

Lodge and Club Installations Will Hold Limelight This Week

Many Officers for New Year Will be Installed This Week

ONE characteristic of lodge and club activities for the first of the new year of the new year is the installation programs which come as outstanding affairs of the organization year.

This week will be showered with such affairs. In fact the first organization to install in January was the Woman's Relief corps, which placed its officers in office Saturday afternoon in the regular meeting at Miller's hall. Mrs. Jennie F. B. Jones acted as the installing officer. Her assistants were Besie Martin, conductor; Mary Entress, musician; Ida Traglio, Louis King, Rose Voris, and Nellie Pierce, color bearers.

Officers installed were Hattie B. Cameron, president;

Mary M. Wirts, senior vice president; Florence E. Shipp, junior vice president; Laura B. McAdams, treasurer; Clara T. Adams, chaplain; Fannie M. Chittenden, conductor; Bertha Loveland, guard; Cordelia LaBare, who was not present will be installed as assistant conductor at a later date.

Hal Hibbard camp and its auxiliary will start the week of installation program with a joint ceremony Monday night in the armory, beginning at 8 o'clock. Department senior vice conductor, Leslie R. Hale and department president, Mrs. Harriett Sawyer both of Portland, will act as installing officers.

Mark Baker will be installed as commander of the camp and Ethel Welch will take the office of president of auxiliary.

Two organizations will install Tuesday. The American War Mothers will install officers and plan for the work of the coming year at the regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the social rooms of the American Lutheran church. Mrs. A. A. Lee, retiring president, will be the installing officer.

Nellie Pierce, was installed as assistant guard, Mary B. Lickel, secretary; Louis King, patriotic instructor; Jennie F. B. Jones, press correspondent; Jessie Crossan, musician; color bearers, Della Clearwater, Lulu Borling, Rose Voris, and Mary Kennedy.

Short talks were made by Mrs. E. E. Bergman, department president of the Daughters of Civil War Veterans, Mrs. Mabel Gardner, president elect of the Daughters of Civil War Veterans; Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, state president of the American War Mothers, and Mrs. Elizabeth Waters, president elect of the American War Mothers chapter of Salem.

Mrs. Hattie Cameron, who succeeded herself as president, presented Mrs. Jones, the installing officer with an arm bouquet of flowers.

Officers to take their places are Mrs. Elizabeth Water, president; Mrs. Mae Meyers, vice president; Mrs. Amanda McInnon, recording secretary; Mrs. A. S. Shiff, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Littlefield, treasurer; Mrs. Jennie Vincent, custodian of records; Mrs. Addie Curtis, historian; Mrs. Mattilda Nason, auditor; Mrs. Rose Hagedorn, chaplain.

The day evening Chadwick chapter of the Order of Eastern Star will install its officers. Mrs. A. C. Smith, retiring worthy matron, and J. C. Russell, retiring worthy patron, will act as installing officers. Mrs. Wayne Henry will be installed as worthy matron and H. S. Bradford will be installed as worthy patron.

An impressive musical program and a new feature will be introduced into this impressive and beautiful ceremony of Chadwick chapter.

Mrs. E. E. Bergman, state president of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, will install the 1932 officers for Barbara Frichele tent of Salem, at a meeting to be held Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Woman's club building. Visitors from tents in Covallis, Albany and Portland are expected to attend the ceremonies.

Elective officers to be installed are Mabel Gardner, president; Eulena Bates, senior vice-president; Margaret Ringle, junior vice-president; Margaret Ringle, junior vice-president; Jennie Miller, treasurer; Rose Garrett, chaplain; Kathryn Brown, patriotic instructor; and Nellie H. Thampson, council members.

Appointive officers will be announced and installed the same evening.

Mrs. Ethel Phelps entertained for her students in music at her studio Saturday night. Among those who attended were Verne and David Scott, Marjorie Timms, Gordon Tucker, Ruth Starrett, Genevieve Scharf, Jean Donaldson, June and Adella Lienkaemper, Jean Adams, Opal Stewart, Marjorie Keethly, Earl Keethly, Bernadine Dougherty, Phyllis Gardner, Bert Childs, Dale Shepherd, Dorothy Shepherd, Barbara Gesner, Betty Eyerly, Lorraine Kidd, Delbert Seegar, Beulah Gerig, Bessie Tucker, Dorothy Tucker, Anona Welch and Elizabeth Welch.

Salem Maids Enjoy Eastern Christmas

Miss Josephine Albert and Miss Rosalind Winkle who are spending the winter in New York City, spent part of the Christmas holidays with Miss Thelma Davis, also of Salem, who is spending the winter in study in Philadelphia.

Miss Albert spent Christmas day in New York. She sang as a guest of the Volunteers of America in one of their Christmas services on the Bowery. Christmas night Miss Albert had dinner with Rev. and Mrs. Phillips Elliott, the former of whom is son of Rev. and Mrs. Carl Elliott, formerly of Salem. The younger Rev. Elliott is now co-pastor of the First Presbyterian church of New York City. The elder Rev. Elliott has just been called to a pastorate at Birmingham, N. Y.

