

600 WELCOME FOSS TO CITY

Several Special Features at Installation of Lutheran Pastor

SILVERTON, Jan. 11.—Over 600 persons attended the installation services at Trinity church Sunday morning when Rev. Carl Foss was installed as pastor, his brother, the Rt. Rev. H. L. Foss, former pastor, acting as installing officer. Special music was furnished by the choir with solos by Alfred Jensen, Esther Legard, and Rev. H. L. Foss. The newly installed pastor delivered the sermon.

Following the morning services, luncheon was served in the social rooms with Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg, Mrs. Dan Riveness, Mrs. Chris Ennevaldsen, Mrs. Adolph Hauge and Mrs. Lewis Hall as hostesses.

At 3 o'clock the Young People's society of the church gave a program. Harry Larson, president, conducted a short business meeting previous to the program. Alf O. Nelson acted as chairman of the program. Officers of the various church societies gave brief addresses of welcome to the new pastor.

These included Harry Larson for the Young People's Society; Samuel Torvend as chairman of the church board; Mrs. Elmer Olson, president of Dorcas society; L. H. Meyer, superintendent of the Sunday school; Ruth Thompson, president of the Busy Bee; Palmer Torvend, president of the Luther League; Mrs. Ed Holden, president of the choir; B. Tingstad as a charter member of the church when it was organized 40 years ago; Rev. J. M. Jensen, pastor of Immanuel church. The Rev. Carl Foss responded to these remarks. H. L. Foss spoke briefly as did also the father of these two, the Rev. L. C. Foss of Seattle.

Rev. H. L. Foss introduced his mother to the audience, indicating as he did so that while she was seen and heard little, she was the hub of the family. A lovely feature of the afternoon was the guest numbers given by a stringed quartet from Calvary church. Other musical numbers included a vocal solo by Marguerite Sather, accompanied at the piano by Ardis Aarhus; a piano solo by Agnes Torvend; a vocal solo by Charlotte Goplerud, accompanied by Mrs. Alvin Legard.

JOHNSON HAS SHOP

FALL CITY, Jan. 11.—Ted Johnson of Stayton has taken over the barber shop, last operated by T. E. Given, of Silvertown. The Johnsons are living in Mrs. Jessie Meyer's house.

The Call Board . .

By OLIVE M. DOAK

Warner Bros. Elsinore
Today — Will Rogers in "Ambassador Bill".
Wednesday — Kay Francis in "Girls About Town".

Warner Bros. Capitol
Today — Gary Cooper and Claudette Colbert in "His Woman".

Wednesday — Ben Lyon and Rose Hobart in "Compromised".

Friday — Lionel Barrymore in "The Yellow Ticket".

The Hollywood
Today — Nancy Carroll in "Personal Maid".

Wednesday — Kay Francis in "Guilty Hands".

Friday — Kon Maynard in "Branded Men".

The Grand
Today — Barbara Stanwyck in "Night Nurse".

Wednesday — Dorothy MacKail in "Party Husband".

Friday — Jack Holt in "Subway Express".

Different Sessions Fall on Same Date

AUBURN, Jan. 11.—Through a coincidence in dates the second Thursday and the third Friday come in the same week, making the Auburn club meetings the same week.

The Auburn Woman's club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Roy Rodgers on the Auburn road. Mrs. Claude Armstrong will be assisting hostess.

The community club will meet Friday night at the schoolhouse. Carl Krehbiel is in charge of the program. Mrs. Mike Lucas is refreshment chairman.

16 FARMERS OUT

OAK POINT JAN. 11.—Sixteen farmers attended the first farmers night school at the Oak Point school house, Wednesday, when selection, care and management of the herd sire were the topics discussed. Personal experience related during the discussion showed a great variety in the methods successful dairymen use to get the same results. The next meeting will be January 13, at which time the care and management of the dairy calf will be taken up. All farmers are invited to attend these meetings.

IN HOSPITAL HERE

HAZEL GREEN, Jan. 11.—Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunnigan, Jr., was operated on for appendicitis at the Salem General hospital Friday. The patient is doing nicely.

HOLMAN TELLS OF SAVING TO STATE

BALLSTON, Jan. 11.—Discussion of ways in which the state board of control is trying to reduce overhead and unnecessary expense in Oregon was main feature of the address given Friday night before the community club here by Rufus H. Holman, state treasurer. Holman said he had reduced expenses $15,000 since he came into office, and that he hopes to reduce it that much more.

