

CHURCH GROUPS HOLD SESSIONS

Leaguers Enjoy Party; Special Meeting Gets Attention at Turner

TURNER, Jan. 2 — The Epworth League held an enjoyable Epworth League party at the Methodist parsonage Thursday evening, closing with a short midnight watch service at the church, led by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Burgoine.

Games were played during the forepart of the evening and refreshments served. Owing to much sickness the guest list was small. Those present were Roy and Mrs. W. S. Burgoine and daughter Ruth, Miss Lillian Peterson, Miss Gladys Hale, Miss Dorothy Standley, Messrs. Alvin and Glenn Garner, Walter Peterson, Albert Jensen, Kenneth and Willard Bear, Earl Standley, Jack Bothwell, Robert and Henry Hatfield.

The special meetings being held at the Christian church has increased in attendance each night. Rev. Walter Strand, evangelist, preached Thursday evening. Miss Bernice Souder, an artist, adds much interest to the song service by her illustrations in musical numbers. Young people from the Christian church of Mill City and a church orchestra from Albany were at Friday night's meeting. The Sunday school hopes to have an enrollment Sunday of 90. The pastor, Rev. E. J. Giltrap, and 13 of the Christian Endeavorers went to Salem after the Thursday night service to join the county C. E. watch night service held at the Bungalow Christian church.

Illness Reported

Mrs. Susan Caplinger is seriously ill with pneumonia and is taken to a Salem hospital Thursday evening. Mrs. Caplinger has been employed at the H. P. Jensen home.

Mrs. Betty Leggett is ill at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sarah M. Hale. Mrs. Leggett is over 92 years old. She came from Arkansas by herself over a year ago to make her home in Oregon. The Turner town team beat Gates 30-20 on the home floor Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Farris have recently moved into their newly remodeled home. Their house was badly damaged by fire in the early fall. They planned a family dinner for Sunday. Covers were laid for W. C. Farris of West Fir, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Farris and sons Marvin and Elwin, Leonard Farris of Wren, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McLaughlin of Monmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Farris and sons Lyle and Lyle of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farris and children Velma, Frank, Jr., and Donald of Dallas.

STAYTON MATRON DIES AFTER BURN

STAYTON, Jan. 2 — Lucy L. Smith died at the Stayton hospital shortly before noon today. About two weeks ago she burned her hand. An infection developed and on New Year's day she was taken to the hospital where the member was removed. However gangrene had developed and her death was the result.

She was 50 years old on Christmas day, and the wife of Paul F. Smith, depot agent at Lyons, where they had resided for the past two years. Before coming to Lyons they lived at Rickreall for a short time and before that were at Shelburn for about four years, until the railroad closed their office there.

Besides her husband she is survived by a brother, a niece and nephew in the east. Funeral services will be held at the Weddie chapel here on Tuesday at 2 p. m. conducted by the Eastern Star lodge and interment will be in the Miller cemetery at Shelburn.

CONCERNS TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETINGS

STAYTON, Jan. 2 — The Stayton Mutual telephone company will hold their annual meeting at the Bank of Stayton on Monday evening, January 4, at 7:30, for the purpose of electing president, vice president, secretary-treasurer and one director, and attending to such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

The Stayton cannery has issued notices to all their stockholders of the annual meeting which will be held at the Forester hall at 1:30 p. m. on Monday, January 11. This meeting will be held for the transaction of such business as may come before it, including the election of directors for the ensuing year and hearing the report of the manager, officers and auditing committee.

ORGANIZE CO-OP

BAKER — A cooperative live-stock shipping association for Baker county is being promoted by granges of the county. The move for such an organization was proposed by the McEwan grange and was approved at a recent meeting of the county grange. Committees have been appointed in each of the subordinate granges in ascertaining the feasibility of such an association and perfecting its organization if found desirable.

DEFINITE PROGRAM

TOLEDO — A definite program of dairy improvement was adopted by the executive committee of the newly organized Lincoln County Dairymen's association at a recent meeting here. Among the projects designated to receive special emphasis during the coming year are stabilization of butterfat prices, the defeat of the oleo-margarine referendum, and increased dairy club work.