Christmas night Miss Albert called the Albert home in Salem by telephone from the Elliott residence. She also sang second time over W. N. Y. C., New York radio station.

Judge I. H. Van Winkle has just returned from the east at which time he visited Miss Van Winkle and Miss Albert in New York. He went to Washington, D. C., on business, and Miss Van Winkle met him there and together they returned to New York City.

According to word from Miss Albert, Miss Davis will visit Miss Albert and Miss Van Winkle January 6 at which time the national automobile show will be in progress in New York City.

Dean Hewitt Will Address Woman's club

The Salem Woman's club will meet Saturday for its first meeting of the new year. Only one meeting was held by the club in December.

The Saturday meeting will be prefaced by a board meeting and general business meeting and then Dean R. P. Hewitt of Willamette school of business will address the club on "What Can I Do in Crime Prevention?"

Mrs. C. C. Clark, chairman of the department of American Citizenship, will introduce the speaker.

Miss Barbara Jones, bride-elect, was complimented with a surprise shower at the home of Mrs. J. A. Rains recently. This was one of the most successful affairs which are complimenting Miss Jones before her marriage. Music formed a feature of the evening as well as the presenting of many presents. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Guests included Miss Jones and Arthur M. Jones, Mrs. C. N. Ruggles, Mrs. R. C. Cartwright, Mrs. Roger Lambert, Mrs. Edward Dencer, Mrs. Roy Farrand, Mrs. Lester Rains, Mrs. Roy Coffee, Mrs. Henry Nelman, Mrs. W. W. Bellamy, Misses Venita and Verda Rains, Miss Beverly Jones, Miss Elsie Davis, Mrs. Jessie Rains and the hostess, Mrs. J. R. Rains.

Miss Jane Robinson was among the many New Year's eve hostesses complimenting a number of her friends with a unique and amusing party at the Walter Robinson home. Guests were Miss Alice Speck Miss Jermie Upston, Miss Daisy Varley, Miss Betty Stewart, Miss Josephine Conroyer, Miss Katherine Headrick, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Edna Savage, Ralph Stearns, Win Jenks, Wayne Doughton, Luther Doughton, Bob Burdette, James Sehon, Thomas Billingsley and Irwin Edwards.

Girl Scout National Officer to be Here

Of interest to any person interested in working with the organization of young girls into active groups for the accomplishment of various aims will be the announcement of the classes for the instruction of leaders to be given by Miss Thelma Mellick, member of the National Girl Scout committee.

Miss Mellick comes from San Francisco. She will hold classes January 7 and 8 in the chamber of commerce rooms. Thursday the hours will be 2 o'clock in the afternoon and again at 7 o'clock in the evening. Friday hours have not yet been set.

This national leader was here two years ago and her classes were vitally interesting, according to those who attended. All interested in either Girl Scout leadership work or any other leadership work will be given at a later date.

An attractive watch party was enjoyed by members of the senior high school class of the First Baptist church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. King. Games and a midnight supper made a delightful evening for Maxine Menis, Viva Hall, Ruby Pace, Gertrude DeVoe, Jean Peterson, Lowell Wright, Harry Hall, Bob Parker, Rennie Otjen, Emil Otjen and Howard King.

To the left we present Miss Helen Prang, popular member of the musical and school circles of Salem who has just announced her engagement. Center is three year old Suzanne Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brazier Small, who looks forward into the new year with all the faith and anticipation necessary to make a grand year.

Conference Delegates Named

THE Saturday luncheon for Chemeketa chapter of the D. A. R. and the Past Regent club of the D. A. R. which was held at the Elks club proved to be altogether a delightful and successful affair. This is the first of a series of luncheons planned for the regular monthly meetings of the chapter and at which times the Washington bicentennial program of the order is being brought forward.

The Past Regents held their regular luncheon meeting in connection with Chemeketa chapter and were seated at a separate table. Covers were placed for Mrs. Seymour Jones who presided as president of the Regent in place of Mrs. Russell Callin who is now in California, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mrs. J. E. Sibley, Mrs. C. D. Sunburg, all three of Dallas; Mrs. J. G. Heitzel, Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. W. F. Fargo.

The chapter members were seated at small tables, which were centered with Oregon grape. The Regent table was arranged with a fruit centerpiece. Mrs. H. T. Love, vice regent, had charge of the plans for the luncheon and the arrangement of the tables.

At the business meeting which followed the luncheon, delegates were elected to represent Chemeketa chapter at the conference of the state D. A. R. which will be held in Portland sometime in March.

Delegates are Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Frank Settlemier of Woodburn, Mrs. LaMoine Clark, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. W. B. Johnson, Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell, and Mrs. C. A. Sprague.

