

Terrible Swedes Coming Here Monday to Play Florsheims

CLAIMED BEST IN THE WORLD

Clash on Willamette Floor With Salem High, W. U. Frosh in Prelim

STARTING LINEUP

Florsheims	Swedes
Adams	Babb
Hank	Silverwood
Flake	Harnard
Drager	G. Houdyshell
Asby	G. Eberhart

Olsen's Terrible Swedes, who have been sweeping almost everything before them this season, will be here Monday night to meet the Price Florsheim basketball team at Willamette university.

Harold Hank

The Terrible Swedes, who claim the world's championship, have given no indication of dropping the name this season, as they had won 31 games and lost but two at the latest report.

Florsheim's are biting off a big chunk when going up against the Terrible Swedes, who are all big men, many with national prominence. The game was scheduled early in the season and the Florsheims, only, hoped that they would be good enough to give the Swedes a run for their money.

Florsheim's are able to give competition. The season's record for Florsheim's indicates that they will be able to dispute the Scandinavians every step of the way. Oregon State was able to defeat Florsheim's by only one point.

Tiny Barnard is a massive center and the whole team's play revolves around him in most of the games. However, the Swedes are capable of adapting their style to meet any type of opposition. The same bunch played together last season and won 107 victories.

The Swedes did not come to this section at all last year and it was only because they were scheduling other games near that Salem was able to secure this game. According to the advance schedule sent by their manager C. M. Olson, Salem is the only town in Oregon which will meet the big boys. Only five Washington towns will have the privilege. Home team is in good condition.

Florsheim's are in good condition now and believe they will rise to their height in tomorrow night's game. Independent teams like Florsheim's have the habit of playing inspired ball at times. The boys have been playing together for a long time and will present a smooth working offense.

Melvin Flake, who made a "jungle inhabitant" out of Ed Lewis when Florsheim's almost beat Oregon State, will try to do the same with Tiny Barnard. Florsheim's has a stubborn defense and will be prepared to hold the high scoring Swedes to a low count.

Salem high and the Willamette freshmen will meet in the preliminary.

CLEAR LAKE, Jan. 16.—The Ladies' Improvement club held an all-day meeting Wednesday, when regular business was transacted and a shower held for the infant twins of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harold.

The school children are gleeful over the snowfall.

Miss Anna Englebrecht is not working at the grocery store, as Mrs. Pugh's brother, John Hamilton of Eugene, is here to assist her.

At the last meeting of the church here, five additions were made.

AT GRANGE MEET

LIBERTY, Jan. 16.—Eight members of the Red Hills grange attended the meeting of the agriculture and home economics committees held at Silverton Wednesday. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grabenhorst, Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. A. A. Taylor, Mrs. John Van Lydegraf and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Taylor.

HIGHWAY PASSABLE

MEDFORD, Ore., Jan. 15.—(AP)—State police said today the Pacific highway over the Siskiyou is regular. A light fall of snow has not proved troublesome.

Beaver and Cougar Lead North Division; Each is Winner of Latest Series

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 16.—(AP)—After trailing throughout the first half Oregon State college basketball team staged a second half rally and defeated the University of Idaho, 35 to 28, in a Pacific coast conference game here tonight.

The victory left Oregon State at the top of the northern division of the conference in a tie with Washington State college.

The score at the end of the first half was 16 to 13 with Herman accounting for half of Idaho's points.

Herman added another basket to open scoring in the second half but then the Orangersmen found the range and scored 10 points and took the lead before the visitors were able to score again.

An attempt to take it easy, however, almost ended disastrously for Oregon State when Idaho came forward with a rush and tied the score at 23-all. The Orangersmen rallied again and Fagan and Lewis pulled the home team to the front again.

Idaho plays two game series against the University of Oregon next Monday and Tuesday.

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 16.—(AP)—Held in the first half, Washington State college struck out furiously in the second to demoralize and then rout the University of Washington Huskies 49 to 23 in a Pacific coast conference basketball game here tonight.

Washington led at the half 14 to 13.

Smarting under last night's lacing, the Huskies went for blood in the first period but met a pack of Cougars that were fighting mad. The lead changed nine times after Cairney, Washington guard, sunk a long one-half shot and the count was tied three times.

The outlook appeared especially black when Houston's Allen went out on fouls, but it was right about that time that the Bearcats stiffened and pulled into a fairly safe lead, partly through a couple of neat shots by Rieko who went in to take Kloostera's place.

Benjamin was on the scoring end of most of Willamette's thrashings down the floor, and garnered 12 points. McCarthy, McCormick and Casey all showed a lot of speed and good marksmanship for the Cliffdwellers.

Game Refuge In Silverton Area Sought

SILVERTON, Jan. 16.—The Silverton group of the Isaak Walton league is sponsoring a movement to get 25,000 acres of the Silverton Lumber company and the Silver Falls Timber company holdings for a game refuge. The acreage the league has in mind extends from the Santiam ridge to Bridge creek, from Butte creek to Silver creek.

It is the intention to have this as a refuge for all game and to have one game warden stationed there the year around to keep out predatory animals. He will be the only man permitted to carry a gun in the refuge. It is to be under the supervision of the state game commission.

The Silverton Isaak Walton league held its annual business meeting with election of officers at the Fireman's club room Friday night. The group also voted to send a resolution to the state game commission expressing the local group's desire to have the trout season shortened so that it would close September 15; to continue the trout season as it has been in the past; to change the limit of fish to 30 and to permit none to be thrown back; and to set the size of fish to be liberated at six inches or over.

