250 GRANGERS AT GATHERING

Six Groups Represented at Joint Installation at Silverton

SILVERTON, Jan. 4—One of the biggest grange affairs ever held at Silverton was that of Saturday night when six granges gathered here for installation. The six granges, numbering 250 people, were Silverton, Silverton Hills, North Howell, Scotts Mills, Macleay and Union Hill.

After the opening ceremony and the addresses of welcome by Otto Dahl and Mayor Eastman, the installation ceremony took place. This was particularly well taken care of by Mrs. L. S. Lambert and her assistants. Mrs. Lambert is from the Stayton grange. Those assisting her were Helen Weisner of North Howell; regalia bearer, Mrs. J. C. Krenz of Union Hill; emblem bearer, Mrs. Rena Tate, Stayton; chaplain, Anna Hadley, Silverton Hills; musician, Ethel Fletcher, Salem; soloist, Mrs. W. F. Krenz, Union Hill.

Edwin Overlund, new master of the Silverton grange, gave a short talk and presented Mrs. Lambert and her assistants with flowers.

Numbers on the program were a musical number of Lucile Waltman and Doris Rickards of North Powell; group of yodeling numbers by Elvin Almquist of Silverton. Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, state lecturer, was present and gave an interesting talk of her visit to the national grange meeting held at Madison, Wis.

Grange masters installed for the different granges were Silverton Hills, Oscar Loe; North Howell, Mrs. T. Cline; Scotts Mills, George Haynes; Macleay, H. E. Martin; Union Hill, J. O. Darby.

Silverton's officers installed Saturday night were master, Edwin Overlund; overseer, Chauncy Bowen; lecturer, Alta Haberly; steward, Otto O. Dahl; assistant steward, Lewis Hall; chaplain, Karl Haberly; secretary-treasurer, C. H. Behrends; gate keeper, Theodore Grace; Ceres, Elsie Weigle; Pamona, Alta Hall; Flora, Henrietta Loe; lady assistant steward, Edith Grace.

Following the program the home economics committees served supper and this was followed by a social hour.

Latest word from Roseburg is that Earl Branson, who was operated upon there for appendicitis Tuesday, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harold are the parents of twin girls, born Saturday night. They weighed 5½ pounds each.

STUDENTS RETURN TO RURAL SCHOOLS

WALDO HILLS, Jan. 4.—Centerview and Evergreen schools opened Monday after a 12-day vacation. Edna Mae Goodknecht returned to her teaching at Mountainer View near Silverton, Roger Comstock left late Sunday for Eugene where he is a sophomore at the university. Ardis Egan left by motor early Saturday morning for San Jose, Cal., where he is employed and will also attend school.

Ruth Rue, R.N., was called to Silverton Thursday afternoon to care for the senior Mrs. Baller, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones and daughter Althea of Monmouth came over to the New Year's eve dance, then spent the night at the home of Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. Frank Egan. New Year's day the two families were at Union Hill at the home of a brother, Charles Morley. The Jones family spent the rest of the week with Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. E. J. Morley. Sunday a sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Greenberg of Portland, drove up and they and the Egans drove to Mrs. Morley's.

Guests New Year's day at the William Haevernick home were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Haevernick and small son Byron of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dickman and family of Silverton.

SPEAKING OF GOOD SCOUTS

A new honor was conferred upon the wielder of the gavel when Scoutmaster John K. Early, of Troop 80, bestowed the insignia emblematic of honorary membership in the Boy Scouts of America, upon Representative John N. Garner, of Texas, Speaker of the House of Representatives. The noted statesman considered it a great honor to be voted a "Good Scout" by the youth of the nation.

Dayton School District Takes Action for Union On New Angle; Island Out

GRAND ISLAND, Jan. 4. — Due to the fact that the present high school unionizing program of the Dayton school district No. 28 which has been launched for the past year will undoubtedly continue to be held up for months to come, the Dayton school district has taken action from another angle. Saturday following the hearing of judge's decision which was given Thursday, December 24, six school districts, including Unionvale, Pleasantdale, Webfoot, Unity, Pairie and Dayton, filed petitions with the district boundary board asking that these districts be united for high school purposes. This plan omits Wheatland, district No. 20 and Grand Island, No. 94, the two districts over which has been made all of the disturbances in the Amity and Dayton former unionizing programs.

