Brid-e Tea is Christmas Affair

A distinctly lovely bridge tea was an outstanding social event of the week Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Feldman with Mrs. L. C. Marshall and Mrs. Harold hostesses.

The guests were decked with a profusion of fir and holly and with these were used Christmas lights and red tapers. A gayly dressed Christmas tree held candle score cards and the guests chose their own from the tree under the trees were unique gift boxes in bright red which contained favors for the guests.

Further in keeping with the spirit of Christmas, unique Christmas letters were given as bridge prizes one each to Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. J. A. Phillips and Mrs. F. A. Well. Tea was served at the small tables each centered with red and green tapers. A gay feature of the tea was the individual Christmas puddings with tiny candles centering each one. Mrs. B. E. Stason and Miss Clara Marshall assisted at the tea hour.

The invited guest list included Mrs. Martha Smuck, Mrs. R. R. Hewitt, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Walter Minter, Mrs. B. E. Stason, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mrs. Walter Pennington, Mrs. Mose Adams, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. William Speck, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Mrs. Gabriel, Mrs. Harold Phillips, Mrs. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. George Troit, Mrs. F. A. Well, Mrs. C. F. Turner, Mrs. D. L. Sylvester, mother of Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. L. ## Marriage Announced For January 2

Dr. and Mrs. J. Harry Moran are sending out invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Hazelle Cecillia Moran to Ernel W. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed January 2 at the Moran home on South Cottage street. Rev. J. R. Huck of St. Joseph's Catholic church will read the ceremony.

Miss Moran will be attended by Mrs. Mitzie LaMarr of Portland as matron of honor, Miss Genevieve Brecht of Portland, bridesmaid and Dorothy Barnum, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Barnum of Mt. Angel as flower girl.

Both Miss Moran and Mr. Reed attended Oregon State college where the romance began. Miss Moran, who has spent most of her time in Portland will return to Salem this weekend and remain here. The young people here for the program at the tea will make their home in Salem.

War Mothers Have Pretty Party

The social rooms of the American Lutheran church were made into a beautiful "Christmas" Tuesday afternoon for the Christmas party of the American War Mothers, Mrs. May Salabury, assisted by Mrs. Carrie Beecher, Mrs. Lina Cherrington, Mrs. Minnie Keeney, Mrs. Rose Hagedorn, Mrs. Prudence Bouffleur, Mrs. Mary Ayres and Mrs. Lucretia White arranged the tea rooms and the program.

Red tapers, holly, and fir branches adorned the fireplace, piano, and a Christmas tree added a last note of beauty to the rooms. The long tea table was arranged with sprays of Oregon grape, red tapers in crystal holders and bright red apples. A Christmas favor marked the cover for each of the 50 guests. Mrs. Carlson and Mrs. Carrie Chase gave appropriate Christmas mementos for the program at the tea hour.

Officers Elected At Tuesday Meeting

Mrs. C. A. Sprague was elected to the presidency of the Salem Woman's Press club at the Tuesday meeting for which Mrs. Murray Wade was hostess in the Silver Grille room of the Gray Belle. Mrs. Dennis Landry will serve service president; Mrs. A. W. Lane, Jr., treasurer; and Mrs. Ralph Curtis, secretary.

An interesting meeting was enjoyed following the election of officers. Work was finished on the dolls which the club is making for distribution at Christmas time. A large table full of rag dolls, cats, dogs, elephants, and other such dolls was on display as the result of the work accomplished by the women in the last three meetings. At the Tuesday meeting the club members each brought a toy which will be presented to charity. This was done instead of exchange gifts.

Tea was served at a long table centered with holly and red tapers in crystal holders.

The invited guest list for the afternoon were Mrs. W. C. Conner, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. Dennis Landry, Mrs. Hal Hosts, Mrs. A. W. Lane, Jr., Mrs. Stephen Stone, Mrs. A. Lindbeck, Mrs. Clayton Bernhard, Mrs. A. E. Brown, Mrs. Ralph Curtis, Mrs. Wayne Pettit, Mrs. Ralph Kletzing, Mrs. E. E. Thomas, Mrs. Don Upton, Miss Joy Lock, Mrs. Louise Tarpley, Mrs. Earle Rice, Mrs. W. C. Dibble, Mrs. Louise Iufer, Mrs. Henry Lee, Miss Carol Dibble.

Mrs. Dibble gave a happy Christmas reading from David Grayson as an attractive feature of the afternoon.

