Score 47 to 20 Surprise; Same Teams to Play in Salem Tonight

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 15 (AP)—Willamette university's basketball team defeated the Columbia university quintet, 47 to 20, here tonight.

The Beacrats surprised their friends by the decisive victory over Columbia in Portland Friday night after a mediocre showing in contests with independent teams earlier in the season. However it was to be expected that Coach "Spec" Keene's green squad would improve and hints that it was about to find itself were seen in Thursday's practice session.

TWO CLOSE CHURCH GAMES ARE PLAYED

Church	A	League	W.	L.	Pct.

Snow in the mountains, chill winds, treacherous fogs hold no dangers or discomforts when you go by train. Smooth steel supports you; block signals guard the way. In warm, cushioned comfort you speed safely on through day and night, arriving fresh and rested.

On your trip to California (or East) this winter, consider the superior safety and comfort of the train; consider the economy of these fares.

Hval Decisions Albertson Despite a Game Rally by Local Boy in Final Round

Kim Albertson lost a close 10 round decision to George Hval of Portland at the armory Friday night, in spite of the fact that Kim made a strong comeback in the final round.

Swedes Will Reveal Hoop Game Tricks

Aside from promising a basketball game of great interest, the appearance of Olson's Terrible Swedes against the Florsheims next Monday night in the Willamette gym is taking on importance as an educational feature—a demonstration of the best there is in basketball.

The Swedes have been practically everywhere that basketball is played, and they are all ex-college players who had enough proficiency before starting on tour, that if anybody anywhere displayed any tricks that were worth copying, they undoubtedly have copied them.

Cougars Defeat Husky Hoop Five By Single Point

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 15 (AP)—Washington State college slipped from behind to defeat the University of Washington 18 to 17 tonight in a fierce and spectacular basketball battle as these two ancient rivals have ever played. The university led at the half 17 to 16.