The hearing on Dayton's second plan will be held by the district boundary board in the county courthouse in McMinnville at 10:30 a. m. January 30. Any remonstrances against the formation of the said union high school will be filed with the district boundary board in the office of the county school superintendent at any time prior to the day and hour set for the hearing on said petitions.

Repair Furnace

The school board, which includes E. A. Lefley, Worth Wiley and Roy E. Will, took advantage of the school holiday New Year's day and took out the furnace for repairing. The board installed the furnace again Sunday in readiness for the opening of school Monday morning.

Mrs. Mable Narver of Amity, who is a student in the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth, spent one day of her vacation the past week visiting the Island school. Mrs. Narver was principal of the school for two years before attending the normal. She was a dinner guest at the E. A. Lefley home the day she visited here.

Watch Party

The Mother's Circle sponsored a watch night party Thursday at the schoolhouse, in which a large crowd participated. The program and games were in charge of Mrs. Roy E. Will and Mrs. Charles A. Ferguson. Mrs. E. A. Lefley was editor of a Grand Island newspaper which contained many laughable jokes and items.

Worth Wiley, vice-president, presided at a short business meeting. The program consisted of:

Musical selections by Mr. Hill and Mr. Milford; vocal solo, Charles Nelson; reading, Ella Warren; violin solo, Ruby Hill; reading, Mrs. Pauline Fowler; song, Betty Kilpatrick; instrumental duet, Mildred and Sarella Will; reminiscence of early Grand Island history, Morton Tompkins; talk by Eber Kilpatrick, a former resident of the community; instrumental solo, Lorene Tompkins; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick; instrumental duet, Mrs. Tompkins and Lorene; Grand Island newspaper read by Mrs. Fowler.

At the close of the program the crowd was divided into two groups, 1931 and 1932 and several enjoyable contests were played. The 1931 contestants won a majority of the contests.

Just before midnight a lunch consisting of sandwiches, pie, coffee and punch was served under the supervision of the lunch committee chairman, Mrs. Will Umbanhour.

Mrs. Ewin Jennings Returns From South

PERRYDALE, Jan. 4.—Harold Stapleton enjoyed winter sports at Mt. Hood over the weekend with friends from Portland.

Mrs. Ewen Jennings has returned from a two months' stay in California with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Duignan.

Cyrus Jones of Ballston visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jones. Mr. Jones has not been enjoying good health for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Campbell spent New Year's day with Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Flanery in Corvallis.

ANNUAL EVENT AT AUMSVILLE

New Year's Program Held; Club Votes to Sponsor Community Chest

AUMSVILLE, Jan. 4.—The annual New Year's day dinner and program was given at the school house Friday and a large crowd was present. Mrs. A. E. Bradley, president, presided at the afternoon meeting. A short program was given which was composed of the following:

Song by the audience in memory of Amos Davis; piano solo by Alice Jensen, duet by Gwen Martin and Wayne Ransom and which was a request number and was dedicated to Mrs. C. A. Davis; two songs were played and sung by Mrs. Ella England of Salem and Harold Witcraft; a song by Harold Witcraft, who played his own accompaniment; comparison of an old-fashioned Christmas with that of the present time told in story form by Henry Porter; story by Mrs. T. C. Mountain; experiences of long ago, Chris Jensen, John Mix and Henry Porter. At a short business meeting it was voted to have a community chest to help the needy in this community. Material for six new dresses and a few other garments already made up are on hand which will be distributed soon. Civic conditions were also discussed but nothing definite along this line was settled.

One person from each of the different organizations has formed a community relief committee: Mrs. A. E. Bradley, chairman; Charles Martin represents the community club; Mrs. T. C. Mountain the P. T. A. and W. C. T. U.; Mrs. Susie Ransom, the Woman's club; Mrs. Jenny Wallace, the Bethel church, and Roy Porter the Christian church.

Miss Merle Martin returned to her home Friday after having spent the week in Portland at the O. S. T. A.

Miss Clara Kirkpatrick left Friday morning for her home in Albon, Idaho, where she is a teacher in the state normal school. She spent the vacation with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirkpatrick.

