tion and transportation laws. The sentiment expressed was in favor of the law as it now stands and against any injunction regarding it.

COUSINS IN LYONS LYONS, Jan. 27.—Mrs. Viola Davenport of Portland who was killed in a car accident near the Salem tubercular hospital Monday night was a cousin of Mrs. Davis of Lyons and also of Phyllis Thomas of Lyons.

SPRING NEAR AT HAND Weather Brings Out Variety of Flowers Early BUT LAMBS SUFFERING

By MRS. W. N. CRAWFORD ZENA, Jan. 27.—Old timers of the Willamette valley are not backward in saying that this is one of the most unusual winters they have ever experienced.

They are, however, predicting an early spring as flowers of all kinds such as crocus, narcissi, lilies, daffodils and various others have been peeping through the ground for a month or more.

Several inches of snow fell at Crooked Finger Tuesday and a couple of inches at Noble. Quite a number from this vicinity attended the annual business meeting of the Mt. Angel Creamery in Mt. Angel Monday.

JEFFERSON, Jan. 27.—People from here who attended the funeral services for Rev. F. W. Launer at the Fisher-Bradford funeral parlors Monday were Rev. and Laura Kibb, Anna Klampe, Mrs. Nettie Reeves, Mrs. J. T. Jones, Mrs. B. S. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Thurston, Mrs. W. W. Warner, Mrs. Hugh Bilyeu, and Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Richardson.

HAZEL GREEN, Jan. 27.—The young people are arranging the program of the Community club for Friday night, January 29. Pictures of Mexico will be shown by Warren Crabtree of Silverton.

2 BIRTHS INTEREST MILL TOWN PEOPLE

SCOTTS MILLS, Jan. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinser received word from Boise, Idaho, Sunday of a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ayers, Jan. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lawrence are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter born early Monday morning, Jan. 25, at their home. The little miss has been named Nelda Lorrin.

Left Kellis is confined in the Silverton hospital with blood poisoning in his arm and will be there the remainder of the week at least. The freshman class of the Scotts Mills high was duly initiated Friday and in the evening a party was given.
