INDUSTRIAL TOURS

PLANNED BY Y. M. C. A.
All Boys Invited to Make Trips Through Plants Starting Tuesday
Repeating its practice of several years, the Y. M. C. A. boys' division will again feature as part of its Christmas holiday program the visits of various institutions and industrial plants in and near Salem, according to Dwight Adams, boys' secretary of the local association.
These visits are open to any boy in the city of Salem regardless of connections of any kind with the Y. M. C. A. They are to be instructional and educational in nature. One of the most popular of former years has been the trip to the Cherry City Baking company where the boys are always given a treat.
The schedule as outlined to date, is as follows:
Tuesday: meet at the "Y" at 8:45 a. m., to the telephone company (in charge of Mr. Collins), to the Supreme court at 9:45 (in charge of Judge Rossman), to the Valley Packing company at 10:30 (in charge of Curtis Cross)—meet at the "Y" at 6:30 p. m., to the Cherry City Baking company. The total number of boys making the baking company trip last year were 225. Mr. Adams announces that all boys must meet at the "Y" for this trip if they expect to be admitted at the baking company plant.
Wednesday: meet at the "Y" at 8:45 a. m., to the state house at 9 (in charge of Hal E. Hoss), to the Salem Linn Mills at 10:30 (in charge of Mr. Gilbrath).
Thursday: meet at the "Y" at 9 a. m. The group will be divided into equal parts one of which will attend the penitentiary (in charge of Mr. Lewis) and the other the

Under the Occurrences and Gossip at the center of Oregon's state government

Dome...
TODAY is the last of Long Weekend No. 1 for state officials and employees. Just four days of work next week, and then for Long Weekend No. 2. In the interim there probably will be little of importance transacted—that is little which would make news. But major administrative programs are expected to be resumed with the new year.
According to schedule this coming week will be the last one for the administration of Governor Willard L. Marks. Governor Julius L. Meier is expected back at the capitol Monday, January 4. The president of the senate is making a fine executive, and according to Miss Walton, is a "perfect sub for Meier."
To those who know Marks, this is not at all surprising. Marks said the beginning of the month that he would carry on the policies of the elected official as a substitute and he has done that well. He has not put off any decisions other than those affecting issues in which Meier was personally interested.
The new governor has been at the capitol virtually every day since Meier left Oregon for Kay Woolen mills, and in reverse order.

Mrs. Mary Olson Dies, Silvertown; Funeral Monday

SILVERTOWN, Dec. 26 — Mrs. Mary Olson, 72, died here on the morning of Christmas. Her funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from the Jack and Ekman chapel. Interment will be made at the Canby cemetery.
Mrs. Olson came here six weeks ago for a visit and died at the home of Mrs. Scott at 502 North Second street. Her home was at Forest Grove. She is survived by the following children, Mrs. Ole Moon, Thief River Falls, Minn.; Mrs. George Jenney, Dearlock, Ontario; Mrs. J. O. Balkan and Ulysses Olson, Los Angeles; Peter Furlie, Forrest Grove; Helmer Olson, Oregon City; Gearhardt Olson, Cornelius, Oregon; John J. Olson, Silvertown. One brother, Iver Johnson of Iowa, also survives.
Born in Berlin, Germany, in 1861, Mr. Gohrke was married and came to the United States in 1882 settling in Illinois and Wisconsin and finally coming to Dallas in 1903 where he operated a feed store until 1916.
Mr. Gohrke is survived by his widow, Carrie Gohrke; his sons, Louis H., of Salem, George R., of Alturas, Calif., Edward H., of Portland, and Ray, of Dallas; his daughters, Mrs. Paula E. Moore, of Salt Lake City, and Mrs. George Boyer of Warrenton, Oregon; and by eight grandchildren.
The body is in charge of the Henkle & Thomas mortuary. Funeral arrangements are to be announced later.

Valsetz People Spend Holidays In Varied Ways

VALSETZ, Dec. 26 — Mrs. Ted Davis, and daughter Lillian, were visitors in Dallas, Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rudy, and two children, Betty and Martin Jr., will leave Thursday to spend the Christmas vacation in Portland with Mrs. Rudy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ott.
Juanita Powell, of Salem is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Powell, for the Christmas vacation.
