"The False Madonna" is pleasing entertainment. It is well acted and the plot is enough different to keep attention to the end.

Kay Francis is not the raging vampire she has attempted to be in so many of her pictures and she really does some very sincere acting.

Have you been looking up the standing of "The Champ"? It is a picture that ranks in the aristocratic class of motion pictures. Public and actors alike have been giving it the highest praise both from standpoint of plot, and especially for that of superb acting.

King Vidor directed and with that said the powerful and amazingly artistic production of "Street Scene" comes to one's mind together with "The Big Parade". Vidor has an ideal for production of pictures which is placing him in a class of splendid success all his own.

The hero of "The Big House", Wallace Beery, plays the father of "Skippy", Jackie Cooper, in a combination that is really an event of the season. The play is a dramatic romance of sporting life and the human angle behind it, which comes to the Elsinore this weekend.

Primarily it is a mighty drama of the love of a father and his son. There is a gripping element of human sacrifice. Surrounding this is comedy galore and the thrills of a Mexican border town, with its gambling, racing and prize fighting. Much of it was actually filmed in Mexico.

Richard Rhoten. The immediate family made up the guests in compliment to the young men. Two birthday cakes with tapers, and a flower centerpiece in a color scheme of yellow and white made the table decorations.

Mrs. S. Niwa and two children will leave tonight for Riverside, Cal. where she will be the guest of her mother. Mrs. Niwa has been in ill health for some time. The trip comes as a gift from her mother.

Mrs. Frederick Lamport will entertain with a one o'clock luncheon at her home Friday. Bridge will follow the luncheon hour.

Mrs. Edgar Pierce entertained for members of Mrs. Robert Gatte's drama class Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Pierce of La Grande, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fritz Slad for a few days.
