

STUPFELS OBSERVE 16TH ANNIVERSARY

Sewing Club to Meet With Marion Moore; Students Organize

HAYESVILLE, Jan. 20—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stupfel Monday night observed their 16th wedding anniversary, the event being arranged by her as a surprise to Mr. Stupfel. Games and music were diversions, with Joe Schneider having high score and Fathel Tidestone second.

Guests present were the honored guest, C. J. Stupfel and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Max Woods and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Zielinski, Mr. and Mrs. A. Zielinski and children, Frank Fisher, Miss Marie Roddy, Frank Roddy, Father H. deSouza of Chemawa, Mrs. Charles Dasch, Joe Schneider, and the hostess, Mrs. C. J. Stupfel.

The Busy Bee sewing club met at the home of its club leader, Mrs. Frank Marshall Saturday afternoon. The committee reported on the six places for future meetings. If these places receive the approval of the county club leader, the club is entitled to a standard club charter. The next meeting will be held Saturday afternoon with Marion Moore.

Organize Student Body
A student body has been organized with Iris Mason as president, Allen Smith, vice-president, and Earl Hayworth, secretary. Committees have been appointed to supervise the playground, tend flag, decorate rooms, keep playgrounds clean, etc. There is a court discipline to settle playground disputes. Every child in the school has some responsibility on one of the committees, thus giving him an individual interest in the school.

The Happy Jack sewing club met at the school house Monday afternoon after school. The boys are working on carpenter aprons at present, and are so enthused they are meeting twice a week, Mondays and Fridays.

SEVERAL ARE SICK
BROOKS, Jan. 20—Mrs. C. D. Naylor who has been ill the past two weeks, is much improved. M. A. Oaks who has been sick the past two weeks is able to attend to his duties again. Oaks is proprietor of the "Square Deal" garage at Brooks. Mrs. A. E. Harris who has been on the sick list the past week is well again.

Midget Market

Originators Of Low Prices 351 State St.

YOU DO NOT PAY

for a lot of "free" service and credit that the other fellow gets, when you trade at this market. We operate a complete packing plant in connection with our market, which enables us to supply retail quantities at wholesale prices. From the way our business has grown since we have adopted this policy proves to us that our system is appreciated.

Regular Prices—Not "Specials"

Hot Luncheon Dish is Big Hit

TURNER, Jan. 19 — The one hot dish served at the lunch hour at school is much appreciated by students, and is being prepared during January by the domestic science department. Improvement is already noted in under nourished students.

Turner is pleased to win first place in Marion county, in the three room school rating under the Stanford achievement test which applies to the eighth grade. It takes the place of the usual annual examination. Mrs. Cleora Parks is the teacher.

AID TO MEET
BROOKS, Jan. 20—The Brooks Methodist Ladies Aid society will hold its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Bosch in Brooks. Newly elected officers for this coming year are: Mrs. Monroe Ward, president; Mrs. O. L. Bailey, vice president; Mrs. Ida Blanton, secretary; and Mrs. Wayne Gibson, treasurer. Mrs. Rasmussen and Mrs. C. A. Bailey will act as joint hostesses.
