Lovely Tea Aids Scholarship Loans

Inclement weather and the heavy social schedule for the afternoon did not keep many women from attending the silver tea sponsored yesterday by the education committee of the Salem Woman's club for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund of that committee.

The rooms of the clubhouse were beautifully decorated with greenery, potted plants, and baskets of gay flowers. The table all in silver was lighted by candles in a five-branched candelabrum and tall silver tapers. Mrs. Walter Spaulding and her committee were in charge of the service.

During the first hour, Mrs. Willard Marks and Mrs. Paul Wallace poured. Later in the afternoon Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. C. P. Bishop presided at the urns.

The receiving line was headed by Mrs. J. M. Devers, president of the club; next in order came Mrs. Ivan Martin, vice president; Mrs. U. G. Shipley, representing the scholarship loan committee; Mrs. J. C. Nelson, chairman of the applied education department; and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, member of the education department. Mrs. George Alden introduced guests to the line.

Mrs. C. C. Geer presented a series of piano selections and Mrs. S. W. Star sang, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Marguerite Dalton.

A number of musical selections were played by the Willamette string quartet.

Mrs. Clifton Mudd told the story of the scholarship loan fund. No definite information was available last night as to the exact amount of money given for the loan fund but it was expected that with the additional of a nominal sum by the club a fund of $100 would be available for loans this year to college women since the gifts were generous.

WOODBURN — "Founders' Day" for the P. E. O. will be celebrated and observed by the Woodburn chapter of the nation-wide organization Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Frank Settlemier on Settlemier avenue. Members of the entertainment committee are Mrs. Aline Beers, chairman; Mrs. Frank Settlemier, Mrs. Vern D. Bain, and Miss Mary Scollard.

The day is set aside by the P. E. O. to honor the memory of seven girls, students at Wesleyan college, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, who formed the P. E. O. sisterhood January 21, 1869.

FALL CITY — The engagement of Miss Dorothy Riggs, former Fall City high school teacher, and Ed Larsen of Clatskanie was recently announced. Miss Riggs is teaching at Clatskanie where Mr. Larsen is engaged in the service station work.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

An ideal school frock of matching cotton prints has a slightly moulded bodice which joins the flared skirt in deep scallops. The sleeves are cut in one with the bodice and smartly cuffed. You'll find a delightful assortment of these printed fabrics, as they are the season's newest contribution to chic.

Pattern 2279 is obtainable only in sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, 14. Size 10 requires 1 3/8 yards of 36-inch fabric for skirt and trim, and 1 1/4 yards for bodice. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern.

The new winter catalog is now ready. It features the newest in afternoon sports and house dresses, lingerie, pajamas and kid's clothes. Also delightful gift suggestions in necessary and transfer patterns. Price of catalog fifteen cents. Catalog with pattern, twenty-five cents. Address all mail and orders to The Statesman Pattern Department, 345 West 17th street, New York City. Send fifteen cents in stamps or stamps (coins preferred), for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and size of the woman's size you want.

Leslie Can-Do Class Hears Mrs. Johnson

An interesting and profitable as well as a social meeting was that enjoyed yesterday by 21 members of the Can-Do class of the Leslie Methodist church at the home of Mrs. G. F. Paxson on S. Winter street.

Following the regular business meeting the group adjourned to spend the afternoon socially. Mrs. E. S. Johnson, mother of the Reverend Mrs. S. Darlow Johnson and wife of Bishop E. S. Johnson of Africa, told the women of some of her experiences in Africa.

Mrs. Paxson was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. J. W. Ritchie and Mrs. Jack Heidler.

Attending the meeting were: the Mesdames S. Darlow Johnson, Fred Blake, Clark Will, Ward Davis, John Ulrich, M. A. Marey, A. C. Bohrnstedt, H. H. Boyce, Charles Vick, C. W. Stacy, Ora Pettit, B. F. Otjen, Mason Bishop, E. S. Johnson, G. R. Price, John Bertelson and Wayne Greenwood.

Sterling Guild Girls Give Banquet

One of the delightful affairs of the month was the annual Dad and Daughter banquet given by the Sterling Guild of the Calvary Baptist church on Tuesday evening. The motif of winter sports was very effectively carried out by means of a miniature snow scene as table decoration, programs in the form of snow-balls and tiny sleds as favors.

Following the short speech of welcome by the president, Miss Lola Dale Pickens, response was made by Mr. Charles McElhinney. Miss Edith Starrett was toast-mistress for the evening and appropriate toasts were given by Miss Lois Cochran, Miss Dorothea Pickens, Mrs. Kenneth Graber, and Miss Helen Alexander. Other program numbers were solos by Rev. W. Earl Cochran and a duet by Miss Mildred Taylor and Miss Dorothea Pickens, with Miss Eva Cochran as accompanist. Girls of the Fidelis guild served for the affair.

Guests included W. Earl Cochran, K. H. Pickens, Dale Taylor, W. C. Pickens, P. R. Alexander, Webb Ross, Edward Schunke, O. H. Pickens, Walter Nelson, H. H. Harms, William Einzig, Charles McElhinney, and C. R. Gregg.

A delightfully informal party was that with which a group of members of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil war surprised Mrs. F. G. Stearns in her home on Saturday night. Games and corn popping furnished much of the entertainment of the evening. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Those who enjoyed the party were: Addie Sanders, Anna Busby, Mabel Needham, Loraine Stow, Margaret Ringle, Ulena Boles, Sophia Mapthorpe, Jennie Miller, Kathryn Brown, Emma Swaddell, Adella Gilliam, Nellie Hiday, Doris Hiday, Elizabeth Skewis and Mrs. Stearns.

