Plans for construction of an outdoor swimming tank were disthe Salem Golf club Wednesday outscored the Bearcats. Willamnight, at which William J. Busick was elected a director to serve for three years. He succeeds R. I. Mac-Laughlin who has served on the directorate for a like period.

Ercel Kay and Graham Sharkey were reelected as directors. A vote of thanks was tendered the directors for their efficient handling of the club's business during the past year.

The swimming tank is not an absolute certainty, but the members authorized appointment of a committee to ascertain the cost, and it is indicated that the tank, 30 by 75 feet in dimensions, will be completed by hot weather. It was found last summer that there was considerable demand for such a convenience, and it is expected to prove popular with the mem-