Women Striving to Outdo Men in Rivalry Contest At Community of Labish

LABISH CENTER, Jan. 2 — Rehearsals are being held thrice weekly by the cast of women in the two-act stage revue which will be presented the evening of January 12 at the monthly community club meeting. The revue is built upon a "sea-shore" and "camp-fire" idea, and is being coached by Mrs. Horace Bibby and Mrs. Harry Bennett. The feature is the women's program in the revue, which is a rivalry contest between the ladies and men of the community.

Following the meeting on January 12, the club will meet the first Friday of the month instead of the second Tuesday. Naomi and Erna Hornschuch, Bernadene Daugherty, Valmer Klampe, Rudolph de Vries, Frances Klampe, P. G. Bischoff, and Grace Klampe attended the county C. E. watch service in Salem Thursday evening. They report

CHECKS MAILED TO REPAY SUIT COSTS

DALLAS, Jan. 2 — James Mott, state corporation commissioner will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Dallas chamber of commerce, Wednesday evening, January 6.

Dinner will be served to the members at 6:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, with Mrs. C. W. Henkle in charge of the arrangements.

The report of W. S. Muir, president for the past year will be given and that of the secretary, Charles N. Bilyeu. The vote of directors will be announced and officers elected from this group.

A tentative budget for 1932 will also be submitted to the members by Dr. W. L. Pemberton, chairman for the past year. This is being done, since repayment of $1915.00 borrowed to pay the judgment brought against a number of local men following the highway injunction suit of several years ago, has been assumed by the chamber of commerce. Checks were mailed out to the signers of the suit by the secretary the day before New Year's, to reimburse them for the amount.

Two of the signers made an outright contribution of the $15 cost each signer. Independence signers are taking care of their share of the cost.

WOMEN WORK FOR HEALTH PROJECT

BRUSH COLLEGE, Jan. 2 — A large group of Brush College grangers and taxpayers attended the all day session of the Polk county court when the budget for the year was made up. They reported favorably on all measures voted on.

The women in the party, who represented various local clubs which have membership in the federation of rural women's clubs of Polk county were present in the interests of the county health nurse which project the federation is sponsoring.

Included in the group from here were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarter, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ewing, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glaze, Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, Mrs. A. E. Utley, P. C. Ewing, Burt Oliver, W. N. Stoddard, Paul Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Whitner, Worth Henry, W. D. Henry, Jesse Walling, T. J. Merrick, Mrs. Ferdinand Allen, L. Grice and son Ammon and James P. Smart.

There will be no regular meeting of the Brush college community club this month because of the Christmas holidays.

The coming meeting of the Brush College helpers will be held at the home of Mrs. A. R. Ewing, Thursday, Mrs. Maie Flint McCall, state grange lecturer, plans to be present and tell of her trip to national grange at Madison, Wisconsin recently.

Florian Hrubetz is Elected to Rho Chi Pharmacy Honorary

LIBERTY, Jan. 2 — Miss Florian Hrubetz, senior in pharmacy at Oregon State college, has recently been elected to membership in Rho Chi, national honorary fraternity of pharmacy.

Miss Hrubetz is also vice president of the college pharmaceutical association. While attending college she makes her home at the Kappa Delta sorority house, being a member of that organization. Miss Hrubetz will resume her studies at Corvallis this week.

Mrs. Myrtle Sheldon, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ray Cleveland, left for her home in Mt. Shasta, Calif. Her son Leonard Graybill will also start back on Monday.

FAMILY GROUPS GIVE PROGRAM

Platform may be Built by Community Club for School at Swegle

SWEGLE, Jan. 2 — The Swegle Community club held its regular meeting Jan. 1 at the school house. It was well attended. The president, J. Whitehead, gave a general review of the work accomplished during the two years of the club's existence and outlined some of the work for the coming year.

The first to be taken up was the building of a platform for the school. A committee was appointed to do this.

Members are Emil Thoma, Wm. Kroepflin and P. Roberts. A general cleanup of the school grounds was discussed and volunteer members to work on a committee were, John Whitehead, George Rostykus, O. P. Bond, R. A. West, Wm. Kroepflin, E. Thoma and John Marshall.

The next program will be an all-man program both for entertainment and refreshments. Carl Hoffman was appointed on the entertainment committee and Mr. Swingle, Mr. Griffin and Al Meyers on the eats.