Silverton—Robert Burns' birthday was observed Monday night at the W. R. Tomison home by a group of people born in Scotland or of Scotch parents. Mrs. Edson Comstock and her daughter Janet, and Mrs. Tomison and her daughter Catherine played piano duets; Mrs. Comstock gave a vocal solo; Mr. Tomison gave violin, bagpipe and penny whistle numbers. Dr. McCannel entertained with Scotch readings and stories.

The supper table was centered with a birthday cake surrounded with heather. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Tomison and two daughters, Catherine and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sylvester, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. McCannel, Mr. and Mrs. George Gustiter, Miss Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock, Mrs. S. J. Comstock.

Kingwood—An enjoyable social afternoon was spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Yantiss when she entertained fellow members of the Lauffel Social Hour club. Mrs. Glenn L. Adams presided at the business meeting. The club voted Mrs. Arnold Coffey into membership. Mrs. Warren E. Baker assisted in serving. The next meeting will be Tuesday, February 2 with Mrs. E. W. Emmett as hostess.

Mrs. D. J. Fry, Sr., will open her home at 606 S. High street, Friday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5:30 for a silver tea to be sponsored by members of the Sons' Circle of the Women's Union of the First Congregational church.

Teams For YWCA Budget Drive Selected

Announcement of the appointment of 47 prominent Salem women as members of the ten teams which will during the week of February 1 to 6 solicit funds for the Salem Y. M. C. A. was made Wednesday following a meeting of the captains with Mrs. F. A. Elliott, campaign manager.

Silverton—Mrs. James Goble of Los Angeles is a house guest of her brother, H. B. Latham, and of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Latham, who observed their 68th wedding anniversary this month. Mrs. Goble was not able to be present at the anniversary date but just arrived Saturday. Tuesday and Mrs. Latham and Mrs. Goble motored to Portland to attend a club meeting.

Smart Bridge Benefit Held by Guild

Twelve tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon yesterday at the home of Mrs. Hal Patton when members of St. Agnes Guild of the St. Paul Episcopal formal bridge tea benefit.

Mrs. W. H. Lytle was awarded the door prize. Mrs. Baille N. Savage took first prize. Second and third prizes went to Mrs. Ralph Jackson and Miss Bertha Babcock.

At the tea hour Mrs. Louis Lachmund poured. Miss Dorothy White and Miss Josephine Cornoyer and committee members Mrs. Arthur Knox, Sally Lansing, Miss Josephine Baumgartner and Miss Rita Clagget served. A yellow color scheme was carried out in the beautifully appointed tables.

Hostesses at the various tables during the afternoon were Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Homer Gouley, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. Harry N. Crain, Mrs. Cal Patton, Mrs. W. E. Dancy, Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. Howard Rex, Mrs. Vernon Perry, Miss Roxena Eyre and Miss Helen Smith.

A number of guests called at the tea hour.

Gervais—The Community "500" club met at the Masonic hall Tuesday night with Mrs. Helena Estudillo, Miss Gertrude Weiss, Harold Tumbleson and Joseph Nathan Jr. as hostesses and hosts. Eight tables of the game were played. Prizes for high scores went to Mrs. C. B. Ellsworth and P. W. Seely and for low scores to Mrs. Sumner Stevens and A. B. Adkisson. Hostesses for the next meeting, February 9, are Mrs. A. Nibler, Mrs. M. D. Henning, Mrs. Robert Harper and Miss Sophie Nibler.

Mr. and Mrs. I. V. McAdoo gave

Officers Installed by Church Circle

Installation of newly elected officers and discussions of plans for the coming year were the main features of the meeting of the United Circle of the First Christian church Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors. It was planned that instead of meeting quarterly, the society would henceforth meet each month.

Officers installed for the coming year are: Mrs. Arthur Flint, president; Mrs. R. L. Hart, first vice president; Mrs. Fannie Townsend, second vice president; Mrs. C. F. Doane, secretary; and Mrs. Albert Noth, treasurer. Miss Anna Townsend served as installing officer.

The United Circle is composed of all women of the church who are interested in working for the welfare of the church and its organizations.

a card party at their home Monday night with the teachers in the high and grade schools as honored guests. Those present were Mrs. Helena Estudillo, Miss Viola Paterson, Miss Ethel Martin and Harold Tumbleson of the school faculty and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Alsop, Mrs. V. O. Booster, Mrs. C. B. Ellsworth and Miss Gertrude Weiss. Prizes in the game went to Miss Weiss and Mr. Allsup.

Dallas—Mrs. R. V. Morrison entertained the Cul Boni club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. H. Morrison, Mrs. J. R. Sibley, and Mrs. I. M. Glen were special guests of the club at this meeting.

Members present were: Mrs. Verne Smith, Mrs. Frank Hobson, Mrs. A. B. Dilley, Mrs. Eugene Hayter, Mrs. Conrad Stratir, Mrs. Oscar Holmes, Mrs. N. L. Guy, Mrs. L. A. Bollman, Mrs. E. J. Himes, Mrs. H. G. Campbell, Mrs. G. L. Hawkins, Mrs. E. V. Dalton and the hostess.

Pair Sentenced But Get Parole

Sentences of six months each in jail were given yesterday to Myrtle Smith and Leo Bellegarde when the couple was brought before Judge L. H. McMahon on a statutory charge. The judge then nparoled the two people. The violation was alleged to have taken place January 14, 1932, near Chemawa. Defendants made no attempt to deny the charge.
