CONTRACT BRIDGE "The Official System" as Adopted by Leading Authorities By E. V. SHEPARD

If unable to save game against a probable shift by third hand, bid game on any freak suit, not asking partner much in excess of average support in side suits for fulfillment of your contract.

It would perhaps be fine to sit tight over a no-trump bid at your right and just make an opening lead of your long suit, but you must know that in all probability third hand holds a low singleton or else is void of your long suit; if you pass, he will bid; if he bids it is not improbable that your adversaries will be able to outbid you. Jump in and bid game on the no-trumps—3 Spades on the first hand shown below, or 5 Diamonds on the second hand shown. Shut-out third hand; take your chances of going game.

♠K-Q-J-10-9-7-4-2 ♠A-5
♥A-8-4 ♠Q-9-6
♦7 ♠K-J-7-5-4-3

If probably able to save game against an shift of make, bid no higher than needed to picture holdings to partner, in case better than average support is asked from partner. Bid 2 Spades on the next hand shown; bid 3-Hearts on the second hand.

♠A-J-10-7-6-4-3 ♠A-J-9-2
♥A-K-J ♠K-Q-J-10-4-3
♦8-4 ♠5-3
♦7 ♠K-Q

Forestall third hand's probable shift by bidding any stronger two-suiter. Bid 2-Spades on the first hand below, directly over 1-No Trump at your right; bid 2-Hearts on the second hand shown below.

♠A-K-J-7-4 ♠A-Q-10-8-5
♥K-7 ♠A-J-10-6-5-3
♦K-Q-J-9-5 ♠6

When not vulnerable a defensible hand justifies a preemptive bid over no-trumps at the right, provided your probable loss will not exceed three tricks down. Nobody would dream of opening contracting on either of the next two hands, but almost every player in passing such hands intends to bid them later on; there is no chance that one of the three remaining players will not make an opening bid. Over either a suit make or no-trumps at your right, bid 3-Spades on the first hand that follows; bid 4-Hearts on the second hand.

♠K-J-10-6-5-4-3-2 ♠6-5-4-3
♥— ♠Q-J-10-8-7-6-5-4-3
♦8-6-4 ♠10-5
♦7-3 ♠8

Do not make such bids as the last two against no-trumps at your left, unless the declaration will go game at the score.

Of course, you must make any of the above bids over any declaration of your partner, just as you would over an adverse declaration.