A delightful program followed with every family responsible. It follows: Reading by Mrs. F. Roberts; Ruth West and H. Mertz, xylophone solo; O. P. Bond, story; Ruby West and Lucile Roberts, piano duet; Margaret Hemphill, reading; Mrs. Geo. Rostykus, story; Emil Thoma, watch party; R. A. West, fish story; J. Marshall, violin, Wm. Kroepflin at the piano.

Joe Bedient, reading; Mary and Howard Whitehead, reading; Clara Mae and Clayton Dalke, Lillian and Lester Meyers, quartette, with Miss Lana Siebens at the piano; Mrs. Albert Kline, song and dance, accompanied by her sister on a mouth organ; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kroepflin, piano and violin; Lucile Turner, reading; Doris Giffen, story; Miss Lana Siebens and group of girls, song; Seguin girls, song; Margaret Hemphill and Howard Whitehead, dance.

The Farmers' Union of Marion county will hold an all-day meeting at Swegle school Jan. 9. A general business discussion is to be the main object of this meeting. A potluck dinner will be served at noon.

New Bell Has First Use at End of Year

HAZEL GREEN, Jan. 2 — Games were arranged for the Watch Night meeting by a committee from Christian Endeavor, Kenneth Barnett and Miss Iola Luckey. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward Dunnigan, Jr., Miss Ruby Woodward and Mrs. G. O. Loomis, Victor Point. The evening was spent in playing "500".

Watch Night Parties Are Many For Various Groups Of Normal School Center

MONMOUTH, Jan. 2 — Many "watch" parties were held in Monmouth to observe the advent of 1933, the largest gatherings being held in the various churches.

At the Christian church nearly 100 people assembled for a potluck dinner at 7 o'clock. A devotional meeting followed, after which the annual brotherhood and business sessions were held. Mrs. F. E. Chambers was elected Sunday school superintendent for the new year; and Mrs. Florence Biers Chapman was re-elected Sunday school song leader and director of the church choir.

A program of entertainment included these numbers: vocal duet, Miss Ruth and Miss Lora Parker, accompanied by Miss Lora Prissell. A humorous monologue by Kenneth Mulkey; and vocal solo by Carol Chambers preceded a reading from O. Henry, and a New Year's talk given by Mrs. D. A. Hoag.

Mrs. R. D. Elliott gave two musical readings, accompanying herself once, and with piano accompaniment by her son Warren for the other.

A vocal solo by Mrs. F. E. Chambers and another by Margery Chambers were each accompanied by Harriet Rosalie Chambers. Edson Riddell was heard in two vocal numbers with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Victor P. Morris. Warran Elliott and Betty Lour Elliott each gave piano numbers. A session of lively games interspersed the music. Group singing ushered in the new year.

The Evangelical church congregation, numbering about 60, gathered for a 6:30 potluck dinner New Year's eve in the social rooms of the church. The annual business meeting and election of officers included: trustees: E. A. Stobbs and T. Edwards; Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. L. L. Hockett, assistant, Mrs. B. E. Sellers; secretary, Helen Sailer; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Petrie; class leader, Miss Lula Martin; assistant, A. N. Poole; church clerk, Mrs. E. K. Barnes; chorister, Dorothy Bork.

A social hour was enjoyed until midnight under direction of Mrs. B. E. Sellers. Group singing ushered in the new year.

The Baptist church congregation had an hour of Bible study led by Miss Edith Clark as the opening devotional of their New Year's eve watch party.

A social hour followed with games directed by Mrs. S. C. Williamson. Rev. F. C. Stannard presided over the latter half of the evening, when a supper was served at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conkey were hosts at a watch party last night, with bridge as the evening's diversion. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petrie, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kerr, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl DeArmond. High scores went to Mrs. Larson and Mr. Kerr.

