Combatting Diseases of Children

WOODBURN, Dec. 3.—Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar, a prominent clubwoman of the state, who is past state president of the woman's clubs, and at present executive secretary of the Oregon state tuberculosis association, was the main speaker for the Woodburn Woman's club meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Dunbar spoke of the great value of the united efforts of various organizations in combatting disease and aiding children's health. She urged that all persons hold fast to their health program, despite the depression. She also mentioned the tuberculosis seals, and pointed out the important work the money derived from the stamps, does. She also stated that 13 percent of the deaths from tuberculosis in Oregon occur while the person is under 20 years of age. Miss Juanita Johnson, health nurse connected with the Marion county health program, introduced Mrs. Dunbar.

Wednesday was guest day, and about 30 women were at the meeting with others. All guests were given flowers. The guests were introduced to the members present.

Children of Mrs. Davenport's room in the Lincoln grade school gave a dramatization of the children's health charter. The play was very well performed and effective. Mrs. John Muir directed the children.

Ernestine Nathman, who was accompanied by Margaret Becker, sang "In the Garden of Tomorrow."

In the spring it is planned to hold a children's health conference in Oregon, it was announced. Mrs. Hiram Overton read the devotion from the second chapter of Luke.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Eugene Courtney, Mrs. Louisa Davis, Mrs. H. L. Gill, Mrs. F. W. Settlemeire, Mrs. C. F. Whitman, Mrs. Maude Mochel, and Mrs. Ella Soules. Members of the hospital committee were Mrs. W. J. Wilson and Mrs. Arista Nendel. Miss Juanita Johnson arranged the program.

ONIONS CLIMBING WITH $3 IN SIGHT

LABISH CENTER, Dec. 3.—The onion price continued the hectic climbing which has characterized it the last two weeks when growers here were offered $2.50 Wednesday. Buyers were said to have offered as much as $2.75 and $3 for future delivery, in unconfirmed reports.

Florence Starker Burr and Erma Duval, teachers here, are preparing a Christmas program, the first major school program of the year.

Mrs. I. D. Bennett has returned from a visit with her daughter, Miss Marie Bennett, who lives at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ell Rhodes returned Wednesday after a short jaunt to the Oregon beaches.

POINT PEOPLE ARE SILVERTON CALLERS

VICTOR POINT, Dec. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Darby and sons Marvin, Jimmy and Wesley went to Silverton Sunday to spend the day with Mr. Darby's sister, Mrs. Ben Hofstetter and her daughter, Lois of Vancouver, Wash., who were visiting with relatives there. Mr. Hofstetter, a well known contractor and builder and a former Silverton resident, is staying at the home of his mother, Mrs. John Beer, while working near Silverton.

Johnny Qualey is ill with a severe cold this week. Ernest Qualey expects to be home Monday from Silverton hospital where he has been for the past two and one half weeks.

Mrs. Humphreys and Miss Van Setten who conducted the cooking school at the grange hall were guests at the O. W. Humphreys

RELATIVES OF MOONEY AT HEARING

Several members of Tom Mooney's family were among the first to arrive at the California supreme court chambers for the Mooney pardon hearing Monday. From the left: Anna, a sister; John, a brother; Mrs. Mary Mooney, his aged mother, and Rena, his wife.

COMMUNISTS RIOT AT MOONEY PARDON HEARING

Riot scene during the Mooney pardon hearing at San Francisco Monday. Several communists were arrested when they attempted to force their way into the state building to demand that Governor Rolph hear them in connection with the Mooney case.

home while here. The women are from Portland.

Many of the local women attending the cooking school received prizes during the three day session. Among them were: Mrs. J. J. Doerfler, Miss Elizabeth Krenz, Mrs. Floyd Fox, Miss Letha Gilmour, Miss Millie Krenz and Mrs. J. O. Darby.

The downpour of rain following the severe freezing weather of the early part of the week was welcome in this section.

A Mr. Larson and family who are former residents of the Centerville district are moving to the Broughton place here. This place has been vacant over a year.

DIRECTORS NAMED BY CLUB AT AMITY

AMITY, Nov. 3.—The Amity Commercial club met at the Methodist church, Wednesday noon. The board of directors were elected for next year as follows: O. E. Roth, A. W. Newby, H. W. Foxbet, E. L. Strout, Guy Nott, A. B. Watt, and H. J. Richter.

The club voted to decorate Main street for the Christmas holidays. A committee was also appointed to assist Boy Scout work. Those appointed were: H. W. Torbet, E. L. Strout and H. J. Richters.

The women of the church served luncheon.

Elmer Wood, who was in the accident which occurred very early Wednesday morning when his car plunged from the Terwilliger boulevard, was brought home Wednesday night.

