BENSON STARS TO

Easy Victory For Florsheim Now Predicted

DALLAS, Jan. 12 .--- If the game between the Dallas city team and the Pacific Outfitting company is any indication, the Florsheims should have it rather easy here Wednesday night. The local fans have hopes of a Dallas victory, as the Dallas team had lost a ragged game to Linfield a few days before they completely reversed their form and downed the University

The Florsheim team has been winning most of its games but was beaten by the U. of O. quintet, while Dallas nosed out a 26-to-23 victory over Oregon. The Dallas team has won five out of eight games played but doesn't seem to be able to play a steady game.

8:15. HAVE LOTS Cliff McLean, all-state forward last year for Benson, is one of the luminaries scheduled to appear with the shoe firm's team: Barney Woldt, Benson's regular TO TRY center, and Morris Hetzler are the others. Jason Lee has won six of its last seven games and is in second place in the "A" Church league.
