Bridge, Teas, Luncheons Attract

THE last days of the week have held numerous and charming affairs for Salem matrons. A series of luncheons, the plan of which has been unique, have been progressing in circles of the women of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. George J. Pearce and Mrs. Willis Moore were hostesses Friday for a pretty luncheon at the home of Mrs. Pearce. Other hostesses in this group this week have been Mrs. A. F. Marcus and Mrs. R. T. Boals at the Boals home, and Mrs. Alvin Stewart and Mrs. B. Schmoker at the Schmoker home.

Mrs. B. B. Flack and Mrs. M. C. Pettys entertained Thursday and Friday with bridge luncheons at the home of Mrs. Pettys. Saturday afternoon these hostesses entertained with a bridge tea.

Mrs. R. W. Davis, Mrs. W. H. Hogan and Mrs. H. H. Belt held winning scores for Thursday's card afternoon. Friday Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. Harry Crawford and Mrs. V. L. Gibson held the winning scores and Saturday Mrs. Howard Hunter, Mrs. P. A. Boyers and Mrs. S. B. Kibbe held high scores for the afternoon of cards which preceded the tea hour.

Mrs. Walter Minier has also been a hostess the past week for two attractive parties and will again be a hostess this week for two more very informal and small affairs.

Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Reed Rowland and Mrs. E. B. Gabriel entertained Friday and Saturday afternoon with two large bridge teas. The guest list included the names of about 120 Salem matrons.

At the tea hour Friday the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. John Hunter, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. Earl Paulsen and Mrs. Howard Hulsey. Saturday Mrs. A. C. F. Perry, Miss Jean Bell, Mrs. C. C. Gabriel, Mrs. W. P. Ellis and Mrs. T. F. Mesch assisted at the tea hour.

Another attractive dinner party of the week was that for which Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace entertained at their home on Wallace road Friday night complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon F. Sackett, nee Beatrice Walton. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Sackett, Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Edith Schryver, Miss Mabel Robertson, Dr. W. B. Morse, William H. Burghard and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace.

Mrs. Thomas Rilea was a luncheon hostess Friday afternoon at her home. An afternoon of bridge followed the smartly appointed luncheon. Mrs. James Mott assisted Mrs. Rilea.

Winning scores for the afternoon of cards went to Mrs. Wallace Bonstedt, Mrs. L. D. Farnsworth and Mrs. Armin Berger.

Guests of Mrs. Rilea were Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. Jerrold Owen, Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mrs. Willard Marks of Albany, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mrs. Charles M. Thomas, Mrs. William Einzig, Mrs. A. R. Hunter, Mrs. Wallace Bonstedt, Mrs. D. Farnsworth, Mrs. James Mott, Mrs. Armin Berger, Mrs. H. H. Pettit of Los Angeles and Mrs. Victor S. Boville.

MRS. IVAN MARTIN, vice-president and a prominent member of the Salem Woman's Club, and chairman of the third district legislative committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs, has been guest speaker before several out-of-town clubs during the past several weeks.—Kennell-Elitis Portrait.

Mordaunt Goodnough To Play in Salem

Mordaunt Goodnough, Portland pianist, will appear on the January 25 program to be given by the Salem MacDowell club in the studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts.

With him will appear Gladys McIntyre Thomas, soprano, who has proved herself such a popular soloist in Salem since her return from several years' study in Chicago.

Goodnough needs little introduction to Salem musical circles, for he has been an outstanding pianist in Portland for a number of years, and is, as he describes himself, not a celebrity but a very serious pianist, and as such has something fine to give his audiences.

His Salem program will include Bach, Mendelssohn, Liszt and Chopin, a classical and romantic program chosen from composers whose work spells beauty.

Mrs. A. E. Wickert was the first hostess for a new club which was organized Thursday at the Wickert home. The name is "Variety" club and will meet every second week. Mrs. Bert Pitcher will be the next hostess. Members are Mrs. Mem Pearce, Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. Earl Anderson, Mrs. Frank Martin, Mrs. Bert Pitcher, Mrs. J. C. Sande, Mrs. C. H. Ringwald and Mrs. Wickert.

Art and Club Meetings Will Hold Limelight This Week

SOMETHING not ordinary lies marked on the calendar for this week's social activity. Since time began society has been a patron of the arts and this patronage will be exercised beginning with Tuesday evening when the Salem Arts League will present Anton Piers, a Netherland painter, who has been in the Pacific northwest for the past few years, painting landscapes.

Mr. Pier will lecture on the subject of art and especially in regard to what he has attempted to accomplish and will present a number of his own works which have recently been on exhibit in Portland.

Prominent Maid To Wed Dallas

DALLAS — Announcement of the betrothal of Miss Augusta Gerlinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Gerlinger of Dallas, to John W. Kitzmiller was made Friday evening, when Mrs. W. O. Williams, sister of Miss Gerlinger, entertained at bridge. At the close of play, the guests were seated at an attractively appointed supper table, which was cleverly centered with a miniature football field scene. Each cover was marked with a small football, which contained the announcement of the betrothal.

Prizes for the evening were awarded to Mrs. Lawrence Smith and Mrs. Eric Fulgham. Guests were Miss Frances Martin of Salem, Mrs. Harry Mueller, Mrs. Don Griley and Miss Virginia Manning, all of Portland, Miss Helen Goppo of Hood River, Mrs. L. H. Mardis of McMinnville, Mrs. Paul Skeels, Miss Nina Farley, Miss Ethel Jackson, Miss Marjorie Jackson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Fulgham, Mrs. Maurice Dalton, Mrs. Al Rogers and Miss Margaret Friar, all of Dallas.

Miss Gerlinger, who is one of the most popular members of the younger set, was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1930, where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. She took an active part in campus affairs, and was prominent on the campus. Miss Gerlinger is at present employed in the office of Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner at the state hospital at Salem.

Mr. Kitzmiller, whose home is in Harrisburg, Pa., also attended the University of Oregon, where he became widely known for his brilliant playing on the football team. He completed three years of competition football in 1930.

Mr. Kitzmiller returned recently from the east where he completed a successful season of professional football with the New York Giants. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

A date for the wedding has not been definitely set, but will probably be an event of the summer.