Alternates were Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. John Orr, Mrs. F. E. Sherwin, Mrs. Gladys Ellison, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. John Carlin, Mrs. R. G. Baldersee, Mrs. Frances Cornell, Mrs. W. C. Conner, and Mrs. V. E. Newcomb.

The meeting was closed with the first Washington bicentennial program. Mrs. Seymour Jones in a talk concerning the family name of Washington and Mrs. Sprague who took up the discussion with the family of Washington and his descendant, gave the complete and interesting program. Group singing led by Mrs. LaMoine Clark with Mrs. Herbert Ostlund at the piano completed the program.

Birthday Party Honors John Marr, Jr.

Mrs. John Marr, Jr., entertained Saturday night in compliment to the birthday of her husband with an informal party in the Marr residence. Games, conversation and several hours of "rook" entertained the guests until a late hour when refreshments were served and a birthday cake was cut.

Those invited in compliment to Mr. Marr were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Klezling, Mr. and Mrs. Bryson Lausch, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Masters, Dr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McMillin, Prof. and Mrs. Cecil Monk, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Odum, Prof. and Mrs. Herbert Rabe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Volght, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Welling.

Mrs. Margaret Camp of Salem, Ohio, will be the guest of Mrs. C. B. McElhenny for several weeks left Friday en route home. She will spend the winter with her daughter in Phoenix, Arizona, before returning to Ohio.

Engagement Tea Smart Event Sacred Heart Academy Will Sponsor Annual Benefit Thursday

THE announcement of the engagement of Gwendolyn Jarman Stoliker to Francis Augustin Burgoyne Pendleton and Portland, was made Saturday at the Jarman home on South High street at a smart affair for which Mrs. D. B. Jarman and her daughter entertained between the hours of 3 to 5:30 o'clock.

An artistic arrangement of chrysantheums gave added beauty to the beautiful rooms of the Spanish home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman. Mrs. Jarman in a striking gown of black and white satin, received with Mrs. Stoliker who was gowned in a Persian rose taffety.

Mrs. Frits Slade, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. Joe Chambers, Jr., and Mrs. Percy Cupper assisted about the rooms. Mrs. Kittie Graver, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. William Walton, and Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., presided at the beautifully appointed tea table.

Goodall of Oregon City; Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville; Mrs. Oakley Lawther and Mrs. Joseph Jerome King, Sr., of Portland; Mrs. C. E. Spence and Miss Wilma Spence of Albany, and Mrs. Raymond Walsh of Eugene.

Medical Auxiliary To Meet Tuesday

The auxiliary to the Tri-County Medical society will meet Tuesday evening for dinner at the Market Coffee shop. Plans will be discussed for the activities of spring.

Following the business meeting and dinner hour the group will be the guests of Mrs. Burton Myers at her home. A feature of the informal social meeting at the Myers home will be a talk by Mrs. W. Carlton, president of the Salem chapter of the Greater Oregon association.

Mrs. Burton Myers is president of the Tri-County Medical society auxiliary.

Miss Ruth Moore entertained with a jolly New Year's eve party at her home in compliment to her bridge club and a few additional guests. Dinner and bridge preceded the midnight hour at which time an exchange of "white elephant" gifts made a novel feature.

Spring Conference Date to be Set

Miss Theresa Ulrich has called a meeting of the planning committee for the girls' work conference which will meet in Salem this spring and which will bring delegates from the Pacific northwest to the city in numbers, to meet in Portland Saturday afternoon. Representatives will come to the Portland meeting from southern Washington, Oregon and Idaho. At this time the date will be set for the spring meeting and plans will be made for the entertainment of the conference delegates.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Elizabeth K. Gallaher will meet advisors for the Girl Reserve groups in the Y. W. C. A. rooms of Eaton hall, Willamette university. Plans will be made for the spring work of the Reserves.

Dinner Party Honors Young Men

Mrs. H. K. Stockwell entertained with an attractive 6:30 o'clock dinner party in compliment to Donald Stockwell Saturday evening at the Stockwell home on Fairmount hill.

Following the dinner the guests were entertained with a line party and informal social evening.

'Open House' Is Unique Plan

ONE of the anticipated affairs for the coming days is the "at home" for which Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton will be hosts at the old Patton home on Court street Sunday, January 3.

This will be the 60th birthday of Mr. Patton. Mr. Patton observed his 50th birthday with a large banquet but this time he is inviting through the press all his friends of long years past, especially the pioneer friends, to call informally to greet him and to greet each other and renew friendships of other years.

The affair will be completely informal. The hours are between 4 and 10 o'clock Sunday, January 3. Those who will assist Mr. and Mrs. Patton will be chosen from the older circle of the friends of Mr. Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Flack were hosts for a charming dinner party at their home on Kingwood Heights Friday night. Covers were placed for Judge and Mrs. George Rossman, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Flack.