Members present were Mrs. Lambert Foskens, Mrs. Ben H. Hawkins, Mrs. T. C. Morgan, Mrs. Claude Armstrong, Mrs. Roy Rodgers, Mrs. Stanley Pats, Mrs. Harvey Armstrong, Mrs. Mike Lucas, Mrs. C. J. Griffith, Mrs. T. A. Juss, Mrs. Carl Krehbiel, Mrs. Leo Sutter and Mrs. Harold Eitstrom, Mrs. Newbill and Mrs. Galbraith were visitors.

Pleasant View — One of the most pleasant affairs of this vicinity was held Saturday night at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller. The diversion of the evening was "500" and cribbage.

High honors in "500" were won by Mrs. Lloyd Jarman and Karl Wipper.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jarman, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wipper, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luke, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hennis, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drager, Louie Hennis, Ben Wipper, Gene Shilling, Fred Miller, Robert Hunsaker, Mr. A. J. Miller, Stella Miller, Mrs. John Shilling, and the Misses Mabel Tucker, Slag, and Gertrude Anderson.

Independence — The needier part of the Presbyterian church will meet at the Dr. George C. Knott home Thursday afternoon, December 17.

Miss Mrs. Montgomery will review chapter one of the book, "God and the Census", written by L. Roper N. McLean, who spent his boyhood days in Grants Pass.

Instead of the customary exchange of gifts at the December meeting the members are all asked to bring a silver offering which will go toward local needs in the vicinity.

Kingwood — Eugene Krebs Jr. was the guest of honor Saturday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Krebs, when a group of young friends gathered to celebrate his fourteenth birthday. Guests were Mable Radkey, Reba Clarke, Bertha Stevens, Muriel Kaster, Marjory Kaster, Betty Krebs, Winston Gesser, Bob Langhoff, Gordon Lacey, Leo Stevens, Billy Krebs and Eugene Krebs, Jr.

Members of the Thimble club of the Macabees are to be guests of Mrs. Bertha Loveland this afternoon at her home, 405 South 23rd street. Through an error this was announced for Thursday. The group will meet at 2 o'clock and will bring needle work with them. There will also be an exchange of inexpensive presents.

A surprise Kensington afternoon complimented Mrs. T. L. Lind Monday at her home. Guests were intimate friends of Mrs. Lind who had remembered her birthday, and included Mrs. Dean Schomaker, Mrs. C. C. Cole, Mrs. A. F. Noth, Mrs. A. D. Wagner, Mrs. W. B. Bane, Mrs. Ed Reesor, Mrs. James Arnett, Mrs. C. T. Owen, Mrs. O. C. McDowell, Mrs. I. A. Murphy and Mrs. Bert Macy.

Mrs. H. F. Shanks was to have entertained the South Central circle of the First Methodist church at her home this afternoon but circumstances have prevented this meeting. There will be no meeting of the group in December.

P. L. E. & F. Club Entertained

Mrs. Wayne Greenwood entertained members of the P. L. E. and F. club at her home Tuesday afternoon. At the business meeting plans were made for selling the quilt which the group has been working on for the past several weeks.

Mrs. Henrietta Ferguson was joint hostess with Mrs. Greenwood. The hostesses were unassisted at the tea hour.

Guests were Mrs. Lettie Hanson, Mrs. Aazel Hixon, Mrs. Mary Marshall, Mrs. Mary Euse, Mrs. Pearl Kinzer, Mrs. Hester Hogan, Mrs. Nancy Burk, Miss Myrtle Burk, Mrs. Anna Borkman, Mrs. Laura Johnson, Mrs. Della Schellberg, Mrs. Mae Ratcliff and Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Greenwood.

Mrs. Arthur Rahn attended the mid-winter symphony productions of the Oregon State college symphony orchestra in Corvallis Sunday. Marked improvement over the work of last year was noted by Mrs. Rahn, and especial praise was given the program Sunday afternoon. Albert Creitz is the director of the group.

Election Tea is Brilliant Affair

A brilliant tea of the week was the annual election tea sponsored by the T. W. C. A. in the social rooms of the organization home on Liberty street Tuesday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5:30 o'clock.

The main social room was decorated in true Christmas spirit with a large tree trimmed in effective manner. Ropes of evergreen about the room and tapers and bowls of greenery on the mantel and the piano.

The tea table was set in the long dining room and made an attractive center for the room. A gorgeous linen cloth belonging to Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Sr., was used on the tea table. Mrs. Fry brought the cloth with her on her return from Ireland. It shows in beautiful tapestry effect but all in pure white linen. A gorgeous linen cloth belonging to Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Sr., was used on the tea table. Mrs. Fry brought the cloth with her on her return from Ireland. It shows in beautiful tapestry effect but all in pure white linen.

