

MINISTERS OPPOSE WOMEN'S SMOKING

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27 (AP)—Portland Presbyterian ministers believe cigarette smoking among women "is destroying feminine beauty" and lowering the standards of womanhood.

In a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Portland Presbytery the pastors declared themselves as "extremely opposed to the use of cigarettes or tobacco among women and young people" and "extremely opposed to the showing of pictures of women in cigarettes or tobacco advertisements, or of women smoking in moving pictures."

The resolution declared that "the use of cigarettes among women, in our opinion, lessens the feeling of self-respect

WOOLVERTON BACK HOME; NOT HARMED

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Isador Lang, 71, president of the General Grocery Co., Inc., who died October 7, 1931, left an estate appraised at $1,155,469.96.

WOOLVERTON BACK HOME; NOT HARMED

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Howard A. Woolverton, 52-year-old manufacturer, returned to his home unharmed late tonight, 24 hours after two men abducted him from a South Bend street and demanded $50,000 for his release. He said no ransom had been paid.

Woolverton got off a South Shore train here at 11:30 tonight and went to his home. He was in a daze and said he could not remember how he got on the train. He said his abductors treated him well and provided good food. Soon after he was captured, he said, he was blindfolded and consequently would not be able to identify them.

Emergency Road Work is Delayed By Recent Snow

Worse than the discomfort of the snows which have been falling this week is the effect it has had on the men working on the state and county emergency employment projects. Their one week's work in five already has been cut almost in half because the weather made working on the roads impossible.

Whether extra jobs for this week's crew can be provided next week has not yet been decided. Registration for the emergency employment yesterday reached