A short program followed consisting of: a piano duet, Helen Morris and Thelma Winters of Broadmead; a recitation, Hal Stapleton, recitation, Josephine Murphy; a piano solo by Edith Lenz; a vocal duet by Elsie Miller and Virginia Stapleton; a song, Jean Sechrist, recitation, Aileen Sechrist; violin solo, Dorothy Covey, and a piano duet, Helen Sechrist and Mrs. Jay Sechrist.

Refreshments were served by a committee: Mrs. Lutz Lenz, Mrs. Floyd Nairn and Mrs. Knight, assisted by Julia Dauenhauer, Edith Lenz, Virginia Dauenhauer, Dorothy Covey, Rose Dauenhauer and Marie Bissell.

EDNA RUTHERFORD NAMED SECRETARY

HAZEL GREEN, Jan. 11.—The Ottebein Guild met at the G. G. Looney home Sunday afternoon. Miss Alice Cook in old time costume represented the Women's Missionary society of 50 years ago. She introduced "Miss Evangel" (Iola Luckey), missionary magazine. Hazel Cook read editorial of the first copy of "The Evangel." Mrs. E. O. Shepherd who has been in the missionary work for many years, talked to the girls. Mrs. W. N. Blodgett of Salem was present and had taken "The Evangel" the longest, 30 years.

Miss Hazel Woolke will be hostess for the February meeting.

Mrs. E. O. Shepherd spoke to the Sunday school on "Teaching." She explained new plan of Christian education adopted by the United Brethren church, and providing for teaching in all departments of church under one general director.

Imogene Wood's resignation as secretary of Sunday school was accepted and Edna Rutherford elected to fill the vacancy.

VISIT INDIANS

CHEMUNAWA, Jan. 11.—Charles E. Larson, principal clerk at the Chemunawa school, left Thursday with Supervisor E. H. Hammond to make a survey of the school conditions and other matters in

Glatt Urges New Berry Be Given Trials; Asks No Increase in Acreage

WOODBURN, Jan. 11.—Members of the board of directors for the Woodburn Cooperative Fruit Growers' association, whose terms had expired, were unanimously re-elected when members of the association met at the high school Saturday for the 11th annual session. The men are H. F. Butterfield, Joseph Nibler and H. L. Carothers. Butterfield and Nibler have both served in that capacity for ten years, and Carothers has served almost that long.

Ray Glatt, secretary of the association, outlined the history of the group. It was organized in February, 1922, when a few berry growers met in the city hall and decided that such an organization should exist. Since that time the organization has grown to a membership of 314. Glatt pointed out that $55,000 more volume was connection with the Silets and Grand Ronde sub-agencies which are now under the jurisdiction of this school. Dr. J. R. Colliard is also at this time making a survey of the health situation at these stations.

Chickenpox Causes Study Interruption

PERRYDALE, Jan. 11.—Viola Houk is home from O. S. C. with chickenpox. She contracted it from her sister, Marie during the Christmas vacation.

The missionary ladies met in the club room's Friday afternoon for an enjoyable meeting.

Mrs. Frank Lynn who has been ill since Christmas is some better being able to sit up a little each day. She is not improving as fast as her friends would like. Mrs. Lynn is afflicted with a heart ailment.

Roberts Club Enjoys Program by Guests

ROBERTS, Jan. 11.—One of the most enjoyable evenings of the year was had at the Community club Saturday night when the West Salem community club entertained with a two-hour "radio program" of music, readings and comedy. All Henningsen was the announcer and Vera Stohl and Charles Wright were comedians. Others taking part were Helen McElroy, Lester Burgoyne, Helen Gosser, Ruth Maers, Enoch Maers, Norman Burgoyne, Bernice Woods, Bob Mathers and Perry Reigelman.

ON HOLLAND FARM

ZENA, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allard of Sheridan recently purchased the old Roger Holland home in the hills between Zena and Bethel. They resided here last year on the Niles R. Holland farm.

PYTHIAN OFFICERS INSTALL JOINTLY

SILVERTON, Jan. 11.—Officers installed at the annual joint installation of officers for the Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias orders were — Pythian Sisters: Wanda Anderson, most excellent chief; Anna Hadley, past chief; Lavan Bowen, excellent senior; Ethel Kieck, excellent junior; Chas. Kieck, manager; Nada Grinle, mistress of finance; Ella Knight, mistress of records and correspondence; Elizabeth Nichol, guard, and Attie Lee, protector. Knights of Pythias officers installed were: E. B. Kottek, Jr., C.C.; Clifford Lovett, V.G.; H. Z. Kaufman, P.; Fred Knight, K.R. and S.; Scott McPike, M. of F.; Lawrence Larson, M. of E.; Fred Mehl, M. of A.; L. G. McDonald, L. G.; Elmo Lindholm, O.G.; William Nicol, M. of W.