A watch party was given at the T. C. Mountain home Thursday night to a group of young people. A pleasant evening was spent by the Misses Virgie Bradley, Cleo Barry, Given Martin and Alice Jensen, and Leonard Lee, Harvey Snyder, George Towle, Robert Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mountain and Mrs. A. J. Mountain.

MONTHLY MEETING OF CHURCH HELD

PRATUM, Jan. 4—Misses Amanda and Ida Mitzner from Halsey, spent the weekend visiting with friends in this community.

The C. O. Sipes and H. W. de Vries families spent New Year's day with friends at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold de Vries and Olivia de Vries called on Miss Helen Mae Thompson at the Albany hospital where Miss Thompson underwent an operation for appendicitis. She is now convalescing at the home of her uncle, Dr. Dan Clark at Harrisburg.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Shattuck who recently returned from California are staying at the home of Mrs. Shattuck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Emmery.

The monthly Sunday school social and business meeting was held at the church New Year's eve. Mrs. A. L. Bowen was hostess at dinner and George Kleen, president, had charge of the business meeting.

Election of officers for the ensuing year was held with the following result: president, Mrs. Harold de Vries; vice-president, Rev. E. Rounds; secretary, A. L. Bowen; treasurer, Arthur de Vries, chorister, Ralph Kleen; pianist, Olivia de Vries.

Election was followed by a program in charge of Mrs. John Althof, consisting of several numbers by the orchestra, a dialogue by Dora and Earl Kleen, a reading by Vernon Kirk, solo, Ralph Kleen, reading, Olivia de Vries, and reading by Mrs. Elmer Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred de Vries attended the Santiam district convention at Stayton Sunday.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Albany for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stauffer.

Miss Miriam Keating from Vancouver, Wash., accompanied Ralph and Nellie Kleen to Mill City last Sunday.

LARGE PERSONNEL SUFFERS DISTRESS

LAKE LABISH, Jan. 4 — Miss Iva Curtis of the John Day Valley and Miss Alice Parfrey were four day guests of Miss Constance Weinman, remaining until Sunday. They attended the teachers' convention in Portland during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave DeGrosse have been vacationing at the coast the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schoedler, of Mount Angel, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Daniels. Mr. Daniels has just returned from the Salem General Hospital following a recent serious operation.

Unemployment continues to distress a number of local families, who have a large personnel and meagre means. Aside from an occasional job of onion topping many of them find little to do. The county road work has ceased temporarily.

WHERE MILLIONAIRE WAS BUTCHERED

Here is the scene and the victim of one of the most brutal and horrible murders ever committed in New York State. In this house at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., William J. Schatz, 55-year-old millionaire, was battered with a hammer, hacked with an axe and finally had his throat cut with a bread knife while Mrs. Florence Carozza, his guest at the house, was compelled to look on. Gentro Yama, the murdered man's servant, and his sister-in-law, Hana Yama, are held by police, who say that the Japanese has confessed he killed Schatz because the latter had discharged him.

MACLEAY GRANGERS COMMITTEES TOLD

All day Meeting Held; Several Officers Have Perfect Attendance

MACLEAY, Jan. 4.—At an all-day meeting of the grange held January 1 the executive committee was elected, standing committees appointed by Master H. E. Martin, and Dorothy Bowen was elected Flora to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. W. Frink.

The committees are: Executive, A. Bowen, W. A. Jones, J. F. C. Tekenburg; legislative, W. A. Jones, Frank Bowen, W. Frink; agricultural, A. Maden, J. Amort, H. Fuestman; home economics, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mrs. C. T. Baker, Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg; horticulture, H. Phillipps, M. M. Magee, Mrs. A. Bowen; relief, Mrs. Frank Bowers, Oscar Baker, Mrs. J. Patton. Reports showed a cash balance in the relief department and in the Home Economics club treasury.

Officers present at every meeting during the year were H. E. Martin, master; Mrs. H. E. Martin, lecturer; M. M. Magee, steward; A. Bowen, assistant steward; Eva Jones, secretary-treasurer.

At noon dinner was served at a long tible centered with red tapers, seasonal greenery and a Jerusalem cherry plant, with Mrs. W. Frink, Mrs. H. Fuestman, Mrs. Alice Patton and Dorothy Bowen in charge.