The group also voted to endorse the Salem chamber of commerce plan in making a primitive area of the Right Lake basin. The closest road into this basin is at present four miles. The local league is in favor of retaining it thus.

BEARGATS WIN AGAIN, 33-25

Irish Keep on Willamette's Heels in Second Game; Improvement Seen

Held to a closer score in their second game by a lightweight, but fast and scrappy Columbia university student, the Willamette Bearcats nevertheless exhibited improved basketball over their showing a gain at independent teams, and won 33 to 25.

After Columbia had dropped a couple of long ones to get a 4-0 lead at the opening, the Bearcats came back and took the lead, and never lost it thereafter; but the Irish were close on their heels all the way. The Bearcats were ahead 18 to 15 at half time, and less than that on several occasions in the second half.

The outlook appeared especially black when Houston's Allen went out on fouls, but it was right about that time that the Bearcats stiffened and pulled into a fairly safe lead, partly through a couple of neat shots by Rieko who went in to take Kloostera's place.

CURT COMMENTS

The Governor students of the University of Oregon have decreed that the name "Webfoots" or "Webfeet" whichever it is supposed to be, shall remain the official nickname of Oregon teams; thus proving they are standpaters but at the same time not averse to being considered all wet.

To tell the truth we're a bit relieved that they didn't adopt "Pioneers." We found by training the critical eye on headlines containing that name, that it didn't click for some reason.

But the latest suggestion, "Trappers," which ranked along with "Pioneers" in the voting, rather intrigued us, especially after hearing Jimmy Gilbert's reasons for suggesting it.

Gilbert pointed out that the trappers were Oregon's first white residents, far antedating the covered wagon, and that they were a hardy lot; furthermore that the "Trappers" might be expected to trap the Grizzlies, Cougars, Bears, Beavers, Bruns and above all the Beavers, the latter having been the chief prey of the original trappers in Oregon.

But as we say, the aforesaid sovereign students have decreed otherwise, and the sport writers will have to go on trying to figure out which sounds rotter, "Webfoots" or "Webfeet."

Billy Stepp bursts forth with a double-barreled declaration that Wildcat McCann is the logical opponent for Robin Reed in a wrestling match for Reed's title. We don't know how logical McCann is, recalling no particular logic in his past performances, but we have no quarrel with the proposition.

Such a match might draw quite a crowd in Portland where McCann has been winning all his main events at the Labor Temple. And we know it would draw a crowd in Salem.

We don't know just who the "all comers" are who have been "loosed right and left" by McCann at Portland, but we do know Stepp is a trifle wrong when he says Reed is busy flopping unknowns in the rural districts. Reed has been meeting real competition in most of his bouts since returning to the northwest, though his title has not been at stake in many of them.

And furthermore it might interest Mr. Stepp to hear that his classification of Salem and Eugene as the "rural districts" will not boost the circulation of his number one paper in those communities.

FROSH DEFEAT CHERRIAN FIVE

Close Checking Marks Tilt With Salem Limited to 3 Goals; Score 18-10

Coach Prink Callison's Oregon Frosh basketball team drummed out a 18 to 10 lead over Salem high here Saturday night in a slow game which was marked by conservative ball on both sides.

The frosh led 5 to 3 by the end of the first quarter and added slowly, but precisely, to the score until the end of the game, meaning holding Salem high to three field goals and four foul throws.

Each side employed a delayed offense and worked the ball back and forth until scoring opportunities presented themselves. The Frosh defense proved too good for the locals and they could not work their plays.

Salem high played a good defensive game itself, but 10 points were not enough for a win.

Lamp was high scorer of the game with eight points and Wilson Siegmund, Salem boy, also played a good game for the Frosh. Prink Callison must be strong on the home town staff, for he started Siegmund, who had been previously reported as a sub, and left "Dit" in a good portion of the game.

Kelly led the scoring for Salem high with five points and made two of the three field goals for the locals. Burrall made the other basket on a nice play started by Sachtler.

The next game on the Cherrians' schedule is with Oregon City here next Tuesday, and will doubtless be a good game.

Benson Defeats Rook Hoop Team

PORTLAND, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Benson Tech's basketball team defeated the Oregon State rooks, 31 to 16, here today. Benson led, 16 to 13, at the half.

Heiser, Benson guard, was high scorer of the game with nine points. Feltrop, rook forward, was high for his team with six points.

Rematch is Billed Tuesday Night at Armory; Bill Edwards to Appear

Robin Reed, the sage of the mat, who is almost always able to dispose of his opponent in one manner or another, will meet Ernie Arthur in a rematch bout at the armory Tuesday night at Matchmaker Harry Plant's Wrestling card.

The former meeting of the two was successful in every respect and Plant believes that another match will be popular with the fans. Arthur is still gaining weight and will be harder than ever to handle.

In the previous match he took one fall, and will push Reed to the limit this time. Arthur is so stocky and muscular that he is a hard man to handle. He has some of the best rolling maneuvers seen here.

Reed appeared to be a bit tired against Perkins when the two met here, but part of that was doubtless just started to disarm his opponent, for Reed had plenty of energy to push his case when openings came.

Young Billy Edwards will make his bow here in a 30 minute preliminary bout with Joe Gardinier of Portland. Gardinier is a strong wrestler and does not retreat from anyone.
