Cross - Word Puzzle

That your laugh indicates the type of humor you possess and is as outward sign of your true character, is the startling result of an experiment conducted by Dr. Polyxenie Kambouropoulou, psychologist at Columbia University, New York. The doctor arrived at her conclusions after an intensive study of one hundred students at Vassar College, each of whom kept a "humor diary" for the purpose of the experiment, self-exaltation-like a receter does the crowing, one presumes, after the hen has done the work. The only expression of glee which meets "gentle" sex as the subject, the not-se-gentle element can reasonably indulge in a good "Hee-heel Ho-he! or Ha-ha!" and still have a little
