Reception to Compliment Pioneer

SALEM friends are invited to a reception Wednesday, from 2 to 5 o'clock, honoring Mrs. Elizabeth T. Adair on her 87th birthday at her home, 368 North Liberty street.

No individual invitations have been issued but a general invitation through the press is extended to all her friends and old-time acquaintances. The affair will be informal.

Old gold candles in silver holders and flowers in pastel shades will be used in the living room and dining room. Elsie Simeral, Lida Brougner and Aileen Moore will sing during the afternoon.

Members of the auxiliary to the Patriarchs Militant of the I. O. O. F. lodge, in full dress uniform will receive in the living room and serve in the dining room.

Those receiving in the living room from 2 to 3 o'clock will be Alma Henderson, Hattie Cameron and Myra Tyrrell. In the dining room Ida T. Adair will be assisted by Nettie Elwell, Ella Harris, Ella Woodard and Bell Carlsson.

Receiving from 3 to 4 o'clock will be Louise King, Luella Engstrom and Elsie Simeral; in the dining room the Adolphe Harris, Lillian Flenner, Gladys Fitts, Alma Cramer, Lida Brougner, Jennie Martin and Lida Green.

Receiving from 4 to 5 o'clock will be Inez Slegmund, Ethel Fletcher and Elsie Townsend. Serving in the dining room will be Webber, Rachel Reider, Victoria Stiffler, Maude Blackwell, Rebecca Shusterovitz, Pearl Formick and Effie Bonesteel.

Mrs. Adair has been a resident of Salem for 60 years. She was very active in her younger days in the church, social and fraternal organizations, always a progressive woman, never losing faith in Salem. She is possessed of a happy disposition and is an inspiration to meet and talk with.

Delphian Assembly To Be Formed

The Jason Lee church had a delightful and unique party Friday night at the church.
