

Week Filled to Brim With Teas, Music, Art and Club Activities

Benefit Bridge Parties and Smart Tea to Feature This Week

Women of Salem Will Spend Pleasing Social Hours and Thereby aid Relief Work

THIS week will be marked by four benefit affairs all of which will draw the attention of a large number of Salem matrons and maids. Card clubs in number are planning to attend the benefit being planned by the American Legion Auxiliary Thursday afternoon in the Silver Grille room of the Gray Belle.

Playing will begin at 2 o'clock. A distinctive program of music is being planned.

Artists Will Be Heard Monday

SALEM will expect a brilliant program Monday night when the MacDowell club will present Gladys McIntyre Thomas, soprano, and Mourant A. Good-nough, pianist of Portland, in a program at the Roberts studio, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. Good-nough is well known to a large musical group in Salem, and in Portland. His work is excellently spoken of by all those who have had the pleasure of hearing him. He is described as a serious and understanding artist.

Mrs. Thomas, a graduate of Willamette university, has been well known in Salem since her high school years. She left Salem following her graduation for a scholarship in the Chicago Musical college where she studied for about three years under the coaching of Graham Reed. Her recent arrival has been a pleasure and her work Monday night will be anticipated.

Mrs. Kenneth Rich will accompany her.

An excellent program preceded an evening of dancing Thursday night when the United Artisans entertained with an open meeting. Those presenting music, feature dances, and orchestra numbers were Joy Turner, Moses, Adella Diekmann, Blanche Hudson, Mrs. David Smith, Gordon Winchomb, Herald Penworth, Marjorie and Hilda McDowell, Eleanor Brazeau, Virginia Collin, Irene Scheelar, Harlow Thompson, Enoch Maierz, William Storehouse and his orchestra of 12 people and William Brazeau.

Alexander Melovidoff, well known violinist both in Salem and in musical circles over the country, will be a guest soloist. Mr. Melovidoff is with the Chemawa school at the present time and has appeared in Salem several times in recital and program. He appeared with the Salem Symphony orchestra in one of its programs last year.

Other numbers will be given by Mrs. Frank N. Wates, and Miss Marcelle Herbster. Mrs. A. M. Johnson, 7430, and Mrs. M. Melchior, 5133, are receiving reservations. Mrs. William Watkins, Mrs. Frank Waters, Mrs. Henry Fournier, and Mrs. M. J. Melchior, are the reception committee; Mrs. Henry Fournier, Mrs. William T. Meyers, Mrs. A. M. Johnson, and Mrs. Ralph Mason are in general charge.

A brilliant benefit tea will be sponsored by the Salem Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's clubhouse between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock.

This affair has an appeal to all women for the funds are being given in full to the scholarship loan fund of the club much of which will be loaned Williamette students who are now in dire need of assistance.

Mrs. J. C. Nelson, head of the educational committee and her committee are in charge of arrangements. Musical numbers by Mrs. S. W. Starr, Mrs. Marguerite Dalton, Mrs. C. C. Geer, Chris Seely, Al King, Verne Wilson, and Charles McCain will be given. Mrs. Clifton Mudd will give a talk explaining in interesting manner the exact plan of the scholarship loan.

Mrs. Willard Marks, Albany, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. U. G. Shipley will preside at the tea tables. Other assistants will be given later.

St. Agnes Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will sponsor a benefit bridge at the home of Mrs. Hal Patton Wednesday afternoon beginning play at 2 o'clock. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock.

The committee in charge are Miss Rita Claggett, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, and Miss Sally Lansing. Mrs. Arthur Knox is in general charge.

Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil war will entertain with a benefit bridge at the Salem Woman's clubhouse Friday night. Both bridge and "500" will be in play and both men and women are invited to attend. Mrs. Nellie Hiday and Mrs. C. N. Needham are receiving reservations.

The first devotional meeting for the Junior Christian endeavor of the First Evangelical church will meet Sunday evening at the church at 6:30 o'clock. R. Rudin will be the leader. A business meeting is being planned for one night this week and at this time officers will be elected.

Salem Club Sponsors Need

SALEM WOMAN'S CLUB recommended the expenditure of $200 for the equipment of a hostel quarters for the children's Farm Home at the Saturday meeting. This will meet a serious need at the Home. The equipment will be bought in Salem as far as it is possible.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding reported the completion of 5 dozen towels for Salem General hospital as a part of the club's work this month.

It was also reported that the committee from the Woman's club which has been working on the "work promotion" plan, has procured a pledge of $10,000 worth of work.

The business meeting was followed by a warmly received talk on "Mexico" by Dr. A. A. Vasakas of Willamette university. An unusually large audience was present for this talk which brought the country to the south into very close and interesting proximity.

Dr. Vasakas told his listeners that Mexico was one country which knew how to be poor gracefully. He pointed out the two cultures which form the background of these interesting people whom he assured his audience were fast developing a culture second to none in music, literature and mechanical arts.

One culture is that of the Mayan Aztecs and the second is that of the colonial or Portuguese and Spanish and the present race is a definite mixture of these peoples, thus they are a heterogeneous people and this in contrast to the people of the United States who are truly homogeneous.

The city of Mexico has many brilliant and valuable colonial monuments and could well be called a "city of churches." Dr. Vasakas told his listeners. The people there are very hospitable, have no conception of time and are picturesque.

Following the talk by Dr. Vasakas, tea was served. Mrs. Charles Stricklin was chairman of the tea committee and assisting her were Mrs. G. L. Forge, Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr., Mrs. Ralph Wirth, Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, Mrs. William L. Walton, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Miss Nina McNary, Mrs.