PLAY IN JANUARY AURORA, Dec. 3.—At a meeting of the Community club held Tuesday night, among other things it was announced the entertainment now under way will be given sometime in January. The next meeting of the club will be held January 5 at Latler's Cafe where a lunch will be served.

Motor trucks on Ohio farms have increased from 7,319 in 1920 to 39,201 in 1930.

PYTHIAN SISTERS NAME W. ANDERSON

SILVERTON, Dec. 3.—Election of officers was the outstanding event of the Pythian Sisters meeting held Tuesday night at the Pythian hall. Officers elected were: Most excellent chief, Wanda Anderson; past chief, Anna Hadley; excellent junior, Lavon Bowen; excellent junior, Chloe Staynor; manager, Ethel Kleeb; protectress, Etta Lee; guard, Elizabeth Cooley; mistress of records and correspondence, Ella Knight; mistress of finance, Nada Grinde; press correspondent, Wanda Anderson; trustee, Henrietta Loe; installing officer, Ruth McPike; pianist, Helen Wrightman.

The Sisters decided to send Christmas gifts to the children at the Oregon-Washington Pythian home and drew names so that each could send a personal gift to a certain child.

The group also voted to hold its annual Christmas party for the Pythian children here. Candy, nuts and a Santa Claus will be a portion of the evening's entertainment. Committees in charge are: Lunch, Elizabeth Cooley, Ola Bentson and Minnie Mosher; entertainment, Ruth McPike and Henrietta Loe; candy and nuts, Chloe Staynor, Lillian Heald and Norma Storassil; decorations, Florence Williams and Minnie Mosher.

A special meeting of the Pythian Sisters will be held Monday night, December 14.

The Pythian Sisters' club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henrietta Loe for the purpose of tying a quilt to be raffled off at the Pythian homecoming Thursday evening.

F. E. WILSON NEW MASTER OF GRANGE

LIBERTY, Dec. 3.—The regular meeting of the Red Hills grange was held Tuesday night at the Liberty hall. A pot-luck supper was enjoyed by a large number of grangers and their families. The following candidates were elected as members: Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Sealey, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miles, Catherine Dallas and Lester Browning.

The election of officers for the following year resulted as follows: Master, F. E. Wilson; overseer, Howard Zinsner, reelected; lecturer, Mrs. Florence Cole; steward, A. A. Taylor, reelected; assistant steward, Bill Berndt, reelected; treasurer, W. R. Dallas, reelected; secretary, Pearl Scott, reelected; gatekeeper, T. N. Abbott, reelected; Pomona, Mrs. George Adams; Ceres, Mrs. F. E. Wilson; Flora, Mrs. A. A. Taylor; executive committee, Fred Scott, C. W. Stacey and William Zosel; lady assistant steward, LaVerne Oakman.

Work of the first and second degree for newly elected members will be held next Tuesday at 8 p. m. in Liberty hall.

The recently organized degree team of the Red Hills grange will put on the work, Willis R. Dallas is drill master. The third and fourth degree work and initiation for members admitted by Demit will be held December 23.

The grange is doing satisfactory work and it is expected that a larger number of candidates will be taken in after the first of the year.

Mrs. Marie Dorman of Jefferson was a guest Sunday at the home of her brother, E. A. Free, and of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Oscar Dancer. Mrs. Dorman was recently operated on for the removal of a gallstone at a Portland hospital.

11 Students Receive Honor Third Month

HAZEN GREEN, Dec. 3.—The honor roll for the third month is as follows: primary, Marian Wampler, Ardabette Bliss, Tom Yoshuka, Stanly Fukada; advanced room, Bernice Lehrman, Maxine Wolf, Emi Yada; Quinton Zelinski, Tom Mio, Frank Johnson Jr., Bernard Zelinski. These pupils were neither absent nor tardy, had grades either first or second, and good behavior.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McCockle and daughter Thelma are spending the winter at Oakland, California. A nephew, Mr. Wolf from Rainier, will care for the stock during Mr. McCockle's absence.

School's Enrollment Increased by Four

STAYTON, Dec. 3.—Mrs. O. L. Hageb and infant son have returned home from a Salem hospital. Mrs. M. Yoeman is staying with them for a time.

Roy Lee is here from the University of Oregon, called by the death of his grandfather, George Meull.

Four new pupils, Viola James, Albert Harris, Sterling Tucker and Eldra McGuire were added to the Stayton high school the past month, making the total enrollment 181.

