WASHINGTON, Jan. 12-(AP) -Chairman Metcalf of the senate committee taking testimony on the Bingham 4 per cent beer bill Tuesday termed newspaper stories of the hearings unbiased and in vited presentation of any evidence that newspapers were withholding space to the "dry" side of prohibition.

The Rhode Island republican, an anti-prohibitionist, took this action in reply to a charge by Senator Brookhart, republican, Ioda, a prohibitionist, that the press was giving "outlandish and unreasenable" publicity in opposition to the dry laws. Breokhart also said he had been informed newspapers had organized a "sort of racket" against dry organizations because the latter had "refused or neglected to buy space" in the papers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP) - Crime-stirred Honolulu Tuesday drew the united, searching gaze of officials in every branch of government.

President Hoover at his regular cabinet meeting brought up the problem of growing out of a reported series of assaults upon white women. Then Attorney General Mitchell announced he would proceed at once to investigate under a senate mandate. A house committee agreed the territorial judge's charge to the ty of Marion and to me directed jury that tried five men for at- on the 30th day of December, tacking Mrs. Thomas H. Massie in Honolulu seemed a "thinly veiled instruction to acquit."
