In compliment to the season of "special occasions", when happiness and good will and merry-making run riot, when visiting is the order of the day and surprises fill the air, in compliment to this season we present two maids whose activities symbolize two of the features of this Christmas season. Miss Helen Stiles, left, like many other maids at this Christmas, has just announced her engagement to A. Lars Nelson. Miss Stiles is a popular senior in Willamette university and a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority .-- Portrait by Kennell-Ellis.

Miss Francis Sande, right, also a popular member of one of the younger circles in Salem social life, is among the many people enjoying the holidays in visiting afar. Miss Sande is in San Francisco and expects to return this weekend .- Portrait -- Gunnell-Robb.

New Year's Throws Its Spell Over Salem Society for This Week

NEW YEAR'S has a charm all its own. Dancing and fun, carnival and frolic rush the old year on its way without mercy for either the good or ill it has done and the new year is greeted with anticipation even though past anticipations have proven false in the years back.

So with this week there is planning and there are parties manifold. Among the smartest parties is the Subscription club dance which will be New Year's eve at the Masonic temple. Many out of town guests will be present for this annual affair. A large no host dinner among others will precede