Rev. S. A. Long, singing, and address by the pastor followed by ringing out the old and ringing in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

The bell was moved Thursday afternoon by Clifton Clemens and Guy Allen Looney. It will be rung out the old and rung in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

The bell was moved Thursday afternoon by Clifton Clemens and Guy Allen Looney. It will be rung out the old and rung in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

The bell was moved Thursday afternoon by Clifton Clemens and Guy Allen Looney. It will be rung out the old and rung in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

The bell was moved Thursday afternoon by Clifton Clemens and Guy Allen Looney. It will be rung out the old and rung in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

The bell was moved Thursday afternoon by Clifton Clemens and Guy Allen Looney. It will be rung out the old and rung in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

The bell was moved Thursday afternoon by Clifton Clemens and Guy Allen Looney. It will be rung out the old and rung in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

The bell was moved Thursday afternoon by Clifton Clemens and Guy Allen Looney. It will be rung out the old and rung in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

The bell was moved Thursday afternoon by Clifton Clemens and Guy Allen Looney. It will be rung out the old and rung in the new year with the bell from the Central Howell church recently given the church by Dr. Arthur Simmons of Silverton and his brother Eugene.

GRANGE OBSERVES NEW YEAR'S DAY

MONMOUTH, Jan. 2 — The annual New Year's day dinner of Monmouth grange was observed with more than 100 members and their guests present. Long tables were set lengthwise in the dining room, decorated attractively in seasonal colors and foliage.

George Kurra, master, presided. At the program of entertainment following the dinner, Mrs. W. J. Stockholm presided. For the opening numbers Mrs. R. D. Elliott played a selection of Chopin on the piano; and gave a musical reading, "How the Elephant Got Its Trunk."

Jimmy Riddell gave a short reading; Charles Parker and June Craven sang two duets, "The Little Old Church in the Valley," and "Goodnight Sweetheart," with piano accompaniment by Frances Friswell.

Speakers for the occasion were Grove A. Peterson and W. J. Stockholm. Mr. Peterson's topic was Optimism and Pessimism; and Mr. Stockholm spoke on Citizenship. Group singing completed the program offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Fulkerson of Salem were New Year's day guests at the home of Mrs. Sarah Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stowell.

Mrs. Elbert Peterson of Martinez, Cal., and Mrs. L. Kerns of Yelm, Wash., are holiday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Keeney. Mrs. Kerns was formerly employed in the office of the registrar of the Oregon Normal school.

Initial Dance For About a Year Held For Valseltz People

VALSETZ, Jan. 2 — The first dance here in nearly a year, drew a big crowd. It was held in the Community hall Thursday night, and sponsored by Miss Juanita Powell, a Portland dancing teacher.

Music was furnished by Walter Raymond and Miss A. Davis, also a dancer from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heydon entertained New Year's eve with a card party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Thomas of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Grout of Portland, Mrs. Walter Raymond and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Heydon.

FAMILY DINNER

HAZEL GREEN, Jan. 2 — N. P. Williamson and daughter Miss Carolyn and son Victor, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williamson and son Alois were guests to a family dinner given by son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klober of West Salem New Year's day. Other members of family present were, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burns, nee Rosalie Williamson, and Miss Bertha Williamson of Salem.

GRIMM IN PORTLAND

LINCOLN — C. C. Grimm, proprietor of the Lincoln store, returned Tuesday from a two days' trip to Portland, where he attended the last concert of the season for the Symphony orchestra.

Why?

Why is our new location like prosperity?

Because it's "just around the corner" — at 333 State Street.

THOMPSON-GLUTSCH OPTOMETRIST 110 N. COMMERCIAL ST.

"From the harem of Sultan Ali Sabasta -- the Solomon of the Sahara"

. . . it cost eleven lives to extricate her from the toils of her craven keeper . . . so loath was he to part with this priceless pearl!

but here she is, folks!—see her dance, that daring dance of the desert! . . . for one quarter, a fourth part of a dollar—step right up and bring the children, ten cents!

the claims of certain stores are just as improbable as the gab of this side show barker — there are fabulous stories of manufacturers' cooperation — sacrifices — 2 suits for the price of one: high sounding phrases and cheap merchandise.

don't be a victim of these misrepresentations — be sure of the merits of what you buy. you want good merchandise at a low price, of course, but you don't want cheap merchandise at any price.

how can you be confident of getting your full money's worth?

buy from a shop that never compromised quality to meet a price.

watch for our announcement in tuesday's paper

the man's shop

fashions for men

410 state salem

Watta SALE

FLORSHEIM SHOES

MOST STYLES $7.85

Never before could you purchase today's Florsheim quality at so low a price. Buy now.

Florsheim Shoe Shop

FOUR TWENTY SIX STATE STREET