During the lecture hour talks were given by W. H. Stevens of North Howell and Mr. and Mrs. J. Richards of Stayton and a surprise miscellaneous shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hisel.

The next meeting will be held the first Friday in February at 8 p. m, with Dorothy Bowen, Margaret Magee and Dixie Jones in charge of the refreshments and Rodger Baker and Hazel Magee of the decorations.

Logging Scheduled to Start in Cascades Above Sweet Home This Month

SWEET HOME, Jan. 4—According to a report from a reliable source logging operations in the Cascade mountains district in Linn county will be started this month. Only a small crew of 100 to 125 men will be engaged at first it is stated.

Considerable work must be done on roads, and trails before logging work on a large scale can be started.

The timber will be brought to Albany through Sweet Home, over the recently constructed Oregon Electric railroad.

At the C. E. meeting Friday night officers for the coming year were chosen: Miss Frieda Wodtli, president in place of Everett Daugherty, Mrs. Rev. F. F. McClure, secretary; Mrs. Rev. G. H. Hartzell, treasurer; Margaret Corner, assistant president; Mrs. L. Muntz, pianist. This meeting followed up with election of class leader, O. Feigum; and G. L. Corner assistant.

About 25 young and older people then walked over to the church where a watch night meeting was held after the regular prayer meeting.

This week the Sweet Home schools will all be in session again after a week's vacation of the holiday season. The vacation has done the teachers and scholars a lot of good, as they have rested their minds and will be better fitted for the remaining school months. Several scholars came in from Portland to spend their vacation here with relatives, among them were Wilbur Belstrom a high school student at Portland.

Church Repairs

The coming week the Sweet Home Evangelical church will undergo several important repairs, mainly the replacing of new sills on two sides. Rev. G. H. Hartzell, O. Feigum and J. Nothiger, will take care of the work the first day, and will be followed with volunteer workers the rest of the time it takes to complete the work. This church has stood here many, many years and it was a surprise to the carpenters really how rotten the sills were getting. The work will be rushed.

Flood waters are abating at this place and the grain fields are again beginning to be normal, for days and days the high waters have covered the lower fields. Farmers are fearing quite a bit of damage has been done to the grain but will not know definitely, as some years the warm sunshine later in the spring brings out unlooked for big yields.

There was a heavy fog and white frost Sunday morning, that took Sweet Homers by surprise after the spring sunshine of New Years day.

STAPLETONS HELP IDENTIFY REMAINS

Body of Alfred Croford Recovered After Snow Storm Abates

PERRYDALE, Jan. 4—Mr. and Mrs. William Stapleton and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Muller drove to Hillsboro Wednesday to identify the body of Alfred Croford who died about two weeks ago after being snowed in at his cabin nine miles above Cochran, where he was watchman for the Blue Lake Lumber company.

The mill was not running and Mr. Croford was alone at the camp.

He phoned to Cochran telling them he was snowed in but was coming out as soon as he could. Not hearing anything further from Mr. Croford for three days and being unable to get him by phone a group of men started out in search of him.

The snow was quite deep and it took a couple of days before they found his frozen body beside the speeder that he was riding out on.

Mr. Croford was 71 years of age and had lived at the Stapleton and Muller homes for the past ten years.

He has a half sister in California as an only known of relative.

Mrs. Frank Lynn is seriously ill at her home here. She became suddenly ill Sunday and is confined to her bed; her heart is giving her a portion of the trouble.

Mrs. O. E. Krutz was in McMinnville on business Thursday.

Miss Carmen Crippen spent New Years day with her cousin, Mrs. Issie Hansard in McMinnville.

FIRST FAMILY ON CHRISTMAS SHOPPING SPREE

Not one whit different from millions of other families in the United States, President Hoover and his grown-up children went on a real Christmas shopping spree in Washington, D. C., in quest of presents. Photo shows the First Family inspecting the wares in a doll shop. One might say that some of the "babies" shown will be dropped by Santa in the stockings of Peggy Ann and Herbert, 3rd, children of Herbert, Jr., who are at the White House for Christmas. Left to right above are Allan Hoover, the President, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Jr., and her husband.