LADD & BUSH, BANKERS

Salem, Oregon

Established 1868

Commercial and Savings Department

Your Old Pen Is Worth $2.51

Introductory Advertising Offer

TWO HOURS ONLY

2 P. M. TO 4 P. M.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4th

To Introduce the New Bullet-Shape

GOTHIC SMOOTH POINT

UNBREAKABLE SELF-FILLING FOUNTAIN PEN AND PENCIL SET

With the new Lifetime Flatnoid Pen Point

YOU SAVE $2.50 WITH YOUR OLD PEN! Regardless of make or condition Pen is in Bring your old pen to our store regardless of make or condition. Present this coupon and only 99c and we will give you this beautiful $2.50 Self-Filling Fountain Pen with the new Lifetime Flatnoid Pen Point. You also get a $1.00 Propel and Repeel Pencil that matches the pen absolutely FREE. This $2.50 pen and pencil set is given to you FREE, you really pay only for the New Lifetime Flatnoid Pen Point. A factory written lifetime guarantee with both pen and pencil. Only $1.00 extra with each set. Actively home sold at this price after 4 p. m. Friday, December 4th. All the new pearl effects, French Onyx, Marble, Green, and Black and White. In ladies', child's and men's sizes. Mail orders filled add 6c. IDEAL FOR XMAS GIFTS OR PERSONAL USE.

-BOTH STORES-

Capital Drug Co. — Salem Drug Co.

State and Liberty

State and Commercial

MISSION SOCIETY ENLARGES CHARITY

EENA, Dec. 3.—Of particular interest at the recent meeting of the Spring Valley Missionary society, when the group met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Henry Wednesday for Christmas charity work, a decision being reached to take in a larger field than usual this year, help being extended needy in home districts and in Salem.

The president, Mrs. S. D. Crawford is to appoint committees later. Mrs. R. H. Scott of Salem, chairman of the program committee, gave an instructive talk on the duty of each individual in charity work. Mrs. W. D. Henry, past president of the federation of rural women's clubs of Polk county gave an excellent talk.

Mrs. L. Frank Matthews, who with Mrs. W. D. Henry and Mrs. R. H. Scott compose the program committee, had some very interesting letters sent the society from foreign missionaries. Mrs. Matthews presided at the business meeting Wednesday and Mrs. Hugh Craig was in charge of devotions. Joint hostesses with Mrs. Henry were Mrs. R. H. Scott and Mrs. W. T. Scott, the latter not being present. Mrs. Jesse Walling assisted the hostesses at the lunch hour.

Members and guests present Wednesday were Mrs. W. Frank Crawford, Mrs. W. D. Henry, Mrs. S. D. Crawford, Mrs. W. Kenneth Henry and daughter Corinne, Mrs. Roy E. Barker and small son, Sammy, Mrs. A. L. Kinton, Mrs. D. Neiswander, Mrs. Paul Neiswander and little Paul Jr., Mrs. Hugh Craig, Mrs. C. M. Purvine, Mrs. Alvin Madsen and little son Alvin Jr., Mrs. L. Frank Matthews, Mrs. W. N. Crawford, Mrs. Jesse Walling, Miss Irene Windsor, Mrs. Fred Muller and the hostesses, Mrs. W. Henry and Mrs. R. H. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muller of Zena entertained as Saturday evening dinner guests, his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Keck and son Newton Jr., of Portland.

Mrs. Walter B. Hunt who was confined to her home for over a week with influenza prior to Thanksgiving holidays is recovering nicely.

Boys Slightly Hurt As Car Hit; Craft Club is Organized

SWEGLE, Dec. 3.—Reuben Imig's car was hit by another car this morning on Garden road near Swegle school and damaged to some extent. Kenneth Swingle, who was riding with Reuben at the time, had his lip cut by flying glass, and Reuben's knee was injured.

The boys from Swegle school held a meeting at the F. Roberts home last night at 7 o'clock to outline the work for the coming year. They named their club "The Swegle Woodcraft Club." Those joining are Lester Meyers, Otto Folk, Kenneth Swingle, Juliette McCarthy, Claude Swingle, Bjarne Soland, Raymond Bond, Stanley Seguin and Howard Whitehead. Clayton Dalke and Jack Oglesby will join the club.

Junior Operetta is Friday Night Event At School Building

SILVERTON, Dec. 3.—One of the interesting school events of the year will be the junior operetta to be given Friday night by the school children of the Eugene Field building and will begin at 7:30 o'clock Friday night.

The title of the production is "Fairies Are Really Truly." Grades one, two and three have the main parts with choruses from the other grades in the building. There are 89 children taking part in the production. Miss Silver and Miss Umphlete have charge of the music; Miss Hubbs and Miss Slauson are in charge of the dancers, Miss Olga Johnson and Miss Gelsler are in charge of the costuming. The programs were made by Miss Elliot of the senior high school.

