

FINAL RITES HELD FOR '61 VETERAN

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 5. — Rev. Henry G. Hanson delivered the sermon at the funeral services held at the Keeney Funeral Home Monday afternoon for the late Elisha E. Horton, civil war veteran, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. C. Kimball in Independence.

Special selections were sung by Mrs. Edna Irvine accompanied by Mrs. Guy Walker at the piano. The bier was draped in flags and a profusion of lovely flowers. Burial services were held at the Belcrest Memorial park, Salem.

Mr. Horton, accompanied by Mrs. Horton, came to Oregon from Pennsylvania a few weeks ago for a farewell visit with his daughter, Mrs. Kimball, and his three sons, F. G. Horton, Portland; Dr. Harry J. Horton, Baker, and Arthur E. Horton, Independence. He was taken ill of pneumonia and passed away at the age of 90 years.

He was a Mason, having served 40 years as chaplain of his lodge in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Horton was with General Sherman in his memorable march from Atlanta to the sea and was engaged in several important battles during the Civil war.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR BROWN

MONMOUTH, Jan. 6. — Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conkey and Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen Nott went to Portland this morning to attend the funeral of Claude Brown, about 35, of Valseit, and more recently of Dallas, who succumbed in a Portland hospital Monday afternoon following an operation for brain tumor.

Brown underwent an operation for appendicitis last summer, and his health has not been good since. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Pearl Conkey Brown, a Monmouth girl, who is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Nott, and a sister of Earl Conkey. Mrs. Brown has been a supervisor in the training department of the Oregon Normal school maintained at Valseit for several years until last fall.

Brown was associated with the Standard Oil company at Independence some years ago, and later entered the employ of Cobbs-Mitchell at Valseit.

NO MEAT SALE

At this season of the year many firms are forced to have "SALES" as a means of cleaning house. With a meat business such as ours it isn't necessary. Our system combined with a large volume enables us to maintain a continual flow of fresh wholesome meat, direct from the stock raiser to the consuming public. Our fresh meats, such as beef, pork, veal and lamb, are of the highest quality. Our smoked meats, hams, bacon, etc., are equal in quality and have a fresher, sweeter flavor than most of the popular brands. Customers as far as Portland, make it a point when going through Salem, to stop and get their meat at this market.
