Owing to the fact that there are so many different ways of quoting butterfat at the moment, some calling the best stock special or sweet cream while others say No. 1, only the basic price for churning cream is being listed today.

Trade conditions in the egg market continue weak with prices lower in spots although no further chance by the Pacific co-ops was announced. Receipts are extremely heavy.

For the weekend generally steady prices were reflected in the local market for live chickens. Demand is best for medium to heavy Serious surplus of dressed turkeys is showing on the local market with very little local and practically no outside demand at a price that is acceptable. Best stuff is selling nominally to retailers at 25c with No. 2 stock at 20c.

Surprising demand is shown for mountain potatoes of Clackamas-Washington counties being graded and marketed through the cooperative association. No. stock is generally sold to wholesalers 90c cental.

Well held prices are generally shown for country killed meats with a very good movement except for hogs, which appear a trifle weak and somewhat slower sale. Lambs especially in call.

He did not climb to the top of Tap-a-lam-a-he to show off his good clothes, to be heard of men, to proselyte, or to increase his worldly gear. What was His purpose? Evidently religious worship. What was the burden of his supplication? As to that we can only infer that, like other human beings, he prayed for what he wanted. He was not, however, in want of food, for the Abiqua was swarming with trout; the valley was blue with the bloom of his edible root, the sweet camas; from every grove came the love notes of the grouse, and the mountains near at hand were populous with bigger game.