Ruth Nicol, Lillian Heald and Minnie Moser were the installing officers of the Sisters, and Emil Lee, Al Downs and Fred Knight, for the Knights. Past chief Pike was presented to Ruth McPike and Lavan Bowen, with Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman master of the presentation ceremony.

MRS. PRATHER IMPROVED

SILVERTON, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Morin L. Prather was again removed to her home and is said to be getting along quite well. Mrs. Prather underwent a minor operation at the hospital a little over a week ago. Later she was returned to the hospital again for treatment caused by hemorrhages resulting from the operation. Her mother, Mrs. Charles Wampole, is at the Prather home caring for Mrs. Prather and her children.

WOMEN TO PRESENT PROGRAM TONIGHT

LABISH CENTER, Jan. 11.—A special stageback curtain of appropriate design has been painted for the stage revue to be presented by the women Tuesday night at the schoolhouse. A chorus of beach beauties and a quartet of sailors are featured in the presentation.

Mrs. Raymond Blanton, Sr., entertained members of the Blanton Women's club Thursday afternoon at the Blanton home here.

GUILD TO MEET

HUBBARD, Jan. 11.—The guild of the federated churches will meet at the home of Mrs. Mina Dewolf Wednesday.

Check for Seal Sale Mailed to Chairman

AURORA, Jan. 11.—A check for $27. from the Aurora district and one of $8 from the Butteville district was mailed Mrs. J. E. Blinckhorn, Marion county chairman for the Christmas seal sale, by Mrs. Sadler, Aurora chairman. The student body of the Aurora school under the supervision of Mr. Morrison and his co-workers, Misses Yost Haridor and Davis conducted the sale. In the Butteville district Mrs. McGregor, principal, directed the sale.

DOGS KILL CHICKENS

AUBURN, Jan. 11.—Marauding dogs have been in this neighborhood the past week, killing chickens for H. B. Auman and Henry Cashman. As yet the owners of the dogs have not been located.

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

Last Day
COOPER COLBERT
HIS WOMAN

STARTS Tomorrow

Compromised with BEN LYON and ROSE HOBART

WARNER BROS. ELGINORE

LAST DAY

ROGERS AMBASSADOR BILL GRETA NISSEN

Starts Tomorrow

Sprightly Sassy Snappy and Romantic!

KAY FRANCIS JOEL MCCREA LILYAN TASHMAN

GIRLS ABOUT TOWN

WARNER BROS. & VITAPHONE PICTURE

Be a Guest of the Statesman to See

A PICTURE THAT MAKES HISTORY!

Until you've seen these two in this film, you haven't seen the greatest of all the talkies! Jackie as the boy who fought his father's fight—Wallace Beery as the man who fought to justify the kid's faith in him!

WALLACE BEERY JACKIE COOPER

IRENE RICH and ROSCOE ATES

Starts WARNER BROS. Elsinore MIDNIGHT MATINEE SAT. 11:30

Continuing Sunday - Monday - Tuesday - January 24 - 25 - 26

Free!! - - - Free!!

THEATRE TICKETS

for One New 3 Months' Subscription to

The OREGON STATESMAN

YOU WILL BE GIVEN TWO TICKETS TO SEE

"THE CHAMP"

at WARNER BROS.

EL SINORE

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, January 24, 25, 26

Start Work Today — Earn Two Tickets to the Elsinore SECURE ONE NEW SUBSCRIPTION

SEE "THE CHAMP" — One Subscription Will Take You

Subscription Blank and Ticket Coupon

Please enter my subscription to The Oregon Statesman, for three months and thereafter until ordered discontinued by me. I agree to pay your carrier the regular rate of 45 cents per month. I have not been a subscriber for the past thirty days.

Signed

Address

Phone No.

Secured by

Mail or bring this order to The Statesman. As soon as the order is verified you will be given two admission tickets to the Elsinore. ADMISSION TICKETS GOOD FROM JAN. 25 TO FEB. 12 EXCEPT SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS, AND HOLIDAYS. NOTE (Mail subscription must be paid in advance.)

(Mail rate 3 Months $1.25. By carrier 45 cents per month.) NOTE (A new subscriber is one to whom The Statesman has not been delivered for 30 days past. A change of name at the same address is not a new subscription. A renewal is not a new subscription.)

WALLACE BEERY AND JACKIE COOPER in "THE CHAMP"