Mrs. W. T. Jenks, Mrs. T. A. McBride, Mrs. L. C. McMahon and Mrs. F. A. Elliott presided at the table. Elliott is serving Mrs. Kitty Gray, Mrs. Claud Glenn, Mrs. W. D. Clarke and Miss Priscilla Fry, and Mrs. George Hugg. Mrs. Milton Meyer was in charge of the social committee and the tea plans.

Colorful program was presented of music and readings under the direction of Mrs. W. D. Clarke. Mrs. L. O. Clement and her committee had charge of the decorating.

Board members elected by ballot cast during the Tuesday election were Mrs. J. A. Brown, Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Mrs. M. L. Meyer, Mrs. A. M. Chapman, Mrs. E. B. Daugherty and Mrs. Percy Kelly.

One of the lovely events of the holiday season during the meeting of the Sterling Guild of the Calvary Baptist church at the home of Clara Jane Harms Monday evening. The program was in charge of Jean McElhinney and devotions were led by Dorothie Pickens.

Holly and red candles emphasized the Christmas motif which was also effectively used in the dainty refreshments. Those present were Miss Jean McElhinney, Miss Dorothie Pickens, Miss Lois Cochran, Miss Dorothy Ross, Mrs. Earl Gregg, Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Gretchen Holgate and Miss Lucille Beachler who assisted Miss Harms in serving.

"Hollywood"—Members of the "Same Over Here" club enjoyed a very pleasant social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thomas complimenting them on the anniversary of their wedding. Mrs. E. J. Ward assisted the hostess.

Those present were: Mrs. W. W. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Fougard, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kleiman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kleiman, Miss Florence Kleiman, Earl Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thomas.

Auburn—The Auburn Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. T. C. Moran for the December meeting. After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed by the members. Much merriment was enjoyed by the fishing of presents out of a box.

W. C. T. U. Tea Attractive

An attractive affair was the silver tea and program which was sponsored by the Salem W. C. T. U. Tuesday afternoon in the Union hall.

Mrs. Lydia Lehman, president of the group presided. Mrs. L. D. Waterman lead the devotions. For the tea program Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist was soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. Ted Gordon. Mrs. Devine also sang one of her own compositions. Miss Helen Purvine gave a group of violin solos accompanied by Miss Rachel Pemberton.

Mrs. J. J. Tallman was in charge of the tea hour.

At the business meeting a prayer band was organized which will begin its meetings in January. Mrs. C. F. Wilson, Mrs. A. B. Evans, Mrs. Sarah Oliver, and Mrs. J. J. Nunn will be among the first hostesses.

Welfare work for the holiday season was planned at the auxiliary meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Monday night in the Woman's clubhouse. A check was voted and sent to the V. F. W. widow and orphan home at East Rapids, Mich., this to be used for a Christmas cheer fund. Following the business meeting a joint social hour was enjoyed by the Veterans and the auxiliary.

During the illness of Mrs. Fred Gibson of Kingwood avenue, West Salem, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gibson of Salem will make their home at the Fred Gibson home.

Hubbard—Rose Jordan was hostess for a dinner party Sunday with her four sisters and two of their husbands as guests. Covers were placed for Mrs. Bud Dimick, Mrs. George Gruber, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. White, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stauffer and Miss Rose Jordan of Hubbard.

Mrs. Hugh B. Fouke will lead the devotions for the W. C. T. U. meeting of the North Salem group Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Jason Lee church. "Antidote for War" will form the topic for discussion upon which Rev. Hugh B. Fouke, Jr. will speak to the members gathered.

Mrs. Floyd McCarrroll entertained recently in compliment to Miss Frances Walker, who will become the bride of James Byers December 24. Luncheon was followed by an afternoon of cards. A tiny Christmas tree holding presents for each was a feature of the luncheon hour.

An attractive bridge evening Saturday was that for which Mr. and Mrs. George McFarland were hosts at their home. High scores were held by Mrs. Clifford Townsend and John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Eichelberger of Portland were out-of-town guests.

CHURCHILL BETTER NEW YORK, Dec. 15—(AP)—An "uncomplicated pleurisy" has been developed by Winston Churchill as a consequence of the injuries he suffered when struck by a taxicab but the versatile British statesman was described tonight by his physicians as "progressing favorably."