JOINT CHRISTMAS PROGRAM IS PLAN

MARION, Dec. 3.—The officers of Marion community club are arranging a special Christmas program with tree for their regular meeting date, December 22. The Sunday schools of both the Friends and Presbyterian churches will join with them as also children from the grade schools. Prof. Hansen, Miss Rose Huston and Miss Pearson have charge of the program.

The Union women that met at Mrs. Elzy Pickards lovely country home Wednesday, are making rapid strides on their quilts. One is ready for quilting while the second one is half pieced. These meetings are probably most enjoyable and profitable and by each one bringing a prepared dish, the luncheon hour is not a burden on any one. They meet again next Wednesday with Mrs. J. L. Callivan.

The regular meeting of the Farmer's Union will be held Friday night in the Woodman hall. Discussions on farm problems will be the main feature along with the regular business. The Gilmore and Grays are to furnish the lunch, which will consist of salad, cookies and tea. A social hour is held at the close of each meeting.

Albert Lafkey and Warren Gray were representatives from Marion who assisted in loading the car of fruit and vegetables most enjoyable Monday for the drouth sufferers in Montana and the Dakotas.

John Callivan returned Wednesday from a business trip to Bend.

Mrs. Warren Gray spent the weekend visiting relatives in Portland.

Aid Benefit Dinner Plans Are Discussed

WEST SALEM, Dec. 3.—The monthly business meeting of the Ford Memorial Ladies Aid society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Goss. Mrs. W. D. Phillips presided at the meeting was opened with song and prayer. Reports of officers were heard and discussed for the Aid benefit dinner. It was that it be held Wednesday 9 in the church.

Guy Newgent, Mrs. Mrs. Goss were as a menu committee. Announcements were made. Mrs. D. T. Braswell, Wednesday monthly silver tea. Mrs. J. M. Krobs and Mrs. J. M. appointed assistant hostesses. Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. C. L. D. and Mrs. J. R. Bedford will have charge of entertainment features.

MRS. BAKER NAMED PRESIDENT OF 4-M

MACLEAY, Dec. 3.—Mrs. H. E. Martin was hostess to the members of the 4-M club at her home, at an all day meeting Wednesday. Dinner was served at noon at long tables centered with miniature Christmas trees. Christmas greenery was also used about the living room.

The afternoon meeting was opened with Christmas scripture reading by Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg. The club voted to contribute toward the fund for the community Christmas tree.

The following officers for the coming year were elected: president, Mrs. Charles Baker; vice president, Mrs. H. E. Martin; secretary, Mrs. M. M. Magee, treasurer, Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg. During the social hour, readings were given by Mrs. M. Wells, H. Fuestman and J. C. Tekenburg. Christmas gifts were drawn by the members and the making of economical Christmas gifts discussed. Mrs. A. Spellbring will entertain the club members in January.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fuestman, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Mr. and Mrs. R. Clark, Mrs. A. F. Lewis, Mrs. W. Frink, Mrs. M. M. Magee and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Martin.

ATTEND TURNER MEET PRATUM, Dec. 3.—A number of families from here were represented at the revival meeting at Turner Wednesday night, and others are going Friday night.

PRATUM, Dec. 3.—The women of the Methodist church are planning a cooked food sale at Hall's electric store Saturday, December 5.

PLAN FOOD SALE

PRATUM, Dec. 3.—The women of the Methodist church are planning a cooked food sale at Hall's electric store Saturday, December 5.

FOR BLASTING STUMPS

LOGGERS' POWDER—A powerful explosive for blasting green stumps in wet or dry soil. Has more power in each stick. Does more work per pound of powder used. Stays down in the bottom of hole. Can be stored without losing its "pop."

AGRITOL—This powder is made for blowing out old stumps, or splitting them for pulling with team or tractor. Acarrot is sold in 50-pound cases containing about 172 sticks, 1 1/4"x8". May be loaded in damp soil—will not freeze.

If your stumps are suited to Acarrot powder, you'll find it the cheapest explosive to use. Try a case today.

FOR BLASTING DITCHES IN WET SOIL

Make your drainage ditches with dynamite! It's the quick, easy, cheap and sure way to make them. No need to break ground.

Our Annual Pre-Inventory

USED CAR SALE

NO DOWN PAYMENT

From December 4th to December 15th We Will Sell You a Used Car With No Down Payment! Now is Your Chance. Fine Selection to Choose From.

Salem Automobile Company

435 N. Commercial St. Phone 4673

CHRYSLER—PLYMOUTH—DURANT DEALERS

AT MOONEY PARDON HEARING

Mayor "Jimmy" Walker of New York City and Senator John Hastings of New York as they appeared at the Tom Mooney pardon hearing in San Francisco Monday.