

Society News

District Meet Is Greatly Enjoyed

The Oregon City club was hostess on Sunday for the North Willamette district conference of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, held at Twin City Inn, West Linn.

Miss Clara McNeil of Salem tendered her resignation as state treasurer which was accepted with regret by the executive council. Speaking on behalf of the group, Miss Martha Gasch, state president, expressed appreciation of the excellent work which Miss McNeil has done.

Miss Helen Louise Crosby of Salem was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Following the executive council breakfast, vacation round table discussions were held. These were divided into four groups, business, owners and managers, insurance and salesmanship, office-secretarial, and government and professional women.

Dinner was served at 1:30 o'clock with Miss Jessie Babcock, president of the Oregon City club presiding. Group singing was led by Mae Ross Walker, state song leader, and a quartette consisting of Homer Hollowell, Dallas Armstrong, Garland Hollowell and Albert Rourke sang several numbers.

Clubs in the North Willamette district reported as to their part in the ten year objective which has been adopted by the National federation. These reports were given by Mrs. Laura Newport of Astoria, Miss Aulalia Stratton of Gresham, Mrs. Zola Morgan of Hillsboro, Miss Jessie Babcock of Oregon City, Miss Clara Levitz of Portland, and Miss Rosella Richardson of McMinnville.

Roy R. Hewitt, dean of Willamette university law school, was guest speaker. His talk on "Vocational Guidance" was enthusiastically received by the group.

Members of the Salem club who attended the conference were: Merle Dimick, Clara McNeil, Madeline Cullin, Winnifred Herrick, Esther Hagerdon, Mona Yoder, Susan Varty, Josephine Shade, Helen Louise Crosby, Leilia Kimsy, and Olga Larson.

An enjoyable Masonic party was that sponsored Monday night at the temple with the members of El Karez Grotto as hosts.

Reservations Being Made for Benefit

Reservations are being made in number for the benefit bridge tea for which members of St. Agnes Guild will be hostess at the home of Mrs. Hal Patton Wednesday afternoon.

Playing will begin at 2 o'clock and tea will be served at 4 o'clock. Reservations are being made with Mrs. Agnes Knox, Miss Sally Lansing, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, and Miss Rita Claggott.

Among those to make reservations for tables are Mrs. Lois Lachmund, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Harry Crane, Mrs. Cal Patton, Mrs. W. H. Danzy, Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. Howard Rex, Mrs. Vernon Perry, Miss Rovena Eyre and Miss Helen Smith.

Additional Society on Page 10

Home-Makers Club To Meet Today

Mrs. L. D. Mars will entertain at her home this afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock with an afternoon in compliment to the Home-Makers' club. This club is being sponsored by the education committee of the American association of University Women and is being given in connection with the radio lectures given by Clarabel Ney, of Oregon State college, over station KOAC.

The program this afternoon has to do with "Changes in Family Relationships." A round table discussion will follow the lecture. All mothers interested are invited to attend this meeting.

Local Assembly Is Formed by Delphians

At least 70 women, members of the Delphian society, chapter Sigma Theta of Independence and Monmouth, Sigma Alpha Chi of Dallas and Sigma Nu and Delta Chi of Salem, gathered at the Marion hotel Monday for a noon luncheon.

The purpose of the meeting was organization of an assembly so that a greater independence would be felt and closer unity be established among the groups. Herebefore the Portland assembly has been the only affiliation between the groups.

Mrs. George Rossman of Salem was elected temporary chairman and Mrs. L. D. Lambeth temporary secretary. The permanent organization will be effected by a meeting of a committee representing the president of each chapter and the chairman of each advisory board of each chapter. This committee will meet within 30 days and ballot on officers proposed by vote from each chapter.

Chapters having more than 20 members are allowed an extra delegate. Only one chapter, Sigma Nu of Salem, has over that quota.

Mrs. Lena Gobel, national organizer, spoke before the Monday meeting. Her talk was a thrilling description of the art and its ramifications as seen by herself in a tour of Europe last summer. Music was given by J. A. Sholseth, William McElchrist, Sr., and R. D. Barton completed an interesting meeting.

Altar Society Will Sponsor Evening

The third of a series of parties being given by St. Vincent de Paul's altar society before the beginning of Lent will be observed tonight in the parish house beginning at 8 o'clock. During the early hours of the evening "500" will be in play and following lunch old time dancing will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Joseph Prange is in general charge of affairs for these parties. Assisting her with Tuesday evening is Mrs. Edward Kertson, Mrs. C. Hampshire, Mrs. Z. Wells, Mrs. A. Hiron, and Mrs. John Coffey.