John D. Foley, Mrs. S. H. Probert, Mrs. A. L. Wallace, Mrs. Van Selder Welder, and Mrs. J. H. Ryan.

Mrs. Harry Harms accompanied by Alice Crary Brown sang a group of solos.

A charming birthday party was that which observed the sixth birthday of Joan Remington at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Albert Cohen, who entertained for her. The playroom was decorated in a happy array of things that pleased small people and the afternoon hours were spent in playing games and concluded with the tea hour at which time a birthday cake was the feature of the minutes. Mrs. Remington was assisted by Mrs. Percy Willis and Mrs. Charles Murphy of Portland who motored down for the party. Guests of Miss Joan's were Robert Siefert, Jack Mudd, Bobby Baker, Arlene Bechill, Ellen Ackerman, Rose Mary Ackerman, Lana Millet, Gladys Quesseth, Emma Schukl, Barbara Moorman, Helen Moorman, Florence Lewis, Barbara Lewis and Jean Barham.

Mrs. H. G. Malson entertained for her club Friday afternoon. Luncheon and cards entertained the guests. Mrs. T. A. Livestey, Mrs. Victor Grigan, and Mrs. Ferold Owen were additional guests.

Mrs. George Rogers returned Thursday from Vancouver, B. C., where she has been visiting for the past several weeks.

Things to Anticipate

IF anticipation be the greatest joy then it behooves people to get in all the anticipating possible for activities of the first weeks of February.

To the music lovers the announcement that Charles Wakefield Cadman will personally direct the glee clubs and orchestra of Willamette university in its spring production "The Golden Trail" to be given February 5 is only dimmed in anticipation by the announcement that Cadman will give a personal concert the following night. This composer who has made Indian lyrics live and be cherished is a personage in the musical world.

To the artistic and lovers of the dance the announcement that Mary Wigman, founder of the new school of the dance which has now after many years of bitter fighting been accepted in Europe and in Germany has been subsidized in the schools, will come to Portland February 1. This is her first appearance in the west. Last year she appeared for her first tour in the east.

Beginning with February 26 Salem will be complimented with a visit from a large number of young women, interested in the advancement of girl's work as is exemplified by the Girls Reserve movement. Perhaps three hundred young women will attend this three day conference which will be of interest to a large number of Salem maids and matrons.

Salem Symphony concert is to be another program of February to be anticipated with pleasure. Dalbert Jensen will be soloist. He is concert master for the orchestra.

These and more social blessings are in store to fill in the days while spring makes her approach and releases a flood of spring activities.

Captains are Named for Drive

THE Young Woman's Christian association will start its campaign for $6000, funds needed to cover the budget for the civic organization February 1. At this time a large number of prominent women are working out plans for the successful advancement of this campaign.

The following captains have been appointed as "team" captains for the large committees to be chosen for workers during the days between February 1 to 5 inclusive.

These captains are Mrs. E. B. Daughtery, Mrs. T. E. Brown, Mrs. Herbert Rahe, Mrs. Glen Seely, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Mrs. W. E. Feldman, Mrs. A. M. Chapman, Mrs. K. O. Brandon, Mrs. William Evans, and Miss Rovena Eyre.

There will be a meeting Wednesday morning at the Y. W. C. A. of this group.

Interesting Society Meets in Portland

An interesting and exclusive organization, the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, met in Portland Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. S. Jackson and were entertained with a tea following the regular business meeting.

Mrs. Thorburn Ross and Mrs. J. B. Montgomery were elected delegates to the national convention which will meet this spring in Washington, D. C.

A program of piano aesthetic dancing numbers was introduced as an attractive feature of the tea hour.

Mrs. Octave J. Goggin is president of this society which takes in as members only those who can trace their ancestry to actual founders and patriots of early America.

Mrs. W. H. Byrd and Mrs. W. B. Johnston attended this meeting. Other members in Salem are Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Russell Callin, Mrs. Frank Spears, and Mrs. Joseph E. Sibley of Dallas.

Monmouth. — Miss Paradine Doughty and Mrs. J. P. Santee were hostesses Wednesday afternoon to the Social Hour club at the former's home. Mrs. R. E. Derby and Mrs. E. C. Cole assisted as program committee. Miss Anetta Schweizer was heard in a humorous reading and Mrs. J. S. Landers spoke helpfully on the topic, "Home Beautification."

Stayton. — Mrs. Marion Hunt entertained Tuesday night with contract bridge for Mesdames G. P. Neibert, Geo. H. Bell, Edw. J. Bell, Glen E. Fox, J. W. Mayo, G. F. Korinek, H. J. Tate and Misses Helen Patton and Frances Lillis. Wednesday night Mrs. Dave M. John entertained with two tables of contract bridge.

P. E. O. Will Honor Its Founders

MEMBERS chapters A. B. and G. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood are anticipating with a great deal of pleasure the joint celebration of "founders" day, a national red-letter day for the organization, Monday night at the home of Mrs. C. A. Sprague.

Mrs. Frank Churchill, chairman of the program committee, has arranged a program which will include a talk on the history of the organization, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, music under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Schramm, a tribute by Grace Elizabeth Smith, and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks will have charge of the ritualistic "candle-lighting" service.

Oregon has about 40 chapters which will observe this day, and in the United States there are about 52,000 members in the organization. It was founded January 21, 1869.

Mrs. Clarence Keene of Silverton will entertain the members of her club Tuesday with luncheon and contract. Members are Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. Frank Snede-
