

TWO PROGRAMS ARE ARRANGED

Labish Center School Entertains Wednesday and Church Tonight

LABISH CENTER, Dec. 22—Intensive rehearsal for the two Christmas programs which will be presented here have been held the past week. The school program will be given Wednesday night, December 23, while the Sunday school program will be presented following the Endeavor service Sunday night, December 20.

Both programs will be at the school house. The young peoples' Sunday school classes taught by Mrs. E. G. Hornschuch and Harry E. Boehm are preparing to do some Christmas carolling this week. The former class will also distribute cheer among some unfortunate of the community.

A. F. Daniels, who has been quite ill, has been removed to a Salem hospital, where a serious gland operation is said to be necessary.

D. R. Deegans, who was called to Packwaukee, Wis., the last of November by the death of his father, is on his way home now and is expected here the first of the week. Relatives in Wisconsin have been visited the last three weeks.

The partition in the Harris Labish Center store has been removed, and the increased floor space been utilized to enlarge the scope of its service.

Grace Klampe, teacher at the Oak Ridge school near Macleay, has announced the school's Christmas program, which will be given on Tuesday evening, December 22. The program includes "Mixed-up Welcome", Dora May and Earl Klen; "Silent Night", audience; reading, "Remarkable, My Sakes" Dorothy Parton; play, "Last Year's Letter"; trio, "Glad Christmas Carols"; reading, "A Christmas Thought", Della Klen; monologue, "Buying His Christmas Slippers", Barbara Taylor; song, "Watch Out, Santa", boys; play, "Bringing in the Christmas Spirit"; reading, Stanley Parton; accordion solo, Wallace Doerfler; reading, "Squirrel Land", Dora May Klen; song, "O, Guiding Star", by the girls; reading, "Learnin' His Last Piece", Earl Klen; reading, "If Santa Claus Was Pa", Leslie Klampe; song, "I Came Upon the Midnight Clear", all; reading, "Christmas Shopping", Stanley Parton; play, "Christmas Isn't So Merry"; reading, "Kerchoo", Kathryn Taylor; and closing song by all.

SCOTT'S MILLS, Dec. 22—The gymnasium was packed Thursday night for the P. T. A. Christmas program with Miss Foster in charge. Each one did his or her part well. The operetta "The Christmas Dream", by the Glee club was especially well presented.

CARSTENSONS MOVE SILVERTON HILLS, Dec. 22—Gus Carstenson and family have moved to their own home in the Mountain View district. Mr. Carstenson has been working at the Silver Falls Timber Company logging camps which recently closed down. During his absence the children have been cared for by Mrs. C. V. Murray.

OPERETTA SLATED FOR THIS EVENING

JEFFERSON, Dec. 22—The Christmas operetta "Jimmy Murphy's Christmas", will be presented by the grade school Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, at the Masonic hall in Jefferson. Because of Miss Geraldine Regester's absence, Miss Bertha Dillon has taken over the musical part of the operetta, and she now has charge of the entire presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmen E. Black and M. L. Buzard of Los Angeles have rented the W. E. Moses farm south of Jefferson. The Jefferson school will close Thursday for the holiday vacation, following the Christmas tree and distribution of gifts that afternoon. Miss Bertha Dillon will spend her vacation with her brother W. E. Dillon and family at Molalla, Miss Frances Pierce will visit at the home of her father at Kalama, Wash., Miss Maud Durfee will leave Thursday morning for Hagerman, Idaho, where she will spend the holidays at the home of her parents, and Miss Frances Chambers will visit at the home of her mother in Portland.

BASHOR SERVICES AMITY, Dec. 22—Funeral services were held in the Baptist church here Tuesday afternoon for Zella Bashor, who passed away Saturday at her home in Lebanon. Interment was in the Amity cemetery.