Silver Tea at Koons Home

Mrs. Louisa Koon will entertain for members of the Woman's Relief Corps Thursday at her home, 465 Marion street, with a "silver tea". All are asked to attend some time during the afternoon hours.

Mrs. Mae Townsend, Mrs. Sophia Sykes, Mrs. Mettie Schram, and Mrs. Cordelia LeBare are the committee assisting Mrs. Koon.

Woman's Club Tea Large Affair Tomorrow

One of the largest affairs of the week will be the "scholarship loan" tea which is being sponsored by the education committee of the Salem Woman's club Wednesday afternoon between the hours of two and 5:30 o'clock. Guests will be received at a late hour in order to allow opportunity for teachers and state house women to call.

Mrs. J. C. Nelson, general chairman of the applied education department is in general charge of the arrangements. Mrs. Walter Spaulding is in charge of the tea committee, and Mrs. W. J. Minkiewicz is in charge of the music committee.

Word has come to the local organization of women's clubs to do everything possible to maintain as many girls in school as each is capable of maintaining, this in order to aid in keeping as many girls as possible from suffering under the present depression and shortage of occupations.

Only juniors and seniors in college are aided under this scholarship loan fund which originated in 1908, as Mrs. Clifton Mudd will tell her listeners Wednesday afternoon as she gives a review of the work of the loan committee. It at that time became a project of the federation and since that time a revolving fund of $40,000 has been raised. This year payments from those who are out of school and paying back on their loans, have come in more slowly and the result is a shortage with all the demands which are being made. This shortage is being felt in Willamette according to information from Dean Olive M. Dahl, who is looking for means to aid several women to continue their work with the university.

Since the scholarship loan fund was first established in 1908 there have been 1032 girls assisted in Oregon. In the year of 1930 and 1931 aid to the amount of $1125 was extended to Marion county girls alone.

All over the state this "red letter" day, as the scholarship loan fund promotion is designated, is being observed in some manner by the 168 clubs of the federation. This drive for funds with which to aid worthy college women will attract much support from both men and women of the state, and enable many girls to go back to school this coming semester who otherwise could not do so.

Many Salem women who are not able to attend the tea Wednesday are sending in their contributions just the same and it is announced that any one who had not thought of this means of aiding may send in contributions to either Mrs. J. C. Nelson or Mrs. J. M. Devers.

The Wednesday meeting is open to the public and both men and women are asked to call during the tea hours.

All funds taken in at this affair will go to the scholarship loan fund and the club expects to add another $25 to whatever is derived from the tea. All expenses connected with the tea will be paid out of club funds and not a cent of the tea funds will be used, except for scholarship purposes.

The line to greet the guests will be headed by Mrs. J. M. Devers, president of the club; Mrs. Ivan Martin, vice president; Mrs. J. C. Nelson, chairman of the applied education department; Mrs. U. G. Shipley, representing the scholarship loan committee. Mrs. George Alden will introduce to the line.

Presiding at the tea tables will be Mrs. Willard Marks, Albany; Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, and Mrs. Paul Wallace.

Assisting about the rooms will be the board of directors, Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Mrs. Harry Weidner, Mrs. Harry T. Love, Mrs. T. A. McBride, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. George H. Swift, Mrs. J. C. Tibbets, Mrs. Mary Bayne, Miss Eula McCully and Mrs. F. H. Crosby.

Woodcraft Club Installs Officers

Woodcraft Thimble club of Marion Circle No. 314 met in regular meeting Friday for an all-day affair at the home of Vera and Olive Ottaway.

During the business session, May Higinbotham, outgoing president, installed the officers-elect as follows: President, Treasurie Scott; vice-president, Almada Benson; secretary, Olive Ottaway; treasurer, Martha Winchel; board of finance, Evelyn Baker, Bessie Pennell, Mae Green. Other members present were Stella Bye, Geneva Hubbard, Maud Hillman, Lucille Manlove, Margaret Lokene, Minnie Melkey, Wynola Ottaway, Beryl Ottaway, Arabelle Phelps, Eva Reese, Vera Ottaway, Lula Seeley, Leona Krenz and guests were Mrs. J. H. Riches and Mrs. G. H. Ottaway.

The women were busily employed in making a butterfly quilt for the club and in quilting for Mrs. Opal Lincoln of Vernonia. The proceeds for this work the members voted to donate to the senior guardian of the Juvenile Circle to help in her work with these youthful members of the order.

An excellent pot-luck dinner at 1 o'clock was an enjoyable feature of the occasion.

Quisenberry's
CENTRAL PHARMACY
410 State Street Tel. 9123
R. PRESCRIPTIONS

Five Hundred Pairs LADIES' SHOES

go on

SALE THIS WEEK

Formerly Sold at $8.50 to $12
At the Ridiculously Low Price of $ 3⁹⁵

This is the clean-up of the season's broken lines and odd lots. Some lines only one or two pairs but all are our regular stock of high grade merchandise. This lot includes some Arch-preserver shoes for women, both in ties and pumps. No one can afford to miss this sale, as in many cases these shoes are sold at one-third of the actual value.

Men's Shoes at Half Price

TWO HUNDRED PAIRS MEN'S ENGLISH FLORSHEIM AND HANAN SHOES — regular $10 to $15 values — while they last will go at one price of

$ 5⁰⁰

All broken lots and short runs only, a few pairs of each line, but every pair perfect and most all sizes in the line. Do not miss this sale as these shoes will last only for a short time.

Bring All Your Repair Work

at the New Pre-War Prices

Ladies' Shoes	75c	Ladies' Leather or Rubber Heels	25c
Men's Shoes	$1.00	Men's Rubber Heels	25c

All Prices in Our Shop are Back to Normal and We are Doing a Largely Increased Business

Rollins Runstop Hosiery

The kind that is guaranteed against runs, our Petit Picot with the lace top that has been so popular. Every pair guaranteed.

Now on sale at
$1.65

3 pairs box price $4.50

The Price shoe Co.

135 Liberty St. Salem, Oregon

C. O. Ross
Expert Repair Man
We Solicit Your Finer Work

Dr. L. J. Williams
Foot Specialist and Chiroprapist
Examination Free

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Tuesday, January 26

Oregon State Graduate Nurses association, Dist. No. 3; with Mrs. R. L. Barnett, 855 Shipping street; Miss Olga Larson and Miss Viola Haack assisting hostesses.

Sons of Union Veterans and Auxiliary at Salem Woman's clubhouse.

Salem Arts league; lecture by Anton Piers, Netherlands artist; art exhibit will open. Public invited. Fire-place room of city library, Red Hills Grange, 8 o'clock. Liberty hall.

Business and Professional Women's dinner meeting, 6:30 o'clock; Gray Belle; Mrs. Roy Lockenour to speak on "Disarmament".

A. A. U. W. Home-Maker's club, with Mrs. L. D. Mars, 1845 North Summer street, 2:30 o'clock; any mother interested invited to attend.

Potluck dinner, 6:30 o'clock for First Congregational church people; important reports to be made from finance and parish committees; all urged to be present.

Salem Woman's Press club with Mrs. Ralph Curtis, 886 South Liberty street.

Wednesday, January 27

Leslie Can Do class with Mrs. G. S. Paxson, 1695 South Winter street.

Reception for Mrs. Elizabeth T. Adair, celebrating her 87th birthday. All friends and old acquaintances asked to call between hours of 2 and 5 o'clock at her home, 368 North Liberty street.

General Aid luncheon at First Methodist church, one o'clock; presidents of seven circles to act as hostesses; regular meeting following luncheon; program planned.

North Salem W. C. T. U.; business meeting, 2:00 o'clock; program 3 o'clock. John Myers, parole officer boys training school, speak on "Why Boys go Wrong".

Mrs. H. J. Clements will be hostess to members of the Ladies Aid of First Presbyterian church at her home, 360 North 14th street; 2:30 o'clock.

Thursday, January 28

Town and Gown club at Lausanne hall, 2:30 o'clock. Mothers Circle at Leslie school, 2:45 o'clock at school; tea at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Louisa Koon, 465 Marion street, hostess for tea for Woman's Relief corps.

West Way club of W. B. A.; business and social meeting; with Mrs. Florence Casement, 196 West Rural street.

Friday, January 29

Miss Esther Spiers hostess to Loyal Temperance union at her home 1435 North Summer street; 3:45 o'clock.

South Section of Woman's Union, First Congregational church, sponsoring tea at home of Mrs. D. J. Fry, Sr.; all women of church and friends invited; beginning at 2 o'clock.